Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed the Christ to them. With one accord, the crowds paid attention to what was said by Philip when they heard it and saw the signs he was doing. For unclean spirits, crying out in a loud voice, came out of many possessed people, and many paralyzed or crippled people were cured. There was great joy in that city. Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent them Peter and John, who went down and prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for it had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Second Reading – 1 Peter 3:15-18

Beloved: Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence, keeping your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who defame your good conduct in Christ may themselves be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be the will of God, than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit.

Gospel – John 14:15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.”

Nicene Creed – I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

GOOD STEWARDS

“For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be God’s will, than for doing evil.”

-1 Peter 3:17

An old saying goes, “If you want to make God laugh, tell him your plans.” Many of us are diligent in our planning and making sure things are progressing smoothly. Then disaster strikes, and we don’t get the result we anticipated or an unforeseen problem arises. Many times we may respond negatively and ask, “Why me? I did everything right!” Here’s the thing – adversity humbles us and reminds us of our dependence on God and not on our own self-reliance. Rest assured, God has a better plan in store for his stewards.

BANNS OF ORDINATION

The Most Reverend Joseph A. Williams, D.D. announces that he intends to ordain Mr. Nickolas B. Naticchione to the Sacred Order of Presbyter on:

THE MASS EXPLAINED

- Wednesday, May 20 at 7 p.m.

SUMMER BIBLE STUDY

Join our next Bible Study, The Prophets. The prophets of Israel were not simply fortune-tellers — they were passionate voices calling God's people back to covenant fidelity. This acclaimed Ascension Press study takes us deep into the Old Testament prophetic books, showing how Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the minor prophets all point forward to Jesus Christ.

Over ten engaging sessions, we will discover that the prophets' words are not mere history — they speak with startling freshness into our own lives, our parish, and our world today. The study begins Monday, June 15 at 7 p.m. in the Kernan Center. To sign up, please call the office at 856.468.1314 or email Deacon Phil Curran, pcurran@incarnation-church.org.

To donate offline, please send payment to: South Jersey Scholarship Fund, 631 Market Street, Camden, NJ 08102.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of John 14:15-21. In this passage, Jesus promises to send us another Paraclete and assures us that He will return to be with us. This was an especially comforting and encouraging message for the disciples who were about to face Jesus' death on Calvary, and it continues to be an encouraging message for us today. Jesus instructs His disciples on the necessary relationship between love and obedience (faith) when He says, "If you love me you will keep my commandments." To believe in Jesus is to accept His word (teaching and instruction) as authentically from the Father. A disciple who loves Jesus will live out that relationship by holding fast to our Lord's commandments. There is an inherent connection between our love for Jesus and our actions. It is important to remember that the primary commandment Jesus gave is that disciples love one another even as our Lord has loved us. Jesus demonstrated His love both in the washing of the disciples' feet and in the laying down of His love on the cross. It's easy to love the Lord when we define "love" to mean nothing more than an interior private emotion focused only on a spiritual relationship. It can be difficult, however, to love the Lord when it means loving Him in those around us and laying down our lives for them even as Jesus laid down His life for us. The challenge for us in this passage is to move beyond a spirituality that is focused on a cherished memory of the past or one that is based only on interior emotions. Instead, we are to become living witnesses of God's love for others so that the sacrificial love of Christ dwells in us and through us. By moving outside a merely private personal relationship with Jesus and living what He taught and demonstrated, we will find ourselves immersed in His love and enjoying even deeper relationship with Him in the present. It's easy to love those whom we like or those who are close to us, but it can be difficult to love those who need it most.

Think about it: Jesus clarified that authentic Christian love is necessarily manifested in lived obedience to His commands. This clarification was given to keep us from reducing love to a merely emotional experience. When have I been called to do something difficult or challenging because of my love of God?
