Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Reading 1 – Genesis 12:1-4a

The LORD said to Abram: “Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you. “I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you.” Abram went as the LORD directed him.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22- Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Reading II - 2 Timothy 1:8b-10

Beloved: Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God. He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Gospel - Matthew 4:1-11

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Rise, and do not be afraid.” And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone. As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, “Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 17:1-9. This is the account of the Transfiguration of Jesus and the revelation of His glory to the disciples. When you think about the experience of Jesus’ transfiguration, it is interesting to consider the question, “Who really changed in that moment?” On the surface it seems that Jesus is the one who was changed, but that’s not really the case. Jesus simply allowed others to see His Glory as the Son of God, but Jesus remained that same both before and after the experience. The people who were most changed by that moment were the disciples. They were given insight into the presence of God with them (Emmanuel), and that insight was meant to change the way they saw and experienced life from then on. Like Peter, James, and John, we are all given experiences of God’s grace when we recognize “God moments” in our lives. These are our mountaintop experiences, and they are usually wonderful moments of blessing. They allow us to face life’s struggles with deepened faith. Mountaintop experiences of God’s revelation are real, but they don’t last forever. Jesus always leads us down the mountain, and He continues to accompany us as we walk through the daily challenges of discipleship. Revelations of faith give us a glimpse of what life in Christ is like. They sustain us when we encounter a world devoid of God’s love and hostile to the Gospel.

Think about it: What have been some of the “mountaintop” experiences of God in my life that have changed the way I live? How do I keep alive the memory of those experiences as I face the challenges of daily life?

To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven.

STEWARDSHIP SERVICE

“Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you.”

-Genesis 12:1

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness and greed. Yet, God promises to show His Stewards a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, “God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful.”

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Equipping the Saints

In Ephesians 4, Paul talks about pastors and other leaders as gifts God has given the church “to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ.” Stephen Ministry has given us an organized way to equip those gifted for caring ministry so that they can build up the body of Christ by providing Christian care and support to those experiencing a difficult time. If you would like more information on our Stephen Ministry, please call 856-468-5536.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

LENT: PRAY, FAST, GIVE

Stations of the Cross

Join us every Friday (except Good Friday) during Lent at 7:00 p.m. as we pray the Stations of the Cross together. (Join us an hour early on Friday, March 6 for First Friday Adoration.) This beautiful devotion invites us to walk with Christ on his journey to the cross, reflecting on his sacrifice and deepening our Lenten conversion. All are welcome to come and pray as one community.

Recovery Stations of the Cross

On Thursday, March 19 and March 26, we invite you to join us for Recovery Stations of the Cross. This contemporary reflection connects Christ's journey to Calvary with the journey of those seeking healing from addiction, grief, trauma, and other life struggles. The Cross reminds us that no suffering is wasted when united to Christ, and no wound is beyond His mercy. Whether you are in recovery, walking with someone who is, or simply seeking deeper healing in your own life, this special devotion offers a space of compassion, prayer, and encouragement. Come walk with the Lord who understands our pain and leads us toward freedom and new life. All are welcome.

Jesus asked His disciples, "Can you not keep watch for one hour with me?" Spend time with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament each Wednesday from 9:30 to 4:00 p.m., and each first Friday from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Come to pray, reflect, read or simply rest in His love.

INCARNATION INSIGHTS

Have you ever heard a Catholic teaching and wondered, "Where is that in the Bible?" Join us on March 4 and again on March 18 for a one-hour discussion designed to explore exactly that question. As Catholics, we believe that Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition together reveal God's saving plan. Many of our teachings—such as the Eucharist, Confession, the Communion of Saints, devotion to Mary, and the authority of the Church—are deeply rooted in Scripture. Sometimes we simply need help knowing where to look. This session will walk through key passages from both the Old and New Testaments and show how they illuminate what we believe and celebrate at Mass. Whether you are new to the faith, returning after time away, preparing for a sacrament, or simply wanting to grow deeper in your understanding, this evening will strengthen your confidence in sharing and defending your faith with charity and clarity. Bring your Bible, your questions, and an open heart. Together we will discover how richly the Word of God supports the life of the Church and how Scripture comes alive when read within the family of faith. Come and see how beautifully our Catholic faith is woven throughout the Bible!

Prayer Around The Cross (In Taizé Style)

Wednesday, March 4, 2026
5:30 pm to 6:45 pm.

We adore you, O Christ,
We bless you,
For by the cross
You have redeemed the world

Church of the Incarnation
240 Main Street
Mantua, NJ 08051

Taizé Community is a monastic order in Taizé, in Burgundy, France. Prayer together, three times a day, is at the heart of life in Taizé. It is quite straight forward: a few songs, a psalm, a Bible reading, time of silence, then intercessions. Short songs (chants), sung again and again, give it a meditative character. The words and phrases used in these chants are taken from the Holy Bible or writings of saints. Meditative singing thus becomes a way of listening to God. It allows everyone to take part in a time of prayer together and to remain together in attentive waiting on God.
