Our Stary

0n October of 2007 owners Doug Stumpf and Mike Touhey set out to change people's perception of brunch food and service. After following the Dave Matthews Band around the country for over 25 years, they noticed a lack of quality breakfast restaurants in most cities. Quickly they found that most places that were serving breakfast, served basic food with very few options and oftentimes, bad service. They set out to convince the people of Hampton Roads that breakfast is indeed the most important meal of the day and could be done better. After a yearlong search for the perfect location, The Egg Bistro was hatched in the city of Chesapeake, Virginia. Soon After, with the addition of Pat Perry, a restaurateur with an extensive culinary background, The Egg team was complete. The mission was clear, to focus on using fresh quality ingredients, locally sourced products and having a team that provides top notch service and truly loves what they do. We serve a different kind of breakfast with creative dishes and locally sourced ingredients that will leave you craving for more.

Along with this mission, the owners wanted to be community focused. All three of them were born and raised in this community and have been committed to giving back since their beginnings. They are driven by making the communities and society we live in a better place, one egg at a time. With the help of our Egg family and friends, we have donated over 300,000 to charities like the Humane Society, SPCA, Fun Forrest and local schools to name a few. They have formed an alliance with first responders and the military by hosting fundraisers and offering a daily discount as thanks for their sacrifice and service. It's become a way of life for the Egg, to live and support local.

The Egg Bistro family takes the responsibility of starting your day off right seriously, even if we don't take ourselves too seriously. We want everyone to feel welcome and experience what we call Egg life, because here everyone is family regardless of what side of the bed you wake up on.
