Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more.

All: Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a

"Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD. "Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 147:12-13, 14-15, 19-20 - Praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

Second Reading – 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Sequence – Will be sung.

Gospel – John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Nicene Creed – I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

STEWARDSHIP LIFESTYLE

“Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.”

-1 Corinthians 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other’s relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of John 6:51-58. This is one of the most important Eucharistic passages in the New Testament. This passage of Scripture invites us to consider not only what Jesus is offering us in the gift of the Eucharist but to also consider our response to that gift. The text of John 6 tells us that the Jews “grumbled” at His teaching (6:52) – the same word used to describe the Hebrews and their response to Moses’ leadership in the desert. Even many of Jesus’ own disciples found this to be a hard teaching and left Him because of it (6:60-66). In response to this rejection and refusal to believe, Jesus does not alter His teaching in any way; instead, He challenges those who hear Him to believe and accept what God reveals rather than requiring that God’s gift fit their desires and abilities to understand. Some disciples do accept Jesus’ teaching, and their faith is voiced by Peter, who says, “Master . . . you have the words of eternal life” (6:68). Since the first years of Christianity, the Church has taken seriously the gift of Jesus in the Eucharist and of our need to respond with faith and readiness to be transformed by the gift we receive. By receiving the Body and Blood of the Lord, we are to become His living presence in the world. The gift of God, Jesus, is now given to us in the Eucharist, so that God can give the gift of His Son to others through us. When we receive Communion and say “Amen” to the Body of Christ, we are not only professing our belief in the reality of the Eucharist but are also stating our commitment to live that reality in what we say and do – to be the Body of Christ. Our response to the Eucharist, then, is not just in our prayer, beliefs, or statements but most of all in our willingness to “become that which we receive”. Our mission is to become a living tabernacle of God’s presence every time we receive Communion.

Think about it: What are other teachings of Jesus that can be difficult to understand and accept?

A NOTE FROM CHRISTINA MCNASBY

To all the parishioners and staff of Church of the Incarnation,

I appreciate and love every single one of you. Thank you for supporting me through my difficult times, especially right before I started dialysis, and last year when I was in a coma on life support. I’m also grateful to the family who fasted for a week while I was in a coma. I’m truly blessed to get to know the people at the church. Thank you for your prayers – the power of prayer really does work. Every time I’m on the altar, I pray for the health of everyone at the parish since all of you pray for mine. I know that Jesus and Mary are with me and guiding me. When I’m recovering from my transplant at home, I will be praying for all of you.

Every time I walk into the church, I feel the love that you all have for me. We should all love each other as Jesus showed us. Just know that I love you as much as you love me. This parish family has always been important to me and I’m truly blessed to know all of us, some for a long time, others over the span of a few years. You all have a special place in my heart.

I will always treasure the angel who donated their kidney to someone else in a different state so that I could get onto the active kidney transplant list. If it wasn’t for them, I wouldn’t be getting a kidney this soon and would have probably been on dialysis for years because of the syndromes I was born with. They didn’t just save me, but also that other person, and for that I am forever grateful. I thank God every day for this kidney and for the angel who donated theirs to a stranger. May God bless you always.
