

Coach Ludovic, born in Douala, Cameroon, embarked on his soccer journey at the age of 4 in Germany, where he fostered an enduring passion for the game. At eleven, he relocated to the United States, playing for the Potomac Cougars and the German School in Potomac.

His dedication led him to compete in D1 Soccer at Alabama A&M University, where he faced the challenge of adapting to teammates representing various African national teams, fostering invaluable experiences. Ludovic further honed his expertise at the University of Akron, graduating with a Bachelor's of Science in Sports Management – Sport Studies.

Fluent in English, French, and German, Ludovic's linguistic versatility opened doors for pursuing coaching licenses globally. Opting to return to Germany in 2021, he coached the U13, U14, U18, and U17 teams for SV Blau Gelb Frankfurt, concurrently obtaining his UEFA B License from the esteemed German Football Federation (DFB) on August 2, 2023.

Now back in the United States, Ludovic serves as an assistant coach for the U16 at the Baltimore Armor, where he thrives in fostering player development and expanding his coaching repertoire. Positioned within the dynamic MLS Next level, Ludovic is committed to continuous learning and progression at the pinnacle of youth soccer in the United States.
