from the EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S DESK

BY TONY RENZ

What a summer it has been for Indiana Standardbred racing.

As I reflect on the past few months, I am reminded once again of what makes our industry so special. From the bright lights of Harrah's Hoosier Park to the grandstands of the Indiana State Fairgrounds and the many county fairs across our state, Indiana-bred and Indiana-sired horses, owners, breeders, trainers, drivers and fans have continued to showcase the strength of our racing program.

At Harrah's Hoosier Park, the 2026 season has produced exciting racing and outstanding performances. Indiana Sires Stakes competition has been front and center throughout the summer, giving our talented young horses the opportunity to establish themselves among the best in the sport. The $300,000 Dan Patch Stakes was another marquee night on Indiana's racing calendar, once again demonstrating that Hoosier Park has become one of the premier destinations in the country for high-level harness racing.

The Indiana Sired Fair Circuit represents the grassroots of our industry. It gives young horses their first opportunity to compete, provides aspiring drivers with valuable experience and allows families and communities throughout Indiana to experience Standardbred racing up close. This summer's fair circuit once again demonstrated the tremendous talent across our state.

One performance in particular captured the attention of the entire harness racing community.

On July 29 at the Fayette County Free Fair in Connersville, 18-year-old Kevin Detweiler accomplished something truly remarkable—he won all eight races on the card. Eight starts. Eight victories. It was an extraordinary accomplishment, and another example of how the Indiana fair circuit helps develop the next generation of horsemen and women.

The Indiana State Fair provided another tremendous showcase for our industry. Grand Circuit racing returned to the Indiana State Fairgrounds, while the Governor's Cup Championships brought together the top Indiana-sired horses from the summer fair circuit. Congratulations to all of the divisional winners and to every owner, breeder, trainer, driver and caretaker who worked throughout the summer to qualify and compete. To complete the state fair experience, the speed barn tours once again gave fairgoers an opportunity to get up close and personal with a Standardbred horse. Many thanks to former ISA director Emily Dever and all volunteers who assisted with the speed barn tours.

The fall will bring another important event to the Indiana State Fairgrounds—the Midwest Standardbred Horse Sale, scheduled for October 15 and 16. The sale has become an important event for our industry, bringing buyers, sellers, breeders and horsemen together in Indianapolis. It provides another opportunity to showcase the quality of Standardbreds being bred and raised throughout Indiana and the Midwest.

And then came the announcement that changed the landscape of Indiana harness racing forever.

OH, WHAT A NIGHT:

DAN PATCH 33 DELIVERS

By Tammy Knox

A large crowd assembled both inside and out to watch the 33rd edition of the Dan Patch Friday, August 14 at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Photo by Dean Gillette

Oh, what a night! Harrah's Hoosier Park has renewed energy this year that has revitalized the entire property. History of the track has catapulted the program into the upper echelon of Standardbred racing. And, it all started with the Dan Patch Stakes 33 years ago.

The $40,000 Dan Patch began as an Invitational race in 1994 during the inaugural shortened fall season at Hoosier Park. From there, the race continued to grow and attract some of the sport's top equine athletes, including 1996 winner Jenna's Beach Boy, the track's first sub 1:50 performer with a win in 1:49.4. It was one night that captured the attention of harness racing fans in North America over the next three decades. Now, it is only one of several nights where the national spotlight is on Indiana Standardbred racing.

The 33rd edition of the Dan Patch, now a stakes race with a purse of $300,000, was listed as a Grade 1 event for the first time in its history, meaning it is considered one of the top races annually in North America. A field of 11 stepped onto the track with Captain Optimistic, driven by Dexter Dunn, tagged as the early morning line favorite.

The Oakes Stable was well represented in the winner's circle for the trophy and blanket presentation to Dandy Ideal, the latest winner of the $300,000 Dan Patch Stakes. Photo by Dean Gillette Per usual, there was a lot of action when the gates folded for the Dan Patch Stakes. Several horses left for the lead and were three wide heading into the first turn with only three horses on the inside as everyone was vying for positioning. Harrisburg Heist and Yannick Gingras rocketed out of the gate from post nine and were able to beat their opponents to the top spot heading into the first turn, but everyone knew his time on the lead was short lived. Bythemissal and Ronnie Wrenn Jr. had their sights on the lead as Harrisburg Heist posted the first quarter in :25.4.

It wasn't long before Bythemissal had settled in on the lead, but Captain Optimistic had strong intentions of taking over. Dandy Ideal and Tyler Buter were still left on the outside and decided to also go for it, becoming the third leader of the race just after the half in :52.3. The race was setting up for the closers to make an impact with the fast fractions and also for a big mile to be posted in the race.

