Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Jeremiah 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped; you were too strong for me, and you triumphed.
All the day I am an object of laughter; everyone mocks me.

Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message;
the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day.

I say to myself, I will not mention him, I will speak in his name no more.
But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones;
I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Second Reading – Romans 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Gospel – Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you."

He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

STEWARDSHIP WISDOM

*“What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?”
-Matthew 16:26*

St. Francis of Assisi said, “Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else.” We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Bear One Another's Burdens . . .

In Galatians 6 Paul tells us to “carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.” At Incarnation, our Stephen Ministers have been trained and organized to do just that. They provide one-to-one care, prayer, and support to those who are going through a difficult time. If you would like more information on our Stephen Ministry, please call 856-468-5536 and a Stephen Leader will get back to you.

FIRST FRIDAY

This Friday, Sept. 5 is First Friday. Come and spend a few minutes or an hour with Jesus in Adoration from 7 to 8 p.m.

ROAMING THROUGH ROMANS

Ever wonder what Paul's letter to the Romans is really saying about faith, works, and being made right with God? Join Deacon Phil starting Monday, Aug. 31 as we dig into one of the New Testament's most powerful letters and discover that salvation isn't just about wiping the slate clean — it's an invitation to share in Christ's own life. Contact the office if you're interested.

THE CHURCH AND AI

Join us for a special installment of Incarnation Insights at 7 p.m. on Weds., Sept. 2 as Fr. Rapposelli and Deacon Phil explore Artificial Intelligence and how it affects Catholics. A Jan. 2025 Church document stated that artificial intelligence must only be used to complement human intelligence rather than replace it, warning that treating it as a replacement would enslave humanity and serve as a "substitute for God." Come explore what this teaching means for our daily lives: How we use technology, how we form our children, and how we hold fast to what makes us truly human, body and soul, made in the image of God. All are welcome.

DATE CHANGE FOR THIS MONTH'S DELIVERY

This month, we will be delivering casseroles on Tuesday, Sept. 8 because of Labor Day. The freezer will be available in front of the Kernan Center at Incarnation beginning Sunday, Sept. 6 at 7 a.m. through Tuesday morning, Sept. 8 at 9 a.m.

As a reminder, please make sure your casserole is clearly labeled with:

- the ingredients
- date it was prepared
- cooking directions.

Donations of bottled water, toilet paper, new or gently used towels and new socks/underwear for men and women are greatly appreciated. Thank you!

MANDATORY MEETING FOR EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS AND LECTORS

There will be an important Evening of Reflection for all Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Lectors at 7 p.m. Sept. 9 in the Church. Make every effort to attend. If you have a conflict or cannot attend, please contact the parish office. Thank you for your service and for all that you do.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 16:21-27. In this reading, we hear of how Peter turns quickly and easily from thinking as God does to thinking as men do. In doing so, Peter tries to deter Jesus from embracing His passion in Jerusalem. Peter's statements of misguided faith and Jesus' corrective responses to Peter are instructive to us in our discipleship as well.

When Jesus says, "Get behind me", He is not telling Peter to go away but rather to assume once again the role of a disciple (a disciple is one who follows). When Peter faithfully follows Jesus' lead, then he can be the foundation stone of the Church. But when Peter tries to be the one who leads Jesus, Peter stops being a disciple and becomes nothing but a stumbling stone. Jesus is pointing out to Peter what has gone astray in his faith; he is trying to lead God rather than follow God. Peter knows that a disciple will follow where the master goes, and Peter doesn't like where Jesus is going because our Lord had indicated His destiny involves suffering and death. Jesus then goes on to teach Peter that being a Christian disciple isn't just a matter of confessing the right faith. Being a Christian disciple also means accepting and facing the challenges, suffering, and persecution that come to us because of our confession of faith. Peter was happy to confess Jesus as the 'Christ, the Son of the Living God' but not happy to follow where the Christ was now leading him. Our confession of faith is a necessary proclamation of whom we believe Jesus to be. However, that confession means little if we do not live it out in committed, obedient, and practical aspects of our lives. For this reason, Jesus states in Matthew 16:27 that every person will be repaid based on what they have done as opposed to what they have said. Thus, our judgment will be based not on our words but on our deeds. This is a consistent theme in Matthew's Gospel and challenges us to consider how well we are willing to embrace the cross with Jesus. Talk is cheap. Peter can profess the faith, but the more important question is whether he can carry the cross. That challenges all of us to ponder how well we live our Christian beliefs in practical daily life. Paul often taught the early Church about the necessity of living out their beliefs in daily life.

Think about it: What are situations in which I find it difficult to let my faith guide my actions? How do people today try to lead God rather than follow God in their prayer?
