Our Story

In October of 2007, owners Doug Stumpf and Mike Touhey embarked on a mission to revolutionize the way people view brunch food and service. After spending over 25 years following the Dave Matthews Band across the country, they realized that most cities were seriously lacking in quality breakfast spots. It was a sad state of affairs - basic food, limited options, and service that was more of a nightmare than a dream.

Determined to show the good people of Hampton Roads that breakfast could be a glorious affair; they scoured the land for the perfect location. And lo and behold, The Egg Bistro was born in Chesapeake, Virginia. With the addition of Pat Perry, a culinary wizard, the Egg dream team was complete.

Their mission was crystal clear - fresh, top-notch ingredients, locally sourced products, and a team that genuinely loves what they do. The result? A breakfast experience like no other, with dishes that will have you coming back for more.

But it's not just about the food - these owners are all about giving back to the community. Born and raised in the area, they've been on a mission to make the world a better place, one egg at a time. They've donated over 300,000 to charities like the Humane Society, SPCA, and local schools, and have formed strong bonds with first responders and the military.

At The Egg Bistro, starting your day off right is serious business - even if they don't take themselves too seriously. So come on down, grab a seat, and let the Egg family take care of you. It's brunch time, and we're here to make it egg-stra special.

Cheers!