Horses were still on the outside around the final turn, including Prince Hal Hanover and Todd McCarthy, who endured a parked out mile and first over journey as they faced the long stretch drive. Heading for home Dandy Ideal made his presence known on the front end, passing the three-quarters in 1:20.1. He was going to make it tough on anyone who had thoughts of overtaking him. On top by two, Dandy Ideal continued to hold his own on the front end and reached the wire first as a three and one-quarter length winner in 1:47.2 in what Track Announcer Michael Chamberlain called a Dan Patch domination, equaling the stakes record for the race. Prince Hal Hanover finished second in a tight photo with Captain Optimistic. Taking out the win margin by Dandy Ideal, only three and one-quarter lengths separated the next eight finishers, showing the depth of talent in the Dan Patch field.

Dandy Ideal paid $9.60 for the win. The American Ideal World Champion four-year-old gelding earned his fifth win in his last six starts. Hunter Oakes trains the millionaire pacer for Susan Oakes and Alan Johnston. His speed comes from both sides of his family as his mother, OK Heavenly, was a sub 1:50 performer and made more than $336,000. Although he has some siblings that are performing well, he's the richest and the fastest to date from the Sportswriter mare. Dandy Ideal now has 21 wins and more than $1.3 million with his record time of 1:47.2 taken at Pocono Downs earlier this year, which tied the world record for a four-year-old gelding on a five-eighths mile oval. He was the runner-up in last fall's Breeders Crown for sophomore pacing colts and geldings.

It was the first win in the Dan Patch Stakes for Buter, who is based out of Pennsylvania. He is coming off the best year of his career, which started in 2002 with 455 wins last season and purses in excess of $7.7 million. The 40-year-old reinsman is a multi-generational horseman representing the Buter name and is the current leading driver at Pocono Downs.

Dan Patch wouldn't be complete without the $50,000 Gregg Haston Memorial on the undercard. Captain Arturovico and Dexter Dunn timed their late move just right, reaching the wire ahead of Lou Hill and Yannick Gingras by a head to stop the timer in 1:49. Leave It To Leo and John DeLong finished third. Ron Burke trains Captain Arturovico.

Adding another spark to the night was the first edition of the $100,000 Rockin Nola for sophomore fillies. The Grade 3 event placed Three Times Bettor and Dunn on the front after the quarter in :26.4 and the duo never looked back, posting the mile in 1:49.1. Rodeo Drive Deo and Yannick Gingras finished a solid second over local favorite Can'ttouchthese and John DeLong for third. Three Times Bettor hails from the Brett Pelling barn.

All the later card action was broadcast live on Fox Sports drawing for up to $20,000 through the promotion. In all, the evening drew a huge crowd and the track set a new record for the highest handle for Dan Patch at more than $1 million. It continues the trend which places the track up five percent over last year, which had a banner season when wagering was up an unbelievable 32 percent, bucking national trends in any type of horse racing.

"It was another great Dan Patch for the books," noted Joe Morris, Senior Vice President of Racing for Caesars Entertainment. "The place was packed and we had a record handle. It also marked our first day of our Championship Meet so it's a great way to kick off our premier races. It bodes very well for the Caesars Trotting Classic and Super Night, and all the other stakes we have on the schedule this fall."

The evening was a nice break from historical flooding that swept through the Anderson area just days before, and it was also on the heels of one of the biggest announcements of the year for Standardbred racing. The Hambletonian Society announced the day before that the Hambletonian was moving to Harrah's Hoosier Park for a three-year stint beginning in 2027.

"We all worked together on that project and we are very excited and proud to host the Hambletonian beginning next year," added Morris, who cited several groups in the success of bringing the Hambletonian to Indiana, including the Governor's Office and the Indiana Standardbred Association in addition to others such as the Indiana Horse Racing Commission and the Sports Bureau and Tourism of Indiana. "The Hambletonian Society just happened to have their meeting the day before the Dan Patch and as a result of the vote, announced the move of the Hambletonian to Hoosier Park. It was perfect momentum leading into our Dan Patch Night and with Fox Sports, it was a really great show."

Morris went on to note the hard work the entire team at Hoosier Park did to create such a fantastic backdrop for Dan Patch Night. He explained the staff worked hard behind the scenes to prepare, and commended Gabe Prewitt, Vice President and General Manager of Racing, for his leadership into this next era of Harrah's Hoosier Park.

"The whole vibe has changed, and it is really an energetic atmosphere this year," explained Morris. "The moral is high. The highest I've seen in our seven years of racing at Hoosier Park. The team is really jelling. This is their second year under Gabe (Prewitt). His attitude is very infectious, and he knows how to work the edges to be very relevant with the gambler and the horsemen. It's an exciting time right now at Hoosier Park."

