Minimum order?

- For items ordered per person we require a minimum of 20 of that item.

Per Person?

- The menu is ordered "Per Person" meaning those items are ordered based on the expected headcount

Submitting an order?

- To submit your order email us your selections and your current estimated headcount, we will plug in that order and send it back for you to review!

How much to order?

- Items should be ordered based on the expected headcount to ensure you have enough of each item for every guest. If you know your guests won't like something/or will love something you can order more or less of an item.

Headcount?

- If your group has a few last-minute RSVPs we can increase items up to 5 days before the event but we do not offer a reduction.

How is it served?

- Items are served on a stationed buffet and is set out at the start of the event
