Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.
All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.
All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,
All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Acts 1:1-11 In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for “the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, “Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

Responsorial Psalm – God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

Second Reading – Ephesians 1:17-23 – Brothers and sisters: May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him. May the eyes of your hearts be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope that belongs to his call, what are the riches of glory in his inheritance among the holy ones, and what is the surpassing greatness of his power for us who believe, in accord with the exercise of his great might, which he worked in Christ, raising him from the dead and seating him at his right hand in the heavens, far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come. And he put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all things in every way.

Gospel – Matthew 28:16-20 – The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, “All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

Nicene Creed – I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven.

PRAYERFUL STEWARDS

“I am praying for them...”

-John 17:9

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of stewardship. Prayer is always the first best option in any situation - not just our last resort. Pray for friends and family, and especially for those that don’t treat you very well. Pray to give praise, to thank, and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts He has given you. Teach others how to pray. It has been said that teaching someone how to pray is the best gift you can give someone.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Stephen Ministry Needs YOU

Even if you are not a Stephen Leader or a Stephen Minister, you play an important role in our Stephen Ministry. Our Stephen Ministers need your prayerful support as they care for their care receivers. Our Stephen Leaders also need your help in identifying people who might benefit from a Stephen Ministry relationship. If you know someone who is facing difficulties, suggest that he or she request a Stephen Minister. To talk to a Stephen Leader, please call 856-468-5536.

HOLY HOUR FOR OUR LADY

Honor our Blessed Mother during the month of May with a special Holy Hour hosted by the Knights of Columbus. The Marian service and Holy Hour will be held on Tuesday, May 19 beginning at 7 p.m. in the church.

THE MASS EXPLAINED

Have you sat in church for years, quietly unsure of what was happening or why it mattered? Maybe you are exploring the Catholic faith for the first time or beginning to share it with your children. Fr. Steve will offer one more opportunity to experience a teaching Mass on Wednesday, May 20 at 7 p.m. Learn what each part of the Mass is about, why we say the prayers we say, what the gestures and colors mean, and much more. This whole-parish event is open to anyone who wants to get more out of Mass each weekend.

Celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost with an evening of quiet reflection and Taizé prayer from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. Friday, May 22 in the Kernan Center.

Taizé is a monastic community in Burgundy, France. Meditation and music are at the heart of their community. This is a quite simple style of prayer which includes a few songs, a psalm, a Bible reading, a time of silence, and then intercessions. Short songs (chants), sung again and again, give it a meditative character. The words and phrases used in these chants are taken from the Holy Bible or writings of saints. Meditative singing thus becomes a way of listening to God.

INCARNATION INSIGHTS: FORGIVENESS

Fr. Shaji will offer a talk about forgiveness at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, May 27 in the Fr. Salerno Room. Learn more about what Christian forgiveness is, what it is not, and how we can move toward forgiving others in our daily lives as God has forgiven us.

All are welcome.

SUMMER BIBLE STUDY

Join our next Bible Study, The Prophets. The prophets of Israel were not simply fortune-tellers — they were passionate voices calling God's people back to covenant fidelity. This acclaimed Ascension Press study takes us deep into the Old Testament prophetic books, showing how Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the minor prophets all point forward to Jesus Christ.

Over ten engaging sessions, we will discover that the prophets' words are not mere history — they speak with startling freshness into our own lives, our parish, and our world today. The study begins Monday, June 15 at 7 p.m. in the Kernan Center. To sign up, please call the office at 856.468.1314 or email Deacon Phil Curran, pcurran@incarnation-church.org

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 28:16-20. This scene tells us of Jesus' final moments before He ascended into heaven. As He goes to the Father, our Lord offers revelation, mission, and His continuing presence to the disciples. The final words of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew are a promise of His lasting presence with the Church when He says: "I am with you always, until the end of the age." At the very beginning of Matthew's Gospel, we were told that Jesus would be "Emmanuel", a name that means "God with us" (Mt 1:22-23). Now, Jesus promises to be "God with us" and thus reveals Himself as Emmanuel in this final verse. We are never alone when we carry out the mission that Jesus entrusted to us. The Lord always accompanies disciples who are living out this great commission. However, when we wander from the mission that Jesus has given us, we risk a certain spiritual distancing from the Lord. Instead of praying, "Lord, why aren't you with Me?" maybe we should be praying, "Lord, how can I be with you in this moment?" The Lord promised us His presence earlier in Matthew's Gospel when He said, "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Mt 18:20) and that we would serve Him in the hungry, the thirsty, the imprisoned, the homeless, and so forth (Mt 25:35-45). Indeed, the Lord is with us always in many varied ways. As mature disciples, we must become self-leaders who know how to seek and find the Lord so as to do His will and faithfully carry out His mission.

Think about it: What do I need to do in order to become a mature disciple who is a "self-leader" in my own discipleship?
