BUSINESS AND DISCUSSION ITEMS

1. City Staff, P&R and the Loose Senior Center
2. Elections: Chairperson, Secretary
3. Hosting a Genesee District Library (GDL) event. GDL is sponsoring a presentation from Joe Grimm the author of "The Faygo Book" to be held at Loose on Tuesday, November 18 at 5 p.m. As part of the event, GDL, will be providing several liters of Faygo pop and cups for the attendees to sample during the program. Tessa is requesting that the Parks & Recreation Commission volunteer to host the event, assisting with setup, serving, and general hospitality.
4. Review September 11 event: Owl Walk partnership with Genesee County Parks & Recreation and staff from ForMar Nature Center. Light refreshments will be provided by Pam including water and Girl Scout Cookies.
5. Parks and Recreation Mission Statement, from the Linden website: The Parks and Recreation Commission is responsible for making recommendations concerning all public parks, waterfronts, lakes, and other lands dedicated to park use, as permitted under Michigan law. This includes properties bequeathed to or purchased by the City for recreational purposes. The Commission advises on the planning, development, beautification, and improvement of these areas, and may propose rules for their public use. All recommendations are submitted to the City Council, either directly or through the City Manager. Additionally, the Commission collaborates with the City Manager to develop and maintain a five-year Parks & Recreation Plan.
6. Homework: 2025 Thursdays in the Park, brainstorm ideas for November meeting
