Sunday, March 29 Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Gospel: Matthew 26:14—27:66

This is the solemn narrative of the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. Matthew recounts the treachery and betrayal of Judas and then describes the events of the Last Supper, culminating in the institution of the Eucharist. Jesus endures the Agony in the Garden; he is then brought before Caiaphas and Pilate and condemned to death. After His resurrection, the centurions shouted, "Clearly this was the Son of God!"

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

At the Procession with Palms – Gospel – Matthew 21:1-11

When Jesus and the disciples drew near Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tethered, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them here to me. And if anyone should say anything to you, reply, 'The master has need of them.' Then he will send them at once." This happened so that what had been spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled: Say to daughter Zion, "Behold, your king comes to you, meek and riding on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden." The disciples went and did as Jesus had ordered them. They brought the ass and the colt and laid their cloaks over them, and he sat upon them. The very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road. The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest." And when he entered Jerusalem the whole city was shaken and asked, "Who is this?" And the crowds replied, "This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth in Galilee."

At Mass – First Reading – Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Responsorial Psalm – My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Second Reading – Philippians 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel – Matthew 26:14—27:66

Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. ## STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

“As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross.”

-Matthew 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with Stewardship opportunities to love our neighbor and help him “carry his cross.” These opportunities aren’t usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person’s needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.

SJ CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

This year’s theme: “Missionaries of Mercy,” calls upon use to act with compassion toward others, bringing to life the corporal and spiritual works of mercy that strengthens the Church. This appeal assists our Seminarians, Elderly Priests, Vitality Catholic Healthcare Services and much more! To date we have raised over $84,000.00 from 131 individuals and families.

Stewardship Report

Will be updated next week.

FORGOT YOUR ENVELOPES?

If you forgot your envelopes, are new to the parish or are visiting the parish and would like to make a donation. You can do so here. Be sure to select one-time gift – as recurring is default.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Show Them You Care

When you see people who are sad, lonely, or grief-stricken, don’t just tell them you care – show them you care. Ask how they are, listen to what they have to say, share the love of Jesus. And if their need is great, encourage them to consider Stephen Ministry as a way to receive the transforming love and care of Jesus. Show them you care, and you can make a real difference in their life. Please call 856-468-5536 to request a Stephen Minister or talk to a Stephen Leader.

THE COOKBOOK IS READY!

Our new parish cookbook is complete and ready to go home with you! “Incarnation Blessings” will be for sale beginning this weekend after all Masses. Price is $20 per copy, cash only please. Stay tuned for a cookbook celebration event with recipe tasting to come! Thanks to all who contributed their favorite dishes and memories to this special heirloom.

NEW GROUP FORMING FOR 40+

If you are interested in faith, fellowship and fun, and are between the ages of 40 and 60, please come to the first meeting of a new group on Wednesday, April 1 at 11:30 a.m. or 7 p.m. in the Father Salerno Room. This is an opportunity to connect with fellow parishioners through conversation and a variety of activities. Take some time for yourself, recharge your batteries and make new friends. Contact Michelle Cicirello at cicirellom@gmail.com with questions/suggestions.

CHURCH TOUR

Have you ever wondered why we use certain colors, objects and symbols at church? Deacon Peter will give a walking tour of the church sanctuary at 7 p.m. on April 8. You've never seen God's house like this before! Explore all the nooks and crannies and discover the deep symbolism and meaning of its design. Find all the hidden gems of our Church and learn about the sacred items and vestments we use in the Holy Mass. Bring the whole family!

APRIL BREAKFAST DATE

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of John 11:1-45. This is the famous account of the raising of Lazarus from the dead. Jesus ends His public ministry on a high note with this greatest of all miracles. Martha thinks she understands what Jesus is saying, and so we see her constantly interrupting Jesus and insisting on her own knowledge and interpretation of our Lord's statements. Because she presumes, she knows all the answers, she fails to actually listen to Jesus. She remains locked in her false understanding of resurrection, her false understanding of Jesus' power (and lack of power), and her false understanding of the power of death. The tragedy of Lazarus' death has led her to cling more tightly to her own notions of reality than to accept Jesus' revelation of a new reality. In doing so, she cannot recognize the full power and authority of Jesus as the eternal Word of God in her midst. She has all the right language but not the right understanding. Her statements reveal that she considered Jesus just a miracle worker who could have intervened before things got too bad; or a maybe a saint to whom God listens; or a teacher who gives us understanding and insight. She even considered Jesus as someone who had a special relationship with God and certain heavenly knowledge as the "Son of God", but she did not grasp that Jesus is in Himself the very presence of God. Had she grasped that truth, she would have trusted in what He had to say rather than her own presumptions. The way in which we understand Jesus affects how we approach Him as well and how we listen to what He has to say to us. Jesus is the presence of the Living God in our midst. The purpose of our prayer is to come before the Lord so as to receive what He wants to give and to trust that our connection with Him is stronger than even death itself. Thus, the ultimate prayer of a disciple, in the midst of any situation, is to be joined to the divine life of God in Jesus. When we fail to grasp who Jesus really is, we trust more in ourselves, or other people, or our knowledge and experience of the world, or our anger and frustration in the midst of tragedy.

Think about it: How has my understanding of who Jesus is grown over the course of time?

AN EVENING OF PRAYER AND SONG

Fr. Rapposelli is hosting an evening of reflection at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 28. Come to the church for a time of quiet prayer and deep encounter with our Lord in Eucharistic Adoration accompanied by the music from the album "Quiet Reflections" by John Michael Talbot.

OLDIES DANCE PARTY

St. Padre Pio Parish, 4680 Dante Ave., Vineland, is having an Oldies Dance Party from 7 to 11 p.m. Saturday, April 18. Hosted by Bob Kelly of Fox 29 News and "Kelly Drives," with music by DJ Joel. Admission is $50.00 per person and includes buffet dinner, salad, beer, coffee, and dessert. BYOB. Donations of desserts are gratefully appreciated. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. For tickets or information, call Janice at 856-305-4177 or email stevejanice1136@gmail.com. Make checks payable to St. Padre Pio Parish and mail to the address above – tickets will be mailed to you.

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL INFO FAIR

Is the pressure of choosing the right Catholic high school keeping you up at night? We've all been there — surrounded by stacks of brochures and dozens of open browser tabs, only to realize that every school is starting to look exactly the same. It's exhausting to feel like you're "guessing" when it comes to your child's future.

Don't spend another month falling down internet rabbit holes only to end up more confused than when you started.

At this fair, you can find the right Catholic high school for your child in just one night.
