Sunday, September 13 ~ Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 18:21-35

This narrative points out the difference between mercy and justice. When Peter asks how often he should forgive someone who wrongs him, Jesus answers, "...not seven times: I say seventy times seven times." Jesus then narrates the story of the king who was merciful to his official by forgiving him all his debts, but this same official showed no mercy to his own servant.

Prayer for Religious Vocations

Priest: Let us pray for vocations.

All: O God, we earnestly beseech you to bless the Church with many priests, deacons, seminarians and religious who will love you with their whole strength, be faithful to their vocation and gladly spend their entire lives to teach your truths, serve your Church and make you known and loved.

Priest: Bless our families, bless our children.

All: Choose from our homes those who are needed for your work.

Priest: O Mary, Queen of the clergy,

All: Pray for us. Pray for our priests, deacons, seminarians and religious. Obtain for us many more. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone, are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Sirach 27:30—28:7

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

Second Reading – Romans 14:7-9

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Gospel – Matthew 18:21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

STEWARDSHIP GIFTS

*“For if we live, we live for the Lord,
and if we die, we die for the Lord;
so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.”
– ROMANS 14:8*

This is the essence of stewardship – everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren't “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God, daily, and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life that He intended for you.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Confidential!

That's what Stephen Ministry is. Everything a person tells his or her Stephen Minister is kept in strict confidence. People are often afraid that if they tell someone what is troubling them, word will get around and others will look down on them. But a Stephen Minister keeps everything a care receiver shares confidential, and through the sharing God works miracles of healing and peace. For more information or to request a Stephen Minister, call 856-468-5536.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

THIRD FRIDAY ADORATION

Our pilot program of Third Friday Adoration will continue this week from 7 to 8 p.m. All are welcome to sit with Jesus in the Eucharist for a few minutes or a full hour. Please show your support, we hope to make this an ongoing tradition.

SENIOR STRETCH RESUMES THIS WEEK

Take good care of your body and make new friends at Senior Stretch! Classes are held Monday through Thursday in the Kernan Center with a variety of options: Chair stretch (Monday at 11), toning (Tuesday at 9:15), low impact (Wednesday at 9:15) and Zumba (Thursday at 9:15).

EXPLORING THE CAMINO DE SANTIAGO

On Sept. 16 at 7 p.m., parishioner Andrew Stetser will be our guest for a special Incarnation Insights talk. Andrew is a teacher at Gloucester Catholic High School and spent six weeks of his summer break walking the famous Camino de Santiago, an ancient pilgrimage route through France and Spain to the tomb of St. James the Apostle. See pictures of Andrew's journey, learn how he managed to travel 500 miles on foot in grueling heat, and hear about the spiritual lessons he gained along the way.

LIVING AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 18:21-35. In this reading we hear Jesus teaching His disciples about the need to forgive those who have offended them. Teachings on forgiveness occur frequently in the New Testament, and this passage provides us an excellent opportunity to consider what forgiveness might mean for our own lives as disciples.

Peter prompts Jesus' teaching with his question to the Lord, "How often must I forgive him? As many as seven times?" To this question, Jesus responds, "Not seven times but seventy-seven times." The Lord's response to Peter basically indicates that we are to forgive without limit. It is interesting to note that forgiveness is to be extended even when there is no indication that the offending party has repented. This is an important point that has beneficial implications on spiritual and emotional levels for us as disciples. Sometimes we need to forgive even when others aren't seeking our forgiveness. Oftentimes, forgiveness actually benefits the one who forgives more than the one who is forgiven. That might seem strange to us but think about how lack of forgiveness can harm us.

The Scriptures are full of warnings against anger and harboring resentment. We can certainly recall the teaching of Sirach 27:30 where it is written, "Wrath and anger, these also are abominations, yet a sinner holds on to them." We might also think of Saint Paul's letter to the Ephesians 4:26-27 when he said, "Do not let the sun set on your anger and do not leave room for the devil." These are only a few examples of the many teachings, which warn us against the destructive addictiveness of wrath and anger in the human heart. Jesus does not want His disciples to be corrupted by hatred or addicted to wrath and anger. Forgiveness is the only way to overcome these destructive influences even when others aren't asking for our forgiveness. To forgive does not mean that we approve of what the offending person has done or that we are willing to permit their actions to recur in the future. Rather, forgiveness is about not letting another person's wrongful actions dominate our thoughts and feelings any longer. When we don't forgive, we harbor ill feelings that end up corrupting our own ability to be happy and eroding our ability to love freely. Jesus certainly gives us an example of forgiveness in His own life and ministry, especially upon the cross, as He forgives those who are crucifying Him even though they don't ask for it. If God is love, then we cannot be living reflections of the image of God when we are harboring hatred and resentment.

Think about it: Jesus teaches Peter that he is to forgive without limit. What are the typical limits we place on our forgiveness?

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS OUR PURGATORIAL SOCIETY

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May these souls, and all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.*
