

Good morning families!

Unfortunately, the program I use to make our weekly newsletter is not working currently, so I was not able to make the newsletter like normal.

I will try to include all the information that would typically be there. Hopefully next week, the newsletter will be back to normal!

Thank you!

October Promises: Comfort

1. Ask God to make his nearness known to you today. Receive his presence and experience his profound, limitless peace.

"The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth." Psalm 145:18

2. Open to God any part of your heart that is wounded or needs comfort. It could be the wound of a parent, spouse, friend, colleague, etc. Whatever you feel hurt by today, talk to your loving heavenly Father about it.

"The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18

3. Receive God's comfort. So often healing comes simply by the compassionate love of God. As our Father, God suffers as we suffer. He hurts when we hurt. Let his nearness and love comfort you.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort." 2 Corinthians 1:3