Several of the drivers, including Jordan Ross and John DeLong, showed off their throwing skills during the t-shirt toss on Dan Patch Night. Photo by Dean Gillette

2. Two of the races came out of the front paddock, always a crowd pleaser, including the Dan Patch Stakes. Horses were donned with the traditional white blankets as they made their way to the track, adding to the pageantry of the night.

Trackside, live entertainment was in place along with inflatables for the younger fans and contests and food trucks for the older people in attendance. The evening also included the innovative Friday Night Fling, where guests try to throw small "horse ducks" into the official track transportation vehicle as it drives by during a designated time. Those successfully getting the duck through the open window are placed into a

It is a journey that spans 12 weeks over 27 sessions and 10 destinations. The Quest for the Governor's Cup Championships is not for the faint of heart. It requires many miles of travel, many adjustments for different track surfaces, and enduring temperamental weather conditions that cause delays, extreme heat, and less than desirable track conditions at times. But it was a journey embraced by 342 horses with hopes of qualifying for the $25,000 Governor's Cup Championships in mid-August at the Indiana State Fair.

This year brought in a plethora of winners: some that had stayed atop their divisions the entire way and some that were peaking at the right time to pull in surprise victories. Whatever the case, the top eight qualifiers from each of the eight divisions for two- and three-year-olds on both the trot and the pace were up for the task Wednesday, August 19 on the one-mile oval at the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

The "Vel" sisters in the two-year-old filly pacing series topped the preliminary rounds as Vel My First Dream and Velmissfoxyshooter came into the final with six and five wins respectively to account for 372 and 347 points. However, two fillies had six wins each with less starts on the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit (ISFC) and each had only one defeat. Sassie Kassie and Bella Notte had their sights set on the oversized silver cup in the final.

Sassie Kassie began from post four for driver Kevin Lambright and used just enough early speed to grab the two hole behind Velmissfoxyshooter, the only filly to defeat her this year in ISFC action driven by Mike Peterson. Lambright pulled the pocket after the quarter in :28 seconds and the rest is history. Sassie Kassie went on to claim the title in a Governor's Cup record of 1:55.0 by two lengths over Velmissfoxyshooter and GD Captain Win, driven by Michael Detweiler.

Sassie Kassie is a freshman daughter of Capt Midnight. She is owned and trained by Cassandra Lambright.

Another contender who completed a stellar season in the Quest for the Governor's Cup Championships was three-year-old pacing filly It Liz Again, driven by Mike Peterson. The Highalator filly sat patiently in the two hole before taking over at the head of the lane and pacing home for the five and three-quarter length win in 1:53.1. Rita's Girl, who led the division by points and driven by Kevin Detweiler, finished second over Ambehaving and Kevin Lambright for third.

It Liz Again is owned by Chris Choros and Therl Hensley. Gerald Miller trains the filly, who is a home bred for Choros. It was her third straight win and her fourth during the preliminary rounds of the Governor's Cup Championship. It was also a new career best for the sophomore pacer as she moved her career bankroll over the $60,000 mark.

The biggest surprise on the day came in the three-year-old trotting filly division. Precisely, driven by Kevin Detweiler, came into the Championship in the final spot, ranked eighth on the list of qualifiers for the championship.

Precisely began from post five and rallied three wide in the final turn before grinding her way to the wire for the win in a new personal best time of 1:58.0. The Helpisontheway three-year-old was a half-length winner over Canipilotall, divisional leader with six wins in preliminary rounds driven by Clint Coy. Topville Ideal and Mike Peterson rounded out the top three.

Precisely earned her third win of the season for owner Two-forone Stable. Robert Wyman trained the filly to the title. She was sold shortly after the Governor's Cup Championships and is now racing in Upstate New York.

The largest division in the Quest for the Governor's Cup Championships was the two-year-old filly trot where 60 fillies competed in the series. Sassytemper came into the final with nine wins from 12 starts, only missing two fairs which overlapped with other locations.

Cool Manner, driven by Kevin Detweiler, had been super successful in the series also with eight wins and it was her time to shine in Indianapolis. The Rebuff freshman filly earned her ninth win of the season and grabbed a new career best time of 1:57.0 to take home the championship. Joseph Wagler owns and trains the filly, who was purchased for $8,000 by Wagler on the final day of the Midwest Standardbred Horse Sale last fall. She now has more than $30,000 on her card. ER Navy, driven by Don Eash, finished second over Helpondivine and Clint Coy.

In two-year-old trotting colt and gelding action, Hidden Talent and Clint Coy finished strong in the preliminary rounds and kept that momentum going into the final for the title. The Helpisontheway freshman also earned a new lifetime best in the mile in 2:00.0 for owners Julie Rideout, William Hartt, and Matthew Burton. Doug Rideout trains the gelding, purchased for $17,000 out of last fall's Midwest Standardbred Horse Sale. Yankee Dan and Greg Runyon finished second over Brookview Holiday and Michael Detweiler in the final.

