Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more.

All: Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed. The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, ministering to him, loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants — all who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

O God, let all the nations praise you!

Second Reading – Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Brothers and sisters: I am speaking to you Gentiles. inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

Gospel – Matthew 15:21-28

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her.

Jesus' disciples came and asked him, "Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us."

He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me."

He said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs."

She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters."

Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come

GOOD STEWARDS

*“For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.”
- Romans 11:29*

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone. Each of us has a part in God's salvation plan.

Stewardship Report

FORGOT YOUR ENVELOPES?

If you forgot your envelopes, are new to the parish or are visiting the parish and would like to make a donation, you can do so by scanning the QR code below. Be sure to select a one-time gift, as recurring is default. Thank you for your generosity!

STEPHEN MINISTRY

“Things Will Get Better – Just Hold On.”

You appreciate your friends' concern. But until things do get better, you need extra support. A Stephen Minister would like to provide that caring concern by being there to listen. To request a Stephen Minister or to talk to a Stephen Leader, please call 856-468-5536.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

THIRD FRIDAY ADORATION

It's time! This week is Third Friday! Beginning Aug. 21, we will offer a trial of monthly Eucharistic Adoration on the third Friday of each month, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the church. Come spend an hour with Our Lord in the quiet of the evening: pray, reflect, sit in silence, or simply rest in His presence. This is a pilot program — if we see good participation, we hope to make it a lasting monthly tradition here at the parish. All are welcome, whether you can stay the full hour or just stop by for a few minutes.

ROAMING THROUGH ROMANS

Ever wonder what Paul's letter to the Romans is really saying about faith, works, and being made right with God? Join Deacon Phil starting Monday, August 31 as we dig into one of the New Testament's most powerful letters and discover that salvation isn't just about wiping the slate clean — it's an invitation to share in Christ's own life. Contact the office if you are interested in this Bible study.

A new year of Walking with Purpose is about to begin! WWP is a guided Bible study and discussion program. We are women of every age and background, bonded in friendship and a desire to love like Jesus. This year's studies will focus on healthy friendships and managing priorities. Our morning group meets on Tuesdays, and our evening group meets on Thursdays. For more information or to sign up, email Alex Jatzke at alex.jatzke@gmail.com or call the parish office.

FOOD TRUCK FEST RETURNS!

Save the date! We're kicking off the back-to-school (and PREP!) season with our annual food truck festival in the church parking lot on Friday, Sept. 11. Don't cook dinner and treat the family to something special! Food from Dominick's Tavern, Botto's, Carolina Blue and Mr. Softee, plus lawn games, wine and beer, desserts, live music from our house band The Hazardous Lederhosen, and much more! See you there.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 15:21-28. In this reading, we hear of Jesus encountering the Canaanite woman who seeks her daughter's healing. At the end of the passage, Jesus proclaims the woman as having "great faith." We should realize that He is holding her up as an example for us to follow. You see, she stands in stark contrast to Peter who was identified as having "little faith" just a few verses before in Matthew 14:31. Peter showed his little faith by doubting the presence of God in the midst of his trial. The Canaanite woman showed great faith by her persistent struggle in prayer and her unwavering confidence in Jesus' ability to heal her daughter. Peter showed his little faith by questioning the reality of Jesus. The Canaanite woman showed her great faith by addressing Jesus with the title "Son of David". Peter was concerned for himself and his own safety. The Canaanite woman approached the Lord on behalf of her daughter and sought the wellbeing of another. Even in the face of seeming rejection, she continued to seek the Lord's grace and favor. Indeed, her faith was great, and based on that faith, Jesus granted her daughter's healing. As disciples, we are called to be like the Canaanite woman and come to the Lord day and night with petitions for those in need. So many situations in our world today require our prayers, and sometimes people have no one to pray for them except us. God wants us to acknowledge our need for Him and our dependence on Him; prayer is one important way in which we profess our faith in God and our love for others.

Think about it: For whom do I pray? When do I pray for those who have no one else to pray for them?
