

Rising Star - Office Award

This category celebrates women who demonstrate significant initiative and leadership potential within the building, construction or infrastructure industries.

Recognises the ability of women to proactively inspire others, demonstrate initiative and dedication of a future leader working in the building, construction or infrastructure industries and wider community.

This category is open to all women who have worked in the building, construction or infrastructure industries with more than two years and less than six years experience. This includes work performed in the trades, as a professional or in an organisational or operational role.

We want to hear examples of how the nominee's active participation and innovation goes above and beyond the requirements of the workplace.

Demonstrate the nominee's initiative and potential as future leader; and inspiring role model in the building, construction or infrastructure industries as well as the wider community.

This award is for women who predominantly work in an office environment.

Rising Star - Office Award

This category celebrates women who demonstrate significant initiative and leadership potential within the building, construction or infrastructure industries.

Judging Criteria

1. Describe the nominee's role, and an innovation and/or methodology have they developed to significantly enhance the workplace or project success?
2. Describe how they demonstrate significant initiative, are an active role model and show exceptional future leadership qualities.
3. Tell us how their contribution has impacted the workplace and inspired other staff or wider community.
4. Outline their goals and future aspirations within the construction, building or infrastructure industries.
5. What developments or changes do they want to implement in the industry and how?
6. Share any other activities they are involved in with other women in the industry and outside the workplace and wider community.