Rounding out two-year-old action was JK Barbar, who had three wins and four seconds in the series before the final. The JK Endofanera gelding, driven by Clint Coy for trainer Tyler George, had to use two moves during the mile but was untouched at the wire in 1:55.2, a final quarter in :27.2. DD Endofanera and LeWayne Miller finished second over Leapnpetesonhisway and Logan Loney.

JK Barbar followed up his win in the Governor's Cup Championship with a win in the ISA Elite, dropping his personal best even more with the win in 1:55.0. George's TG Stable owns the gelding, who is a home bred.

Three-year-old trotters were led to the wire in the Championship by series leader Don't Tell Anyone, who reeled off seven wins leading up to the final. Guided by Kevin Detweiler, the Don't Let'Em sophomore stopped the timer in 1:57.0 over Vel Eugene and Mike Peterson with Don't Keep Secrets and Logan Loney finishing third in the tight photo for second.

Don't Tell Anyone and Detweiler went onto the Darke County Fair and won the $18,600 Parshall off their Governor's Cup Championship win. He now has more than $75,000 on his card for trainer Leander Schwartz and owners Black and White Stable.

Charging Thunder, driven by Mike Peterson completed the Governor's Cup Championships with a win in the three-year-old pacing colts and geldings category. Owned by K & G Racing of Fortville, Ind., the Rockin Image gelding led gate to wire for the win by a head, fending off Vel See You Later and Clint Coy in 1:55.3. Vel Big Shocker and Doug Rideout finished third.

Charging Thunder is trained by Kevin High. He also returned to the ISA Elite and won again, making it seven in a row for his connections. His Elite win was also a career best in 1:53.3.

The Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) held its annual Indiana Legislators Day Thursday, July 30 with a visit to Robert and Stephanie Taylor's Taylor Made Farm just east of Harrah's Hoosier Park. More than 20 guests enjoyed a day of learning about Standardbred racing with lunch provided to the Legislators and their families.

Taylor and his crew along with Ernie Gaskin provided tours of their barn capped off by rides around the track behind racehorses in the two-seated jog carts. The event has become a staple each summer on the schedule to showcase racing to those in the State House.

The Indiana horse racing industries, which include Standardbred, Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse action, contribute nearly $2 billion annually to the state's economy, according to a study completed by Purdue University in 2022. The study showed big increases in horses owned, trained, or bred in the state by nearly 60 percent along with Indiana owned property increases to dedicated racing operations, up by 25 percent. One of those properties is the training center created and maintained by the Taylors, along with their son, Tristan, who represents the next generation of racing.

The Taylors purchased property about 10 years ago in Middletown. The acreage was then developed to include

Hambletonian moves to Harrah's Hoosier Park

By Tammy Knox

After months of preparation, pitching, analyzing, and execution, the prestigious Hambletonian was awarded to Harrah's Hoosier Park, beginning in 2027. The announcement was made by the Hambletonian Society and the $1 million event will be hosted for three years at the Anderson, Ind. seven-eighths mile track, the first time the event has been contested on a track smaller than a mile since 1956 when the race was at Goshen, N.Y.

The Hambletonian began in 1926 at the New York State Fair in Syracuse, N.Y., named in honor of the sire who has shaped the breeding of the sport, Hambletonian. Lexington, Ky. hosted the event twice in the late 1920s. The race was moved to Goshen, N.Y. for 26 years at Good Time Park, with a war-time stop at Empire City Race Track (known today as Yonkers Raceway) during that era in 1943. The race then moved to its home of 23 years at the DuQuoin State Fairgrounds in Southern Illinois before relocating to The Meadowlands in 1981.

The iconic Hambletonian Trophy will be awarded to the winner of the 2027 Hambletonian at Harrah's Hoosier Park next summer. The trophy is a sterling silver Revere-style bowl on a wooden "wedding cake" style base. Photo by Hambletonian Society

"Indiana has proved that we know how to compete for and host major sporting events," said Governor Mike Braun in Many entities came together for the pitch to bring the Hambletonian to Indiana, led by the Indiana Standardbred Association and Caesars Entertainment Racing, the parent company of Harrah's Hoosier Park. The group included Governor Mike Braun's office as well as the state's Visitors and Tourism boards. Indiana hosts numerous major sporting events annually, and the addition of the Hambletonian falls right in line with the state's vision to be a national event destination.

a press release. "Bringing the Hambletonian to the Hoosier State is another tremendous win for Indiana."

