

Tell Me About...

12 Questions to ask after a Short-Term Missions Trip

We love to connect with Short-Term Missionaries, and these are some of our Global Missions Coaches' favourite questions!

We encourage you to use these prompts in conversation with a trusted friend. Plan for about 90 minutes together (maybe with tea or coffee? 😊) to enjoy the memories and ideas that emerge!

Tell me about...

1. ... the ministry that you were involved in. Which parts did you enjoy? Which parts pushed you out of your 'comfort zone'?
2. ... the people you served. What do you miss about them? Why? What is something you learned about the local culture?
3. ... about a special story, event, or person you met.
4. ... something that surprised you or you did not expect.
5. ... one thing for which you were thankful to God.
6. ... what you saw God accomplished/is accomplishing through this trip.

Pro tip!

Consider journaling your responses so you can review them again in the future.

Tell me about...

7. ... the most important thing you learned about God and His character.
8. ... what God showed you about yourself? (examples: physical limitations, spiritual gifts, hidden assumptions, core values, etc.)
9. ... what you learned about missionary life.
10. ... one thing you don't ever want to forget.
11. ... something you would have done differently to prepare.
What advice would you give to someone doing a similar trip in the future?
12. ... what will be different for you now that you are home? What will be easier for you? What will be more difficult for you?

Bonus Question!

Give me one word to describe your Short-Term Missions Trip.

Would you like to talk with someone about your Short-Term Trip?

Our Global Missions Coaches are caring, experienced mission workers. They are prepared to prayerfully support you and your church as you process your short-term experience.

Learn more about Global Missions Coaching at www.Sending Collective.com

