Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel. After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed: "Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen." Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows." He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 24:1bc-2, 3-4ab, 5-6: Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Second Reading – 1 John 3:1-3

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

Gospel – Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

STEWARDSHIP HUMILITY

“Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

- Matthew 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The stewardship lives of the saints show that the key to a happy life are relationships. Relationships with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Trust Me!

Has someone ever told you “Trust me,” and then let you down? Our Stephen Ministers are people you really can trust. They are committed to providing the best Christian care possible to their care receivers. You can depend on them to treat you with respect and kindness. For more information, call 856-468-5536.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls

We will be delivering casseroles to Joseph's House in Camden this week. The cooler will be available from Sunday, Nov. 1 at 7 a.m. until Monday, Nov. 2 at 9 a.m. Remember to include the ingredients, heating instructions, and date prepared. Thanks for your generosity!

ALL SOULS DAY MASS

A Mass of Remembrance will be held on Monday, Nov. 2 at 7 p.m. to honor all our loved ones who have passed away, particularly those in the past year. All are welcome.

NO PRIME TIMERS ON TUESDAY

There will be no Prime Timers activities, including Senior Stretch, on Tuesday, Nov. 3. The Kernan Center (Hall Area) is being used for Election Day.

A SPACE FOR MOMS OF YOUNG CHILDREN

A new ministry is forming at Incarnation called "Mamas Abiding: Mothers with Young Children." It can be difficult to focus on your faith when you also have young children at home, but you are not alone. We will meet from 9 to 10 a.m. in the Youth Room on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month for a time of fellowship and prayer. Our next meeting is Nov. 3. Bring your children. For more information, contact Diane Blenke at dmblenkel@gmail.com.

SAINTS FOR THE GOLDEN YEARS

We are blessed to have so many great saints to pray for us in all of life's circumstances. Have you ever wondered which saints might make good spiritual companions in your golden years? Deacon Tom O'Brien will offer a talk on saints for seniors at 10 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 5.

FIRST FRIDAY

This Friday, Nov. 6, is First Friday. Come spend some time with the Lord in Adoration from 7 to 8 p.m.

PILGRIMAGE TO WASHINGTON THIS WEEK!

We will make our annual Marian pilgrimage to the Basilica at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. on Saturday, Nov. 7. The day includes Mass with Bishop Williams, procession of the parishes, a tour of the basilica, a concert, a walking trip to the Franciscan Monastery of the Holy Land, and more. Pack a lunch or purchase from the cafeteria. Motor coach will leave Incarnation at 6 a.m. Reserve your seat for $20 by calling the office.

MENTAL HEALTH EDUCATION

The Health Ministry is once again conducting an educational program to address issues concerning mental health awareness. Licensed social worker Marijayne Henry will be providing information regarding the signs and symptoms of anxiety and depression, treatment options, and coping strategies that may help in dealing with symptoms. The program will be held on Nov. 10 at 7 p.m. in the Fr. Salerno room. Contact Kathy Hazzard at healthministry@incarnation-church.org if you are interested in attending.

VETERANS DAY

The Knights of Columbus will host the annual Veterans Day Mass and Remembrance at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 11. Veterans will be introduced after Mass and deceased Veterans will be remembered. Refreshments to follow. If you are a veteran and plan to attend please call Karl Tomaszewski (609) 440-3779 or email karlt02@comcast.net.

SHARE YOUR WRITING TALENT

Do you have a way with words? Would you like to help us share the news of the wonderful things happening in our parish? Please consider joining Incarnation's newsletter committee. Members meet three times each year via Zoom to brainstorm ideas. Then they write the stories and produce the newsletter. Articles are short and writers are free to choose from our topic list. Prior experience is not necessary. For more information, please send an email to Melissa Arnold at marnold@incarnation-church.org, or call the parish office at 856-468-1314.

NURSING HOME MINISTRY

We are seeking additional Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to serve as substitutes for Communion visits at area nursing homes. This includes distributing Communion on Friday mornings and setting up for Mass once monthly. Call the parish office if you're interested in this important work of mercy.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS: WOMEN OF SERVICE

If you have a desire to help others in need, make a difference in our community and meet other Catholic women, then the Catholic Daughters of America is for you. We are actively seeking new members for our area council, which meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. at Mary Mother of Mercy Parish in Glassboro. For information, call Rita Hale at (856) 693-2932.

FAURÉ'S REQUIEM AT ST. BRIDGET

St. Bridget University Parish in Glassboro will be holding its 3rd annual Solemn Mass of Remembrance for All Souls at 7 p.m. Nov. 4. The Mass will feature music from Gabriel Faure's Requiem, led by a combined choir from area parishes and a string orchestra. Visit StBridgetUP.org for more information.

CATHOLIC SINGLES MEETUP

Are you a single Catholic between the ages of 20 and 30? Looking to find the right person or maybe some new friends? A singles mixer will be held at Johnson's Barn Farm Café in Medford at 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 7. For more details or questions, send email to catholic.singles.sj@gmail.com or call 856-834-0096.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MASS

Your marriage is a beautiful story worth celebrating! The Diocese of Camden invites couples celebrating 25, 50, 60, 70 or more years of marriage in 2026 to a special Wedding Anniversary Mass and Reception honoring their years of love, fidelity and lifelong commitment. The Mass will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 15 at Saint Mary of Mt. Carmel Parish, 285 Route 206, Hammonton. If you are interested in participating, please contact Ann Marie Ours at 856-583-2904 or send email to AnnMarie.Ours@camdendiocese.org.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Jesus instructs His disciples on certain pitfalls to be avoided both in their roles as religious followers and religious leaders, (Matthew 23:1-12). These cautions offer a timeless counsel for us as well because we can face many of the same pitfalls that sometimes arise from human weakness in any organization.

One of the cautions issued to the disciples is that they should not be deterred from following the truth of a message despite the flawed witness of the messenger. This is an important reminder for Christians of all time. When Jesus instructed the disciples to "Do what they tell you but do not follow their example," our Lord was emphasizing that the human weaknesses of religious leaders should never prevent us from hearing the truth of what they teach. The reality is that we are all flawed because of the corruption of sin, but that doesn't mean we are incapable of recognizing, accepting, and communicating the truth of God's Word. It is a sign of mature discipleship when a Christian can accept the truth of the message despite the weakness of the messenger, and that is the discipleship to which Jesus calls us. There can be a tendency in all of us to exempt ourselves from the challenge of discipleship. For a disciple who lacks spiritual maturity, the flawed witness of others, especially those who are in positions of authority, can be an easy way to justify such an exemption. The truth is the truth whether it is spoken by a sinner or by a saint, and we need to remember that. Disciples who are attuned to the voice of the Lord can recognize His Word in the most surprising of circumstances. If we are waiting to meet the perfect person before we listen to what they have to say, we will be waiting a very long time and we will be missing lots of opportunities for spiritual growth.

Think about it: How does this teaching of Jesus challenge me to reconsider the way in which I have approached my faith life?

A PRAYER FOR ELECTIONS

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our world, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned or oppressed. We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.