The Hambletonian Society announced it would be accepting bids to host the event last fall when The Meadowlands did not exercise its right of renewal to host the event in 2027. Bids were due by March 1 with Harrah's Hoosier Park, Woodbine/Mohawk Racing in Canada, and The Meadowlands each submitting bids to host the event. The decision was announced Thursday, August 13 that Harrah's Hoosier Park had received the event.

"No decision regarding the Hambletonian is taken lightly by the board," said John Campbell, CEO of the Hambletonian Society through a press release about the announcement of the move. "The Hambletonian has enjoyed a long and successful run at the Meadowlands since 1981. All Meadowlands management teams have been great partners in promoting the race and the surrounding events. However, the board received a proposal, that it accepted, from Harrah's Hoosier Park, with the support of the Indiana Racing Commission and Indiana Standardbred Association that will only guarantee continued opportunity and growth for the Hambletonian and the sport."

Along with the Grade 1 Hambletonian race comes several subsidiary races, including the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks and the $400,000 Hambletonian Maturity. The Hambletonian Society is required to open up the host site annually to prospective bidders unless the contract is secured by the previous site. The Hambletonian race is also required to be

Indiana State Fair Speed Barn Tours a popular destination

By Tammy Knox

Former Indiana Standardbred Association Director and longtime owner-breeder Nat Hill talks with visitors of the Speed Barn Tours at the Indiana State Fair. Photo provided

Indiana Standardbred racing was on display at the Indiana State Fair with the annual Speed Barn Tours. The barn has become a popular destination for fair goers right off the trolley that transports people around the outside of the one mile racetrack.

Conducted through a partnership with Indiana Standardbred Breed Development and the Indiana Standardbred Association, the Speed Barn Tours were available on weekends of the fair. The first weekend alone attracted several thousand visitors who stopped in to learn about the sport and to visit retired racehorses.

Rocket Fuel, a winner of more than $784,000 with 40 wins, took his place in the display, greeting fans who snapped pictures and enjoyed meeting the former Indiana champion up close. Now 25 years old, Rocket Fuel has been part of the Speed Barn Tours each season and is currently enjoying retirement in Converse.

Twila Harts owns the gelding. Alvin Miller trained him through his 11-year-old racing career until he retired.

Volunteers from harness racing provided additional information on the current racing scene with the walls covered in posters, giving details on the history of the sport.

The Harness Horse Youth Foundation also provided Harness Hero cards to younger visitors and other handouts to help inspire interest in Standardbred racing.

It is estimated that more than 20,000 individuals stopped by the display during the three-week Indiana State Fair this season, exposing new individuals to Standardbred racing. More than 2,500 were counted on the first day of the display.

Once again, Emily Dever, former Indiana Standardbred Association director, provided the organization and set up of the event. A special thanks is extended to Dever and all the volunteers who came in to ensure fair goers enjoyed their visit to the Speed Barn.

It is estimated more than 20,000 people stopped in the Speed Barn to learn about Indiana Standardbred racing during the 2026 Indiana State Fair. Photo provided

GROOM OF THE MONTH

Groom of the Month completes first half

By Tammy Knox

Groom of the Month is back in 2026 and just completed its first half of the program, which recognizes and honors the hard working men and women behind the scenes of Indiana Standardbred racing. Daryl Miller's Blue Bird Meadows is back again as the title sponsor, enhancing the program with greater rewards.

The program kicked off in June with the first recipient of the year hailing from the Jay Hochstetler Stable. Emily Nourse is fairly new to the business and has worked the past five years for Hochstetler. Her favorite horse to ever work with is the track record setting trotter Ponda Jet. However, her current favorite is Mystical JK. The two-year-old filly has only finished off the board once in five starts at press time with two wins, the quickest in 1:50.4. Nourse is originally from Upstate New York.

Emily Nourse of the Jay Hochstetler Stable was selected as the June Groom of the Month. Photo provided

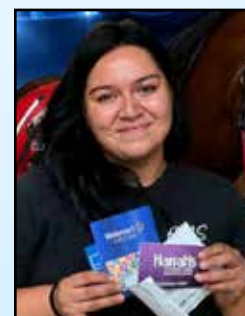

Axel Navas of the Tyler George barn was July Groom of the Month. Photo provided

The month of July placed the spotlight on Axel Navas of the Tyler George Stable. Axel has been in harness racing for four years. He was the groom of the standout pacer Rock Shines Again, who was an undefeated Sires Stakes champion last year, and he cites the gelding as his favorite horse all time. His current favorite to care for is Angel Hill, a four-year-old pacing mare who has four wins in 2026 and counting as of press time.

Axel is a native of Anderson, Ind. and graduated from Anderson High School prior to becoming a groom for Tyler and Cassie George.

