Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord - Sunday, March 31

John 20:1-9

When Mary Magdalene discovered Jesus' tomb was open, she told Simon Peter and another disciple. They ran to the tomb and Peter went inside. He found the burial wrappings on the ground, with the head covering separate from the rest. The other disciple came in and they believed what they saw, although until then they had not understood the Scripture's message of Jesus' resurrection.

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Please join in singing the Gloria

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

These are the Easter Sunday Readings – Easter Vigil Readings please use the Missalette.

Reading I - Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: “You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23 - This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Reading II - Col 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Or I Cor 5:6b-8

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Gospel - Jn 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SJCMA

This year's theme: “THROUGH HIM AND FOR HIM” continues our focus on the nation-wide Eucharistic Revival and reminds us that “in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself.”

By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are supporting those who comprise the programs and ministries of the Diocese of Camden. These ministries serve the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged. When we support the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we can bring the light of hope to those in the Catholic community of South Jersey. To date our parish has raised over $62,000.00. Please prayerfully consider making a gift this year toward our goal of $201,000.00.

LIVING STEWARDSHIP

“Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.”

- COLOSSIANS 3:2

On this day we thank God for His Son, Jesus, who died, rose and opened the gates of heaven for us. We celebrate and sing “Alleluia.” Let's try to keep the joy of this Easter season in our hearts throughout the year by living Stewardship. Pray daily and listen for how God is calling each of us to joyfully use our gifts to fulfill His salvation plan.

The Stewardship Report will resume after Easter

PRAYER WARRIORS NEEDED!!

We are looking for Prayer Warriors! The Church of Incarnation is looking to start a group of seven people, who are willing to commit one day a week to spend an hour in front of the blessed sacrament, praying for the intentions of those within our parish. What a beautiful way to practice spiritual works of mercy. If you are interested, please call Bernadette at 856-430-1403 to sign up!

25TH ANNIVERSARY FUNDRAISER NEXT WEEKEND APRIL 6 AND 7

My brothers and sisters, we are here to thank you for the many ways you make us feel at home far away from home. Birthdays are important and we have realized a rich culture in this country of celebrating birthdays. We the Sisters of Mary Immaculate of Nyeri are delighted because we will be celebrating 25 years this year. Our first three sisters landed in Elmer, Salem County on September 21, 1999. They were new to this country and you can imagine their mixed feelings of being in a far-off country - 25 years later we have 20 sisters serving in different dioceses throughout the country. Currently, we are in the Camden Diocese, Archdiocese of New York Brookline and Diocese of Atlanta in Georgia as we continue to be hands and feet of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For this reason, we invite you to walk with us as we thank God for holding us and seeing us through the past 25 years. As you support us with your prayers we are also working diligently to prepare for this remarkable event. If possible, stop by our tables and see what you can buy as a way to support us and any donation will be appreciated.

You can go to dollar store and buy a pen for $1.00, however, if you buy one from us it doesn't just write, it is blessed and you can use it even at night because it lights. We also have sweatshirts, T-shirts, rosaries and many more items.
