Roberts Funeral Service

We at Roberts Funeral Service know how important your privacy is to you. As funeral home operators, we have a professional and legal obligation to keep confidential all personal information we receive from you. Our relationship with you is founded on trust, and we are committed to maintaining that trust. For these reasons, we have created the following privacy policy. It confirms our dedication to protecting your privacy and maintaining the trust you have placed in us.

What this policy covers:

This policy covers our treatment of the personal information we collect from you.

Why we collect personal information:

The personal information that we collect is needed to:

1. Identify the purchasers and beneficiaries of Prepaid and At Need arrangements
2. Provide our services
3. Comply with legislative and regulatory requirements

How personal information is used:

1. We do not sell, barter, trade or give away the personal information you have provided to us.
2. We will only share your information with third parties if we are required to by law or you have either expressly authorized us to, or, if it is required for the provision to you of a service or product supplied by another business or organization as part of our services to you, i.e. cash disbursements. Information must be shared with media (to produce obituary notices) vault company, cemetery, monument company, clergy and other contracted services as part of our services to you. Where applicable, funeral notices are posted on our web site as a service to you. Law requires death registration and proof of death notices. If expressly stated by you, the account for services provided may be forwarded to a legal firm or insurance company, etc. for payment.
3. We take all reasonable precautions to ensure that your personal information is kept safe from loss, unauthorized access, modification or disclosure.
