CITY OF LINDEN
NOTICE OF VACANCY
PLANNING COMMISSION

The City of Linden is currently accepting applications for consideration of appointment to the Planning Commission! The term for the vacancy will expire December 31, 2028, with the opportunity for reappointment to serve up to a three-year term. Commissioners and applicants for the Planning Commission are appointed by City Council. Regular meetings are held on the first Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m., unless a holiday conflicts. Members of the Commission are local resident volunteer representatives and serve without compensation.

The Planning Commission prepares the City's Master Plan for existing and future land uses within the City, adheres to the Zoning Ordinance to implement the Master Plan, reviews change of land use requests, site plans and related approvals for development, and/or change of occupancy, and assists with the development of a Capital Improvement Plan. As a Planning Commissioner, you will work in conjunction with other City Boards and Committees, as well as City Officials to support growth and improvement of our city!

Visit the Planning Commission page, as well as Planning & Zoning page via the links provided to learn more! Read the City's Master Plan, review processes, view past meeting minutes and more:
