Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Reading 1 – Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7

The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being. Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the animals that the LORD God had made. The serpent asked the woman, “Did God really tell you not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?” The woman answered the serpent: “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; it is only about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden that God said, ‘You shall not eat it or even touch it, lest you die.’” But the serpent said to the woman: “You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil.” The woman saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 51:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 17- Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Reading II - Romans 5:12-19

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned — for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one, the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. And the gift is not like the result of the one who sinned. For after one sin there was the judgment that brought condemnation; but the gift, after many transgressions, brought acquittal. For if, by the transgression of the one, death came to reign through that one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ. In conclusion, just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so, through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous.

Gospel - Matthew 4:1-11

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry. The tempter approached and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread.” He said in reply, “It is written: One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.” Then the devil took him to the holy city, and made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written: He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone.” Jesus answered him, “Again it is written, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test.” Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, “All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me.” At this, Jesus said to him, “Get away, Satan! It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.” Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven.

STEWARDSHIP SERVICE

“It is written: ‘The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.’”

-Matthew 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things and develop and nurture heavenly things. Lent is time to repent living Stewardship and letting go of the other “gods” we have put before God.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Unconditional Love and Support

God’s love is unconditional. At times, however, we can feel quite removed from God’s unconditional love. We can feel guilty, undeserving, or downright “unlovable.” At those times Stephen Ministers can help. They are trained to listen and care in a nonjudgmental way, focusing on letting Christ’s unconditional love flow through them and into the life of their care receiver. If you or someone you know has been struggling with guilt or feeling unlovable and would like to learn more about Stephen Ministry, please call 856-468-5536.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

LENT: PRAY, FAST, GIVE

Stations of the Cross

Join us every Friday (except Good Friday) during Lent at 7:00 PM as we pray the Stations of the Cross together. This beautiful devotion invites us to walk with Christ on his journey to the cross, reflecting on his sacrifice and deepening our Lenten conversion. All are welcome to come and pray as one community.

Recovery Stations of the Cross

On Thursday, March 19 and March 26, we invite you to join us for Recovery Stations of the Cross. This contemporary reflection connects Christ's journey to Calvary with the journey of those seeking healing from addiction, grief, trauma, and other life struggles. The Cross reminds us that no suffering is wasted when united to Christ, and no wound is beyond His mercy. Whether you are in recovery, walking with someone who is, or simply seeking deeper healing in your own life, this special devotion offers a space of compassion, prayer, and encouragement. Come walk with the Lord who understands our pain and leads us toward freedom and new life. All are welcome.

Soup and Scripture

Nourish your body and your spirit each Monday in Lent with homemade soup and the second half of Bishop Robert Barron's "Catholicism" video series. Dinner is served at 5:30 p.m. with video to follow at 6:00 p.m.

Eucharistic Adoration

Jesus asked His disciples, "Can you not keep watch for one hour with me?" Spend time with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament each Wednesday from 9:30 to 4:00 p.m., and each first Friday from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Come to pray, reflect, read or simply rest in His love.

Opportunities for Service

Give back to others this Lent through the gift of time and service. Consider making sandwiches at Divine Deli February 22 or March 29, pick up some extra groceries for the food pantry, or support parish events by joining the Knights of Columbus (men) or Incarnation Angels (women). Questions: 468-1314.

SJCMA-South Jersey Catholic Ministry Appeal

This weekend begins the Diocesan Annual Catholic Ministry Appeal. Please watch video in this past Friday's Flocknote.

Thank you for your continued generosity to this appeal year after year.

NEW BIBLE STUDY BEGINNING

Our next Bible study will be "No Greater Love" starting on Monday, February 23 at 7:00 p.m. and ending Monday, March 30. Filmed on location in the Holy Land, No Greater Love is a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ's life. You will walk step-by-step with Jesus from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary. Experience a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for you. Grow closer to Jesus than you ever have before. If you are interested in participating, please contact the Parish Office at 856-468-1314 or email Deacon Phil at pcurran@incarnation-church.org.

ROSARY MAKING WITH FATHER STEVE

Join Fr. Steve to learn how to make Rosaries. This ministry is a great use of spare time. You will learn to measure the length of cord, make the knots, and attach the crucifix. These new rosaries will be used in PREP, Communion visits to the sick, Baptism families and for parishioners in general. There will be two identical sessions on Tuesday, February 24:

Daytime Session 2:00-3:00 p.m. - Fr. Salerno Room
Evening Sessions 6:30-7:30 p.m. – Fr. Salerno Room

JOSEPH HOUSE DELIVERY

We will deliver casseroles and supplies to the Joseph House on Monday, March 2. All casseroles can be dropped off after 9:00 a.m. on Sunday March 1, at Incarnation Church outside the Kernan Center. The freezer will be there until 9:00 a.m. Monday morning. Please do everything possible to deliver your casseroles between those times.

TAIZE: MEDITATIONS AND SONGS

Taizé is a beautiful tradition of meditation set to music that originated in a monastic community in France. The soft, easy-to-learn chants are accessible for all ages and the repetition creates an atmosphere of prayer. Incarnation will host a candlelit Taizé experience called "Pilgrimage of Hope" from 5:30 to 6:45 p.m. Wednesday, March 4. No musical skill or experience with Taizé is necessary. Come and just listen or pray along. For information, email josemonabraham@comcast.net or call the office.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

This first Sunday of Lent is a good opportunity to reflect on the three primary spiritual practices associated with the Time of Lent: prayer, self-denial, and works of charity. While these practices are to always be essential components of a disciple’s life, the forty days of Lent are a time when we are asked to intensify them so as to become more faithful to God’s Word as did Jesus in the desert. Deepened prayer helps us to hear the Word of God more clearly and to become more responsive in following the Lord’s will in our lives. Prayer also increases our love of God by deepening our relationship with the Lord. Self-denial frees us from being enslaved by our appetites or dominated by wasteful practices. Self-denial, especially fasting, also awakens us to the needs and sufferings of others and allows us to experience the frailty of the human condition so as to grow in compassion for those who live in constant need. In performing charitable works (almsgiving), we express our love of God in our love of neighbor and begin to make a practical difference in the lives of others as a witness of our discipleship. Charitable works (almsgiving) also challenge us to let go of the false security of our possessions and the illusion of self-sufficiency by our responsible care for others. Thus, these three practices are interconnected. Prayer, self-denial, and good works all lead us into a practical and more profound love of God and neighbor. Lent is not so much about what we “give up” but rather what we “give to” God and others.

Think about it: How can I deepen my prayer life during these forty days of Lent so I can hear more clearly the Word of God being spoken to me? What are some of the enslavements I experience, and how can the practice of self-denial help free me from being governed by those enslavements (“Do I control my desires, or do my desires control me?”)? Who needs to experience my mercy and charitable works, and how can I express my love of neighbor in a new way during this Lenten time?

This high-energy, 2-hour event with internationally acclaimed speaker Chris Stefanick will awaken your faith, reignite your joy, and equip you with tools to live the life God created you for:
A life of JOY!

It will help you rediscover the JOY you were created for, and is perfect for everyone... even friends, family, and children (12+) who may not be actively practicing their faith.
