Noteworthy Information

- The Police Auxiliary is working hard to raise funds to help with police department training and equipment needs. For more information, please contact the Bull Shoals District Court Clerk, Jessica Wilkinson.
- The 4th Of July celebration and traffic control efforts in Bull Shoals went smoothly. We ask that our citizens reference our local ordinance on fireworks discharge and use in chapter 7.44, sections 1 and 2 of our ordinance book. See attached*

- Due to an increasing number of traffic complaints, the Bull Shoals Police Dept. will be ramping up traffic control efforts. Summer months mean more children playing in yards next to city streets, more people out walking, and more visiting families wanting to enjoy the laid-back outdoor activities. People speeding and running stop signs on our local streets must stop for the safety of all of our citizens and visiting families.
- In efforts to better serve the community, extend coverage, and as it is within budget, the Bull Shoals Police Department would like to request another part time position and one reserve position be made available.
- The Bull Shoals Police Department is proud to serve this community. We understand that we are public servants tasked with serving and protecting this wonderful town. This department strives to do this in a non-political manor. We serve each member of this community the same and without partisan intentions. Under no circumstance will this Bull Shoals Police Department be used for any political agenda!
- The next Coffee With A Cop will be July 25, 9am at Blackbird Coffeehouse. Moving forward, Coffee With A Cop will opened up to be held at different businesses around town that would like to hold one of these meetings. We are asking the local businesses interested in this to please contact Sergeant Herren to schedule one of these monthly meetings.
- YTD – Bull Shoals District Court has seen a total of 128 docket cases. This includes everything from traffic citations, city ordinance violations, to criminal offenses.