The August Groom of the Month honored Liz Escobedo of the Erv Miller Stable. A native of Sacramento, Calif., Liz has been a groom for the past six years with half that time spent in the Miller barn. Her favorite horse of all time is Ponda Rocky, a Pastor Stephen trotter who earned five wins last year and has now moved on and is racing at Plainridge Racecourse. Her current favorite horse to care for is I'm Too Hot for You, a JK Endofanera two-year-old this season who has already won in 1:51.4. Liz relocates to Sorrento, Fla. each winter with the Miller barn for winter training before returning to Indiana in the Spring.

Each recipient of Groom of the Month received a $100 gift card from Blue Bird Meadows. In addition the Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) provided a $100 gift card with Harrah's Hoosier Park supplying a t-shirt and dinner for two at Sulky's Restaurant and Bar.

The ISA, Harrah's Hoosier Park, and Blue Bird Meadows are proud to work together for the monthly Groom of the Month to celebrate and showcase the hardest working individuals on the backside.

To nominate an individual for Groom of the Month, submit a nomination slip in the paddock. Winners will be announced on or near the 21st of each month. Three more recipients will be announced for September through November in the next issue of the ISA Magazine.

Turning Back Time

10 Years Ago:

First Turn Stable completed its first year of operations under the guidance of trainer Jeff Cullipher. The inaugural group for the fractional ownership program won two races from two different horses during the racing year, Boogie Nights and Hot N Shooting, both of which won a race before being claimed.

Harrah's Hoosier Park announced it would be the title sponsor of the Dan Patch Awards banquet set in Florida for the top horses of 2016. The announcement is on the heels of acquiring the Breeders Crown for the first time in the fall of 2017.

Trainer Larry Rheinheimer, best known for campaigning the great Freaky Feet Pete, passed away unexpectedly.

Goose's Weedie, driven by Sam Widger, was a big upset winner during Hoosier Champions, known as Super Night. The Mike Hollenback trained freshman filly earned the biggest win of her career in the $200,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Final.

The Centaur Equine Specialty Hospital in Shelbyville, Ind. neared completion. The facility is operated by Purdue University's College of Veterinary Medicine.

Indiana celebrated its 200th anniversary with a torch relay through Madison County. One leg of the relay was around Harrah's Hoosier Park's oval with Madison County Sheriff Ron Richardson accompanying Brooke Nickells and Ideal Choice in a two-seated jog cart for that portion of the relay.

The ISA held an Open House for the new location of the offices in Greenfield, Ind. Local dignitaries, racing participants, and legislative members attended the event.

20 Years Ago:

The great Go On BB and driver Ricky Macomber Jr. completed her two-year-old season at then Indiana Downs by winning the $61,800 Indiana Sires Stakes Final for freshman pacing fillies. The Ron Burke trained filly, owned by Frank Baldachino, completed her two-year-old season with seven wins in 10 starts with no finish worse than third all year.

25 Years Ago:

Churchill Downs, Incorporated completed an agreement to sell 15 percent of Hoosier Park to Centaur Racing. Centaur Racing also purchased the 10 percent interest in Hoosier Park held by Conseco, Inc., bringing their total investment to 25 percent.

110 Years Ago:

The Great Dan Patch, who hailed from Oxford Ind., passed away. To this day, Oxford holds Dan Patch Days each April in honor of the great racehorse.

making her mark among the younger

As a senior at Blackford Junior-Senior High School, Savanah Clark does not waver in either her goal for her term as President of her school's Future Farmers of America (FFA) chapter or how to achieve it: "to get more people to join the chapter and that is done by personal contact."

Savanah also hopes to expand participation in community events like Feed a Farmer which supplies meals to those who work in the field each spring and fall.

Although the 30 members are active in many different district contests such as livestock judging, soils, forestry, dairy foods, engineering, and welding to name a few, the daughter of Chad and Shannon Clark from Hartford City, Ind. enjoys and excels at equine activities. This past spring, she earned a Proficiency Award at the district level in Equine Placement by assisting, then documenting her efforts, with her parents' small Standardbred operation. And, of course, Savanah intends to compete again this year.

Earlier in the school year, Savanah loaded up one of the horses from the farm, Dover in Action, and headed to school. It was part of FFA Week in Blackford County and Savanah provided a lunch hour stop to fellow students, who met the trotter. Kids interacted with the gelding and learned about his racing career.

Savanah was born into a longtime racing family in the Hoosier State. Her father, Chad, became involved in racing and was in partnership with his father, Everett, on several horses that races in Indiana. Chad has competed for the past four decades as a driver and a trainer and currently serves as a director on the Indiana Standardbred Association board. He and his wife, Shannon, also very involved in racing, have a son, Jeremiah, who served in the Army. The Clarks race year-round and also breed and raise several of the horses they race. Savanah helps out at the barn and also helps with jogging when needed.

