

Norwich Science Festival is a celebration of science and technology in Norfolk. Taking place throughout February half term, the festival offers all ages the chance to explore the wonders of the universe, meet the scientists whose research has changed the world and discover how science influences everything around us.

With a long association with the festival Norwich School is proud to once again host an eclectic programme of events:

Sat 15 to Wed 19 Feb

Explorer Dome Planetarium (Refectory)

Sat 15 Feb 10:00-11:00

Norwich Science Festival: Dr Jo with a show (Blake Studio)

Sat 15 Feb 12:00-13:00

Norwich Science Festival: Dr Jo with a show – SEND performance (Blake Studio)

Sat 15 Feb 14:00-15:00

Norwich Science Festival: Professor Aiofe Hunt (Blake Studio)

Sun 16 Feb 11:00-12:00

Norwich Science Festival: Jess French and Ben Garrod Animal Top Trumps – Little vs Large (Blake Studio)

Mon 17 Feb 11:00-12:00

Norwich Science Festival: Playing Games with Mathematics with Katie Steckles (Blake Studio)

Mon 17 Feb 14:00-15:00

Norwich Science Festival: Nate Rae – Braintastic Science – Animal Intelligence (Blake Studio)

Wed 19 Feb

Techathon Day 1 (Daynes Sports Centre)

Thurs 20 Feb

Techathon Day 2 (Daynes Sports Centre)

Thurs 20 Feb 10:00-11:00

Simon Watt – The Ugly Animals Weird Life Underwater (Blake Studio)

Thurs 20 Feb 12:00-13:00

Jules Howard – MEGA! Explore the biggest animals that ever lived! (Blake Studio)

Thurs 20 Feb 15:00-16:00

Adam Rutherford – Where are you really from? (Blake Studio)

Fri 21 Feb 14:00

Jon Chase – Science Rapper's Guide to the Solar System (Blake Studio)

NORWICH SCHOOL

Transform Tomorrow

15-22 FEBRUARY 2025

