

INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP & CONFERENCE BENEFITS

AIRC: The Association of International Enrollment Management helps you:

- Compete globally for qualified degree-seeking students
- Take advantage of trends in global student mobility
- Build professional knowledge and best practices in international student operations
- Grow your network of international enrollment professionals
- Fulfill institutional and national strategies for international enrollment
- Shape the future of international enrollment globally

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Access to certified recruitment agencies who meet the highest standard of professional practice
- Access to AIRC's resource library, webinars, and other resources
- Discounts on AIRC's Annual Conference, events, and professional development
- Development of Standards and Guidelines for the international enrollment management field
- Contribute to and benefit from AIRC's global dialogue around quality assurance
- Access to a commercial ecosystem that supports international enrollment management
- Opportunity to publish in AIRC's book series

Institutional Annual Membership Fee: $800 USD
Membership runs from July 1-June 30 each year

CONFERENCE BENEFITS

- Tailored, solutions-oriented sessions about international student recruitment
- A robust exhibit hall featuring the latest innovations in enrollment management
- Social and professional networking events
- Curated B2B meeting opportunities with the highest quality student recruitment agencies
- Showcase your institution's programs to a global audience

AIRC: The Association of International Enrollment Management is a non-profit membership associated recognized by the U.S. government as the official standards body for international student recruitment and enrollment practices. Our dynamic membership includes over 2,000 professionals representing accredited educational institutions, service providers, and certified student recruitment agencies.