Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Reading 1 - Isaiah 2:1-5

This is what Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come, the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; many peoples shall come and say: "Come, let us climb the LORD's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths." For from Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and impose terms on many peoples. They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; one nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 122: 1-2, 3-4, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9 - Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Reading 2 - Romans 13:11-14

Brothers and sisters: You know the time; it is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed; the night is advanced, the day is at hand. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us conduct ourselves properly as in the day, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in promiscuity and lust, not in rivalry and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the desires of the flesh.

Gospel - Matthew 24:37-44

Jesus said to his disciples: "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be out in the field; one will be taken, and one will be left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one will be left. Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven.

Incarnation Insights

Deacon Tom O'Brien will take participants on a spiritual journey recalling to mind a time of feeling lost, confused, or burdened; then together we will journey through Scripture from darkness to light. Join us on Wednesday, Dec. 3 at 7:00PM in the Fr. Salerno Room.

FORGOT YOUR ENVELOPES?

If you forgot your envelopes, are new to the parish or are visiting the parish and would like to make a donation. You can do so here. Be sure to select one-time gift – as recurring is default.

iGIVECATHOLIC

Once again Incarnation Parish is participating in Giving Tuesday on Tuesday, December 2. This year we are raising funds to enhance the sound in the Fr. Salerno Room at the Kernan Center. There are many meetings, talks and events which take place there throughout the year and this will ensure all are able to hear well and participate. The iGiveCatholic link is open so if you would like to donate please visit - <https://www.igivecatholic.org/organization/churchoftheincarnationigc> or the link is available on the parish website – www.incarnation-church.org.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

“Let Me Care for You.”

Those words can bring a sigh of relief to people going through difficult times in life. A Stephen Minister is willing and able to care for you by listening and being there while you work through this tough time. If this is the kind of care for you, please call 856-468-5536.

Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. (Matthew 24:42)

Our Giving Tree will be in the gathering space this weekend. Take a tag, purchase the item and place the tag securely to the outside of wrapped gift. All gifts should be returned by Sunday, December 7 – at the latest.

SOUP AND SCRIPTURE

Join us for Soup and Scripture the four Mondays of Advent – This year's theme will be Bishop Barron's Catholicism. Soup and bread will be served at 5:30 PM and the talk will begin at 6:15 PM. This Monday, December 1 is the first session so take time out from the hustle and bustle and delve deeper into our faith.

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION

Come and spend some quiet time with Jesus at First Friday Adoration – Friday, December 5 from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM.

CLOTHING DRIVE

Donations are being collected of gently used clothing and toiletries (new socks and underwear too) for the people of Cebu in the Philippines. Collection dates (ONLY) this weekend through December 14. THE LEGION OF MARY

Are you looking for a way to serve God, your parish and the larger Church? The Legion of Mary performs the corporal works of mercy: visiting the sick and homebound, visiting the prisons, providing transportation to church for those without transportation, religious instruction, praying for the deceased and evangelization. Its primary purpose is to develop personal holiness. Active Members meet weekly for prayers, planning and discussion. They devote two to four hours per week working to save souls. There is also Auxiliary Membership which provides prayer support for Active Members. Please join us Thursday morning after the 8:30 AM Mass in the St. Joseph Room. All are welcome.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this First Sunday of Advent comes from the Gospel of Matthew 24:37-44. In this passage, Jesus cautions us to be careful about focusing our attention on externals. Our Lord gives the specific examples of two situations in which people appeared to be very similar from all external observation but were actually quite different based on their interior dispositions of faith. What really distinguished those who are gathered to the Lord from those who were not gathered to the Lord was not so much what they were doing but rather the radical nature of their attachment to God. It is this interior and invisible quality of a person's faith commitment that drew them close to the Lord in this life and brought them into eternal communion with God in heaven. Our preparation to meet the Lord, then, is not primarily a matter of taking on particular practices, additional devotions, or other external changes of behavior. These things will mean nothing if they do not spring from an intense interior life of loving devotion to the Lord. In fact, if prudence is not exercised, sometimes these practices can be moved by a subtle yet harmful pride that distorts the meaning of the spiritual life. For this reason, Jesus emphasizes the need for interior conversion and radical love for God from which a meaningful life of discipleship will naturally flow. Advent, then, is a time to draw close to the Lord in our daily prayer and to purify our hearts of the distractions and disordered affections that obstruct and impede our growth in holiness. This interior process of conversion can be far more difficult than merely changing our exterior actions for a few weeks, but it is also far more important. The interior change of life requires that we acknowledge our need for God because of our fallen and sinful state, see and recognize God's love for us in our Lord's saving and redeeming works – the greatest of which is the death and resurrection of Jesus – and pray for the gift of the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts so that we can love God even as God loves us.

Think about it: What is the growth in prayer I desire during this Advent time?

CHRISTMAS EVE: LIVE NATIVITY PAGEANT

Children will perform the story of Jesus' birth on Christmas Eve prior to the 4:00 PM Mass. The roles will consist of Mary, Joseph, Innkeeper, Wise Men, Shepherds, Angels, and animals. The roles will be based on the age/grade of the child. Any child from Incarnation K through 8 can participate. Practices will be held on: December 11 at 6:00 PM and December 20 at 10:00 AM. Please contact Heather Wilkie at hwilkie@incarnation-church.org to register. Students may receive service hours for both practices and the Live Nativity.
