Matthew 22:15-21

Seeking to entrap Jesus in his speech, the hostile and hypocritical Pharisees ask him this dangerous question, “Is it lawful to pay tax to the emperor or not?” Realizing their treacherous motives, Jesus asks for a Roman coin, and pointing to the inscription of Caesar’s, he answers, “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, but give to God what is God’s.”

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred:

For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10

Give the Lord glory and honor.

Second Reading – 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Gospel – Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?"

Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

STEWARDSHIP PRIORITY

“Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.

- Matthew 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

Stewardship Report

Will resume next week.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Feeling Down?

Our Stephen Ministry can help. Stephen Ministers aren’t just there for “big” crises. They’re also available for the little ones, because many times the little things can really add up. So, don’t wait until you have a really big crisis; consider Stephen Ministry if the little things have you feeling down. To find out more about our Stephen Ministry or to request a Stephen Minister, call 856-468-5536.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

COMMUNION SERVICES THIS WEEK

On Tuesday, Oct. 20 and Wednesday, Oct. 21, our priests will be away for the diocesan Convocation. Communion services will be held by the deacons at the usual times in lieu of Masses on those days. Keep all of our priests in your prayers during their meeting.

NEW GROUP FOR MOMS

A new ministry is forming at Incarnation called "Mamas Abiding: Mothers with Young Children." It can be difficult to focus on your faith when you also have young children at home, but you are not alone. We will meet from 9 to 10 a.m. in the Youth Room on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month for a time of fellowship and prayer. The next session will be on Tuesday, Oct. 20. Bring your children. For more information, contact Diane Blenke at dmblenke1@gmail.com.

HOLY HOUR

All are invited to Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament this Tuesday, Oct. 20 at 7 p.m. Thanks to the Knights of Columbus for arranging this time of prayer.

PROTECTING SENIORS FROM FINANCIAL FRAUD

On Wednesday, Oct. 21 at 7 p.m., a representative from the FBI will join us for a presentation about elder fraud. Elder fraud is defined as a financial fraud scheme which targets seniors (60 years and older).

Beginning in 2018, the FBI at a national level has worked tirelessly to educate this population on how to take steps to protect themselves from being victimized. Please consider coming out to educate yourself and others on how to identify, prevent and report potential financial elder abuse.

ALL SOULS DAY MASS

All Souls Day is Monday, Nov. 2. We will hold a Mass of Remembrance to honor all of our loved ones who have passed away beginning at 7 p.m. All are welcome.

NURSING HOME MINISTRY

We are seeking additional Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to serve as occasional substitutes for Communion visits at area nursing homes. This includes distributing Communion on Friday mornings and setting up for Mass once monthly. You may also lead the Rosary if you wish. Call the parish office if you're interested in this important work of mercy.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 22:15-21. In this text we read of how the Pharisees conspire with the Herodians to trap Jesus with a question concerning the payment of tax to the Romans. Jesus turns their question into a greater challenge of discipleship.

Jesus concludes this scene by issuing an important and profound instruction: Give to Caesar what is Caesar's but Give to God what is God's. That is an important statement given the fact that Jesus had just inquired about whose image was on the coin. If something bears the imprint of Caesar then it is Caesar's, and, according to the same logic, if something bears the imprint of God then it must be returned to God. This passage is sometimes understood as endorsing blind support for secular government. While early Christians did pay Roman tax, there are certainly indications in Revelation that they could also be very critical of the Roman Empire. Rather than interpreting this passage as supporting blind obedience to the state, the real thrust of the teaching is to give far greater obedience to God than we give to any secular authority. As Christians, we believe that we are created in God's image and likeness. Therefore, the whole of our life is imprinted with the image of God, and every blessing we have received is imprinted with the hand of God. The challenge of discipleship, then, is not to just give God a portion of what we have but rather to surrender everything to the Lord because it all bears His divine imprint. If we think that a part of our life doesn't bear God's imprint, then we are denying the Lord's creative and redeeming power over us.

Think about it: How does God collect His tax from me in regard to my time, talent, and treasure?

A PRAYER FOR POPE LEO

*Heavenly Father,
You sent your Son Jesus into the world to walk with us through all of life's difficulties.
Surround our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, with your loving kindness as he recovers from illness.
Give his care team the wisdom to provide the best possible treatments and support.
We entrust him to you and to our Mother Mary, Help of the Sick.
Amen.*
