Reading 1 - Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am!" he replied. Then God said: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you." When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered. "Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger. "Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son." As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son. Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command."

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19 - I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Reading 2 - Rom 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Gospel - Mk 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

THIS WEEK'S LENTEN CHALLENGE

Give up worry. Write down what worries you and leave it before an image of Jesus, surrendering it to His care.

Make a small sacrifice each day this week for all souls – e.g. no dessert, no cream in coffee, no snacks during the day.

SJ CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

This year's theme: “THROUGH HIM AND FOR HIM” continues our focus on the nation-wide Eucharist Revival and reminds us that “in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself.”

This reminds us Christ is central in our lives and present in the Eucharist. Your individual gift to this Appeal will become one of many that unites and builds up the one Body of Christ. Through our various ministries across the diocese your gift is shared and brings comfort, relief, encouragement and support to many.

By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are supporting those who comprise the programs and ministries of the Diocese of Camden. These ministries serve the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged. When we support the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we can bring the light of hope to those in the Catholic community of South Jersey. Please prayerfully consider joining us once again.

STEWARDS ARE CALLED

“‘Here I am!’ he answered.”

- GENESIS 22:11

It is easy to say, “Here I am, Lord,” when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say “Here I am, Lord,” when a neighbor needs our help, or when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times Stewards are called when it's not convenient for us. Discipleship is not easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

February 13 through February 19 Giving - $17,277.10

STEPHEN MINISTRY

“Let Me Care for You.”

Those words can bring a sigh of relief to people going through difficult times in life. A Stephen Minister is willing and able to care for you by listening and being there while you work through this tough time. If this is the kind of care for you, please call 856-468-5536.

HOW TO DISPOSE OF PALMS AND OTHER BLESSED SACRAMENTALS

The practice of the Church has been to dispose of these items in a reverent way. We ask that you please do not return your used palms or sacramentals to the church but to reverently dispose of them yourself. This can be done in one of two ways. The first is burning blessed items such as used palms reverently in a fire. Just be sure to burn the items completely, even if that means disassembling the items to ensure proper burning of all the parts. The second is to bury the items, especially nonflammable ones, reverently in the ground in a place which will be undisturbed.

The Incarnation Angels' Spring Vendor and Craft Event IS COMING SOON!! We have an almost full house of crafters and vendors for Saturday, March 2 – Doors open at 10:00 AM and event will run until 2:00 PM. ## SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DEPAUL

Our St. Vincent DePaul Society helps individuals and families in need throughout our community. Over the past few years the need for assistance with utilities, rent, etc. have risen as well as the cost of food. The St. Vincent DePaul Society is asking for donations to offset the cost of this year's Easter food baskets. A full sponsorship of $65.00 will provide an entire food basket and a donation of $33.00 will provide half the cost of a basket. Please consider a donation to help the mission of St. Vincent DePaul – to see the face of Christ in those we serve.

Donations may be dropped off at the parish office or placed in the weekend collection. Please mark your envelope SVdP donation. Thank you.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage comes from the Gospel of Mark 9:2-10. This is the scene of Jesus' transfiguration and it is a fascinating revelation to the disciples of Jesus' inner identity and mission. This interesting event is contained in the three Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke), as well as the Second Letter of Peter (2 Pt 1:16-18). This multiple attestation means that the Transfiguration was a significant event in the life of Jesus that is important for our lives of discipleship as well. For that reason, this account was carefully preserved by the 1st Century Church.

It is significant that Jesus goes up to a high mountain with His closest disciples for this moment of revelation and insight into His divine nature. It is also significant that God speaks from a cloud. In the Old Testament (and in other ancient cultures), mountains were places of communication between God and humanity. This was certainly true of Mount Sinai and the communication between God and Moses, as well as the Mount of the Jerusalem Temple. In pagan cultures, they also sought communication with the gods on mountains like Mount Olympus. The presence of a cloud had particular meaning for agrarian societies of the ancient world that depended upon rain for the success of their crops. Clouds bring rain and rain brings life. Since God is the God of Life, then a cloud is the perfect symbol for the divine presence as the Author of Life. We see the divine presence accompanied by a cloud in Exodus 40:34-38 when it covered the tent of a meeting. Also, in 1 Kings 8:10-11 a cloud filled the House of the Lord during the dedication of Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem. Psalm 68:4 states that the Lord "rides upon the clouds." All these texts affirm that the Transfiguration is a moment of revelation where the disciples are going to hear and recognize the voice of God and the presence of God in Jesus.

Such recognition may be easy in a moment of glory, but we need to remember that there will be another mountain Jesus will climb and that it will not be easy to recognize the voice of God and the Lord's presence on that mountain – it is the Mount of Calvary. As disciples, we may not go up to high places to meet the Lord, but we do have privileged places of encounter where we meet God more readily than in other settings. These privileged places of encounter may be the sacred space of a church, a prayer space in our homes, or other quiet area. We need to encounter the Lord wherever we can and whenever we can because for each of us there will be moments when it will be difficult to find that encounter or to recognize the presence and voice of God in the midst of a challenging or painful situation. The disciples needed to have this moment of revelation on the mountain of Transfiguration so they could remain strong when they faced the mountain of Calvary. We read this passage on the second Sunday of Lent because we are praying for the grace to faithfully follow the Lord to Jerusalem and to accompany Him through His Death and Resurrection.

Think about it: What is my privileged place of encounter with God? Where do I go to meet the Lord?
