Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

First Reading – Acts 2:14, 22-33

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him: I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence. "My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

Responsorial Psalm – Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Second Reading – 1 Peter 1:17-21

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Gospel – Luke 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

HEARTFELT STEWARDSHIP

*“Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?”
-Luke 24:32*

How often do you take the time to discern what Jesus is calling you to do with your life? Are your prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for you? If so, that’s a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing stewardship in a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time, in silence, to listen to what Jesus is asking of you today.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Luke 24:13-35. In this passage, we read about the two disciples' journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus and of how Jesus accompanies them and reveals Himself to them. The first thing to note is that Jesus walks with the two disciples even as they are going in the wrong direction and walking away from the others in Jerusalem. Nevertheless, Jesus accompanies them and listens to their story. They speak of their sadness at having lost a friend, their disappointment that things didn't turn out the way they had hoped, and their frustration that difficulties seem to continue, such as the news of the empty tomb. To them, everything was bad news, and they could not see the presence of God in the midst of such a terrible situation. These negative and erroneous perceptions caused the disciples to walk away from the others and pursue the wrong path. It is the companionship of Jesus that gained their trust and allowed them to be open to His Word. Had Jesus started to correct them or reprimand them immediately, they would not have listened to Him. Rather, Jesus first shows them that He is a friend who cares for them, and because of that the disciples will listen to what the Lord has to say. This dynamic is an important lesson for us as a Church. Oftentimes we see people going in the wrong direction because of tragedies, frustrations, misunderstanding or disappointments. Sometimes people pursue the wrong direction just out of human weakness. Whatever the reason, our response should be modeled on that of Jesus who shows us the importance of being a compassionate friend first and a challenging friend second. Rather than wait for the disciples to return to Jerusalem on their own, Jesus is the Good Shepherd who goes after the lost sheep by seeking out these two disciples. Jesus is present in us and through us when we become instruments of the Lord's mercy reaching out towards those going down the wrong path.

Think about it: How can I better practice the mercy of Jesus who seeks out the lost?

CHURCH TOUR

Have you ever wondered why we use certain colors, objects and symbols at church? Deacon Peter will give a walking tour of the church sanctuary at 7 p.m. on May 6. You've never seen God's house like this before! Explore all the nooks and crannies and discover the deep symbolism and meaning of its design. Find all the hidden gems of our Church and learn about the sacred items and vestments we use in the Holy Mass. Bring the whole family!

THE MASS EXPLAINED

Have you sat in church for years, quietly unsure of what was happening or why it mattered? Maybe you are exploring the Catholic faith for the first time or beginning to share it with your children. On May 20 at 7 p.m., Fr. Steve will offer a teaching Mass. Learn more about what each part of the Mass is about, why we say the prayers we say, what the gestures and colors mean, and much more. This whole-parish event is open to anyone who wants to get more out of Mass each weekend.
