Mark 1:40-45

Jesus takes pity on a leper and cures him of his disease with a warning not to say but to show himself to the priest and make an offering. Instead of remaining silent, the leper greatly publicized the healing, making it impossible for Jesus to enter the town openly.

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations

All: O God, we earnestly beseech thee to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Reading I - Lv 13:1-2, 44-46

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head. "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 32:1-2, 5, 11

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Reading II - 1 Cor 10:31—11:1

Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.
Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God,
just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many,
that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

Gospel - Mk 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP PRIORITIES

“Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.”

- 1 CORINTHIANS 10:31

Do a quick check of your Stewardship priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He's not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other “gods” (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, “If I'm doing this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?”

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Compassionate Care

As we look at Jesus' suffering, death, and resurrection, we observe the ultimate example of compassion. He now calls us to follow his example and to be deeply concerned for one another. Stephen Ministry is a ministry filled with compassion. It provides compassionate Christians with a place where they can use those gifts in ministry as a Stephen Minister. It also provides a haven where those in need of compassion can receive it in a confidential relationship with a Stephen Minister. If you would like to have a Stephen Minister, please call 856-468-5536.

Ash Wednesday is February 14. Masses will be celebrated at 7:00 AM, 8:30 AM and 7:00 PM. Prayer services will be at Noon, 4:30 PM and 6:00 PM.

Remember Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

LENT

Lent is a 40-day season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving that begins on Ash Wednesday and ends at sundown on Holy Thursday. It's a period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter. During Lent, we seek the Lord in prayer by reading Sacred Scripture; we serve by giving alms; and we practice self-control through fasting. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully. We recall the waters of baptism in which we were also baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

Consider joining us for some of our Lenten events to help you grow in your faith and love of God.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this week comes from the Gospel of Mark 1:40-45. In this text we read of Jesus healing a leper and of the leper's response. On the surface, it looks like a very simple miracle story, but there is a deeper lesson in discipleship being offered as well.

The disobedience of the healed man is a significant aspect of this passage. You see, while Jesus demonstrates His power and control over the forces of illness, disease, and evil spirits, the one thing Jesus does not do is take away our free will and force us to act in a certain manner. Thus, Jesus does not control our human decisions. In this passage, Jesus does what the leper asks, but the healed leper doesn't do what Jesus asks. As disciples, this is a very important and powerful insight for us. Just like the man in the story, Jesus shares manifold blessings with us. Through the Gospel, and in the quiet of our prayer, He asks us to respond to Him in a very specific way. All too often we are like the healed man who is more concerned about getting God to do what we want rather than doing what God is wanting from us. For the healed man, his call to fame was the miraculous healing he received from Jesus. However, as disciples our call to boast should be in how well we fulfill God's will in our lives. In our contemporary secular culture, we value human freedom over all other values; in discipleship, we should value obedience to God's will first and foremost. As God, Jesus knew that the healed man would not follow our Lord's instruction, but He healed him anyway. That, too, is an important lesson for us because it reminds us that we can't control how other people will respond to our good works – but discipleship calls us to show compassion, nonetheless. In short, we are responsible for being merciful; other people are responsible for how they respond to that mercy.

Think about it: How much of my prayer is spent asking God for something rather than seeking to listen to what God is asking of me? When do I find it easy to exempt myself from charitable actions because I don't know how others will respond to my mercy?