Savanah has always had interest in FFA and agriculture. She served as secretary and treasurer in her sophomore and junior years as well as teachers assistant for two years for her

Empire of Hope brings in big donations

By Tammy Knox

Each year, the focus is placed on racehorse aftercare for the Standardbred industry during Empire of Hope at Harrah's Hoosier Park. The event is a company wide initiative by Caesars Entertainment racing with Indiana leading the way annually in money raised for aftercare.

Jennifer Daniels, executive director and administrator for Standardbred Transition Alliance, was on hand for Empire of Hope, held Saturday, July 25 at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Several activities took place over the weekend, bringing in a total of $50,843 from all entities. Harrah's Hoosier Park's Senior Vice President and General Manager Colin Skidmore was joined by Jeremy Medley, director of marketing, and Jacob Rheinheimer, race marketing manager, for a donation from the track of $15,000. The remaining money was raised through t-shirt sales, yard sales, charity rides, bake sales, and general donations headed up by Teena Walden, backstretch maintenance supervisor.

outside the driver's lounge was stepped up a notch this season, including handmade wooden planters depicting horse heads.

The casino also got in on the action with the final day of "Reins to the Road" giveaway with patrons registering to win a golf cart, zero turn mower, and other prizes such as flat screen televisions. The day was capped off by a free

TAVERN TOUR 26

WITH JMV & HOLVY

By Tammy Knox

Tavern Tour took place in August at two locations to bring awareness and information about racing in Indiana with "The Ride with JMV" on 107.5 The Fan. Photo provided

The Indiana Standardbred Association (ISA) is always looking for ways to find new venues of exposure for harness racing. A few years ago, the Fifth Third Cigar Lounge in Ingalls, Ind. provided a connection through their podcast, doing several shows from both the grandstand and outside the paddock with featured guests during the night. This year, ISA has elevated their partnership with 107.5 The Fan with Tavern Tour. The show became part of the popular afternoon show "The Ride with JMV" featuring John Michael Vincent, longtime host and on-air personality in Central Indiana and Brent Holverson, known as Holvy, a regular co-host for the show.

Tavern Tour made two stops, the first at Moran's Bar and Grill in Anderson, Ind. The next stop was held at Taylor's Bar & Table, located just off I-69 in Ingalls. Both shows were held during the month of August. The show aired from 3 – 6 p.m. on 107.5 The Fan, which features ESPN Radio programming.

The live show of "The Ride with JMV" featured guest speakers from racing, including driver John DeLong and race marketing manager Jacob Rheinheimer of Harrah's Hoosier Park. ISA Executive Director Tony Renz, who was instrumental in setting up the program, was also a featured guest during the event.

Tavern Tour was sponsored by ISA and the Indiana Standardbred Breed Development.

Detweiler sweeps card at Connersville

By Tammy Knox

Records aren't clear, but experts in any type of horse racing are fairly certain Kevin Detweiler just accomplished something no other driver or jockey has done in history. Detweiler won all eight races on the program Wednesday, July 29 at the Fayette County Fairgrounds. Molly Jo Rosen, longtime publicist, videographer, and digital director, immediately noticed the accomplishment and sent out a reel across North America to honor the historic event.

"I can't remember seeing a driver or jockey for that matter sweep all the races on a card," noted Rosen. "So we went ahead and cut/uploaded a highlight reel of his races at Connersville."

Some of the wins weren't a surprise, but some were. Detweiler guided Sassytemper, Brookview Holiday, Kobe's BB, Bests Swans Rocker, Rita's Girl, Velgetthisstraight, Vel Im Good, Vel Big Shocker, and Vel See You Later. The first four winners were for trainer Joseph Wagler. The last four were for Trainer Larry King.

The event happened just days before historical flooding was rampant in the Connersville area, causing major destruction along the river, including flooding at the Fayette County Fairgrounds.

Detweiler was presented with a special framed photo of all eight wins during Governor's Cup Championships Wednesday, August 19 at the Indiana State Fair. He was joined by friends and family along with members of the Indiana Standardbred Breed Development, Tony Renz of the Indiana Standardbred Association, Diane Schuler, who took all eight photos at the Fayette County Fair, and Linda Dever, racing secretary of the Indiana State Fair for the presentation.

HHYF's Royal Attire Retired at 21 Years Old

By Katie Eick

Those in attendance for Royal Attire's final camp gathered around him during the event at Gaitway Farm in New Jersey. Photo provided

The Harness Horse Youth Foundation (HHYF) spent the summer traveling and conducting programs to teach kids about harness racing in Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey, and New York. At the conclusion of the Gaitway Farm program Tuesday, August 4, the 21-year-old Trottingbred gelding Royal Attire made his final rounds as an accomplished ambassador for harness racing.

