Matthew 22:34-40

Matthew recounts the incident in which a lawyer, seeking to entrap Jesus, asks, “Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?” With simplicity and authority, Jesus responds that the first commandment is to love God with one’s entire being; the second is to love one’s neighbor as oneself.

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Exodus 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans."

"If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading – 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

Gospel – Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

STEWARDSHIP HEART

*“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”
– Matthew 22:37*

Do you put other “gods” before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? Putting God first through stewardship helps keep us from becoming a slave to our possessions and to our pride.

Stewardship Report

Oct. 6 through Oct. 12: $15,732.17

Oct. 13 through Oct. 19: $20,437.55

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 22:34-40. This text tells of the Lawyer's challenge for Jesus to identify the 'greatest' commandment, to which the Lord responds by offering the joint instruction to love God and neighbor. This passage appears to be very simple on the surface, yet it offers some profound challenges for discipleship.

When Jesus answered the Lawyer's question, He did so by stating that love of neighbor is like love of God and that all the commandments hang (or "depend") on these two. In order for us to understand the significance of the word "hang" or "depend" used in this passage, we need to imagine a rod suspended by two strings with a weight hanging in the middle of the rod. If one string falls, then the weight comes crashing to the ground. That is the necessary image that helps us understand the meaning of our Lord's explanation. Every action of our Christian lives must be motivated and directed by both Love of God and Love of Neighbor. If we fail in one, we fail in both because they are intrinsically connected as is clearly stated in 1 John 4:20, "Whoever claims to love God yet hates his brother is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen." Our discipleship can only be sustained when we are fully responsive in love to both God and neighbor in all our decisions and actions. Sometimes we like to separate these two commands and exempt ourselves from fulfilling one while claiming to fulfill the other. This separation occurs when a person dedicates extensive energy and resources to religious practices but does not give of themselves in charity for others. It also happens when a person is deeply immersed in social services or humanitarian efforts but does not have a living relationship with God. Jesus' statement prevents such a disconnected approach; discipleship "depends" on both commands and never just one. That is why love of neighbor is "like" love of God; one is not possible without the other.

Think about it: If someone looked at my life from the outside, how would they know that I love both God and others?
