

THOMAS C. CLARK, President
IRONWOOD CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

Cell/text 510-367-9014 Email: Tolronwood@aol.com

Curriculum Vitae

Career Experience:

- 50 years of construction experience including high rise buildings, post-tensioned concrete, general commercial and residential design and construction. Tom Clark has been President of Ironwood Construction Company since 1982, implementing design/build solutions for a wide variety of projects.
- Rescuer, CA Task Force 4, Structures Specialist; based in Oakland, CA, hands-on experience in the Loma Prieta and Northridge earthquakes, the World Trade Center Collapse and hurricanes Katrina and Rita.
- FEMA/DHS instructor for the Urban Search and Rescue, Structures Specialist I and the Structures Specialist II training as well as a FEMA/DHS personnel Rigging and a Heavy Equipment Training Field instructors specialist in the training of rescue, government fire and military personnel from around the world.

Specialties:

- Drainage and leak investigations, the repair of foundations and designing and implementing the solutions for structural settlements, as well as a wide array of issues that relate to commercial and residential real estate and buildings.
- Performs design analysis for retrofits, new construction, seismic upgrading projects, retaining walls, and related soils investigation and in more complex situations, coordinating engineers and consultants.
- Specialize in wood, concrete, steel or masonry structures and buildings.
- Works closely with insurance companies, attorneys and other consultants to determine, as well as describe and document, the causes and solutions to the problems at hand.

Education:

- B.Sc.Civil Engineering,Syracuse University
- Post graduate work at University of California at Berkeley

Licenses:

- Licensed General Contractor, CA #444427
- Professional Civil Engineer in Connecticut and Wyoming.