Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest:

Let us pray for vocations

All:

O God, we earnestly beseech thee to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest:

Bless our families, bless our children.

All:

Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest:

O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All:

Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Reading I - Is 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Responsorial Psalm - 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Reading II - Phil 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Gospel is Mk 14:1—15:47 – Please participate – the parish congregation is the CROWD.

The reading can be found on page 96 of the missalette.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

THIS WEEK'S LENTEN CHALLENGE

One day this week offer extra prayers for those coming into the Church at Easter.

This year consider attending the Triduum –

The summit of the Liturgical Year is the Easter Triduum—from the evening of Holy Thursday to the evening of Easter Sunday. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery.

The single celebration of the Triduum marks the end of the Lenten season and leads to the Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord at the Easter Vigil.

The liturgical services that take place during the Triduum are:

Mass of the Lord's Supper, Good Friday of the Lord's Passion, Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord

See the Holy Week Schedule for times. We look forward to seeing you!

SJCMA

This year's theme: “THROUGH HIM AND FOR HIM” continues our focus on the nation-wide Eucharist Revival and reminds us that “in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself.”

By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are supporting those who comprise the programs and ministries of the Diocese of Camden. These ministries serve the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged. When we support the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we can bring the light of hope to those in the Catholic community of South Jersey. To date our parish has raised over $62,000.00. Please prayerfully consider making a gift this year toward our goal of $201,000.00.

STEWARDS CARE

“Pilate again said to them, ‘Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?’
And they cried out again, ‘Crucify him.’”

– MARK 15:12-13

Jesus told us “whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me.” Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Every day we pass by someone in need. Pray for the strength and courage to live Stewardship by being the answer to someone's prayer.

March 12 through March 18 Giving - $21,375.35

STEPHEN MINISTRY

“Please Keep This Confidential . . .”

When you say these words to your Stephen Minister, you can be assured your Stephen Minister will keep quiet about what you share. Confidentiality is a cornerstone of Stephen Ministry. Stephen Ministers don't reveal anything their care receiver says – and don't even tell anyone who their care receiver is. Please call 856-468-5536 to request a Stephen Minister or talk to a Stephen Leader.

EASTER FLOWERS

Our altar will again be beautifully adorned for Easter. If you would like to donate in memory of a loved one or in honor of a loved one, please use the flower envelope found in your Easter mailing.

Bishop Sullivan invites the faithful of the diocese to join him and his priests for the Chrism Mass at 3:30 PM on Tuesday, March 26, at Saint Agnes Church (Our Lady of Hope Parish) in Blackwood. The Chrism Mass is a celebration of the priesthood and the occasion at which the bishop consecrates the sacred oils used in the sacramental life of the Church. Your presence and prayerful support will be greatly appreciated.

SUMMER PREP CATECHISTS NEEDED

Our Summer PREP Program needs you! Catechists are needed for our Summer sessions:

June 17-21, July 8-12 and July 22-26

For grades 1,3,4,5 and 6 from 8:00 AM to 11:30 AM

And for Sacrament Preparation grades 2, 7 and 8 from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM. If you are interested, please contact the PREP office at 856-468-7566.

PRAYER WARRIORS NEEDED!!

We are looking for Prayer Warriors! The Church of Incarnation is looking to start a group of seven people, who are willing to commit one day a week to spend an hour in front of the blessed sacrament, praying for the intentions of those within our parish. Each person will be assigned one day a week. Are you the person that people come to, to ask for prayers? Then maybe the Holy Spirit is calling you to this ministry. What a beautiful way to practice spiritual works of mercy. If you are interested, please call Bernadette at 856-430-1403 to sign up!

KNIGHTS KNEWS

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday is extensive and covers two entire chapters of Mark's Gospel from 14:1– 15:47. In this reading, we hear of Jesus' Last Supper, betrayal by Judas, trial both before the Sanhedrin and Pilate, Suffering, Crucifixion, Death, and Burial. Various details are immersed in this account of our Lord's final hours of earthly ministry. There are many details from this account to show us how to live our lives as disciples. Let's focus on Jesus' time in the Garden.

When Jesus is in the Garden of Gethsemane (Mk 14:32-42) we see less than stellar examples of discipleship in the persons of Peter, James, and John. In fact, they all appear as examples of failure. Just a few verses before this chapter Jesus had warned His disciples on the need to "Stay awake!" in Mark 13:37. Now they all fall asleep at the most critical hour. Those who were Jesus' closest friends and had been with Him from the very beginning of His ministry and had been part of His inner circle, now appear disinterested in His distress. James and John, who were so confident that they could "drink from the cup Jesus would drink" in Mark 10:39 now sleep while Jesus prays that the cup may pass Him by. Peter, who claimed that he would be willing to die for Jesus, now appears unwilling to sacrifice even one hour of sleep for the sake of the Lord. It would be bad enough if they had failed once and been reprimanded for their lack of attentiveness and disinterest, but they failed three times in a row. Also, though they may have been close to Jesus by their physical proximity, their hearts were far from Him in this moment. The reality is that Peter, James, and John are not very different from any of us. It is easy to have great and noble ideas of how we will live out our commitment to God yet find it difficult to do so in daily circumstances. The Good News is that Jesus does not reject the disciples for their failure and disappointing progress. Rather, the Lord gives them a second chance and a third chance, and so on. Sometimes we believe that we are not capable of being great disciples but that is a lie; the only thing that prevents us from being great people of faith is our lack of desire for such greatness. Peter, James, and John will eventually become heroic examples of faith and committed disciples but only because they keep trying. The same is true for us. In our moments of weakness, short-sightedness, and failure, we should not lose hope, but rather realize our need for God's mercy, forgiveness, and grace and renew our commitment to follow the Lord.

Think about it: How does the Sacrament of Reconciliation help me to renew my commitment to discipleship despite a moment of failure? Considering coming back to the Sacrament of Reconciliation? See the Holy Week Schedule on page 5.
