Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah said: "I hear the whisperings of many: 'Terror on every side! Denounce! let us denounce him!' All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine. 'Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail, and take our vengeance on him.' But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph. In their failure they will be put to utter shame, to lasting, unforgettable confusion. O LORD of hosts, you who test the just, who probe mind and heart, let me witness the vengeance you take on them, for to you I have entrusted my cause. Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35

Lord, in your great love, answer me.

Second Reading – Romans 5:12-15

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned— for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

Gospel – Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve: "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

Nicene Creed – I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

In this Sunday's Gospel passage (Matthew 10:26-33), we hear our Lord's instruction to the Twelve to sustain and encourage them in their missionary efforts. This instruction has much to offer us as well. Part of our Lord's instruction reminds the Twelve that their temporal efforts will have eternal consequences for good or for ill. The language of "acknowledge" or "confess" had certain legal overtones to it and indicated that the Twelve were on trial even as they were carrying out their missionary responsibilities in the world, and this trial would continue in Heaven at the Final Judgment. If the Twelve were faithful in acknowledging Jesus before others, Jesus would be faithful in acknowledging them before His Father. However, if the Twelve were unfaithful in their missionary efforts, then they would be denied before the Heavenly Father. This fidelity is not so much to a message as it is to the person of Jesus Himself. This is a significant development in our Lord's instruction to the Twelve and indicates that they are being commissioned not only to communicate a message of faith but to actually confess their deep, abiding friendship with Jesus Himself. It is actually easier to communicate a message we have heard than to share the relationship with which we have been blessed. Suppose that someone asked you why you acted with integrity in your professional life. Would your answer be based on principles of business or on your relationship with Jesus? As disciples, we are called to introduce others to the person of Jesus and not just to His message. In fact, many people may not be open to the message until they have been introduced to the Person! When we readily acknowledge Jesus as the source of our life, faith, and confidence, we prove ourselves to be His faithful friends who are not ashamed to bring Him into our marriages, families, friendship, and professional life. What a powerful message! To be a friend of Jesus means to introduce all the other people in our lives to the Lord. We can't do that if we are afraid or if we think our relationship with Jesus is private. We can only do that when we are concerned with fulfilling God's will more than anything else in this world, when we know that God cares for us, and when we know that our eternal salvation depends upon it.

Think about it: How successfully did I pass my trial of faith this past week? How does it change the way I approach my day to understand it as a trial of discipleship? What situations give me an opportunity to bear witness to Jesus in my life?
