ISSUE NO. FIVE

WESTSIDE CATHOLIC SCHOOL

GOD, OUR PROTECTOR

A shepherd is a protector, responsible to guard and guide helpless sheep. Jesus alluded to himself as our shepherd (see John 10). So Psalm 23 is teaching that even death cannot impede God's protection! He is our protector even through death; that's how faithful he is! We don't go around the dark valleys; he leads us through them (Psalm 23:4). And in the end, we traverse through death itself; so Jesus shepherds us even through death, since he knows the way through.

Our protector (Jesus) has been through death, so he can guard and guide us through that dark and mysterious unknown to life beyond the grave. He is a protector above and beyond anyone else in the world.

"The LORD keeps watch over you as you come and go, both now and forever" (Ps. 121:8 NLT).

In all of this, it is imperative to know that God's faithfulness and protection have not failed us if we pass into death. After all, as we have said, God's faithfulness carries us through death onto the shores of heaven.

FALL FESTIVAL UPDATE

Let's keep going!

Thank you to all WCS families who have signed up to be a chairperson or cover Fall Festival shifts! Dumplings is now in the books, but well over half of the remaining shifts are still open . We are now just a month out, so please sign up for your family's shifts sooner rather than later to make sure that you are able to find options that fit with your schedule! ALL WCS students, staff and families benefit from the funds raised during the Fall Festival fundraisers, so help is needed from ALL families for them to be successful!

Keep the sign ups coming!

Click on the link below to sign up for your family's shifts. There are still openings for making cookies, fudge and potato candy the weekend before the festival starts. These are all great options for families whose schedules will not allow them to cover shifts during the actual week of Fall Festival. Unable to fill your family's shifts yourself? No problem! You are welcome to ask extended family members and friends to help and there are even some shifts that middle and high school students can cover.

Please contact WCS parent and 2025 Fall Festival Volunteer Scheduling Chair
Melissa Pfafflin at 812-449-7820 or mmrobison1@yahoo.com

STAFF SPOTLIGHTS

Mr. Harris started his 15th year of teaching English this fall, the latter four of those years being here at St. Boniface. Mr. Harris is an avid reader and enjoys the outdoors, mainly fishing and camping. He is an Indiana Hoosier basketball fan and is involved in the parish through OCIA and other activities.

He has been with his wife Carrie for twelve years this fall and has two young children who he loves very much. The family enjoys going hiking, driving at dinner time, and watching a good movie together.

Mr. Harris wants his students to think and act independently so that they can be more active and engaged followers of Christ.