Foaled in 2005, Royal Attire, better known as “Roy”, had a short career in the Trottingbred racing scene in Indiana before joining the HHYF stable in 2009. Since then, he spent his summers traveling all over the country for HHYF events and his winters with his Trottingbred stablemates on vacation. Known for his calm demeanor and willing attitude, Roy was often the go-to horse for demonstrations and special events.

He has taught countless kids as well as adults how to drive a harness horse. HHYF executive director and recently named Hall-of-Famer Ellen Taylor guessed that well over 1,000 people had the pleasure to sit behind Roy in his lifetime. For many of those, it was the first time they ever held a set of lines. Roy always ensured that the first time jogging a horse was a positive experience and helped his young drivers to fall in love with harness racing.

“Roy came into the HHYF program a bit timid almost two decades ago and developed into an angelic, gentle and confident teacher,” said Taylor. “He is so kind with the most inexperienced hands and will be deeply missed.”

Like many others, Roy was the beginning of this writer’s own harness racing story. Attending an HHYF camp at Gaitway Farm at the age of 12 years old, Roy was the first horse I jogged. The experience got me hooked on harness racing and Roy became another “first” when I completed my first training half-mile at HHYF Leadership camp for returning campers. He then taught me how to care for horses as an HHYF intern.

Each summer Roy watched me grow taller and my harness racing resumé grew with me as well. I went from someone who didn’t know what harness racing was to a fan, a caretaker, an equine science degree-holder, and now a licensed driver, trainer, charter, and race secretary.

I had the pleasure to sit behind Royal Attire on his last lap around the Gaitway Farm track, the same place my journey began with Roy 14 years ago. But this time, a new young driver held the lines and I sat beside them, teaching them everything I had learned since I was in their seat.

Roy’s retirement was celebrated with posters made by the kids, cheers, and of course a “Happy Retirement” cake. He was adopted by 10-year-old Delaney Spicer, daughter of trainer Veronica and Symon Spicer.

Taylor said, “Witnessing the expression of joy on Delaney’s face and knowing Roy’s affinity for little girls, I know he will excel in his new home.”

This year, the Harness Horse Youth Foundation celebrates 50 years of sharing the sport of harness racing with the next generation. Tickets are on sale now for the 50th Celebration Brunch at The Red Mile in Lexington, Ky. Saturday, October 10.

The second annual Lowrider 500 was a big hit with the small dogs again this season at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Dachshunds took to the track to compete for the title during the live racing program Saturday, August 29 with Skinny Lenny taking home the championship.

Sign-ups for the Lowrider 500 were held a few days before the event. Preliminary heats were conducted in the front paddock surrounded by fans watching the "weiner dogs" travel down the path toward the finish line. The top 10 then advanced to the final held on the racetrack in front of the grandstand.

Handlers kept the dogs in place at the start line with a second individual placed at the finish line. When the word "go" was given, dogs sprinted, for the most part, toward the person they recognized. Skinny Lenny was first followed by Archie in second over Ellie in third.

The top three finishers were awarded individual trophies.

MONSTERS

Second Career is Anything but Scary

By Dot Morgan

When Ultra Image, a 2019 bay gelding by Rockin Image, stepped off the track at the end of 2024, he had compiled a solid racing résumé. Bred by Devon Knepp of Shipshewana, Ind., the gelding earned $186,864 from 67 starts, won nearly a quarter of his races, and was Indiana Sires Stakes placed at three.

Purchased as a yearling by Jeff Eckburg, Bill Beck, and Ron Desyllas Racing, Ultra Image's career didn't begin as hoped. Following a disappointing 2-year-old season, Eckburg bought out his partners and entrusted the colt to trainer Tyler George. That owner-trainer partnership remained intact for the rest of Ultra Image's racing career, ultimately retiring him after a third-place finish in a $27,500 claimer at Harrah's Hoosier Park in November 2024.

It was Tyler's wife, Cassie George, who suggested the gelding be sent to New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program for a second career. New Vocations trainer Laura Kursman immediately found him endearing.

"He (Ultra Image) was very cute and round, almost like a Morgan horse," she recalled.

Given time to unwind with an extended turnout, Ultra Image quickly settled into retirement. He embraced his new routine, especially if it involved splashing in the water trough or rolling happily in the mud. Under saddle, he proved just as willing, making a smooth transition from racehorse to riding horse.

That easygoing personality caught the attention of Mississippi horsewoman Shannon Risinger, who was searching for what she hoped would be her "last horse"—a lifelong partner to enjoy throughout her retirement from public school teaching.

Having ridden for pleasure since age seven, Risinger had come to appreciate Standardbreds after being introduced to the breed more than a decade ago. When her barn owner spotted Ultra Image on the New Vocations website, a text message quickly followed.

One detail nearly changed everything. His barn name was "Monster." Ultra Image had earned the nickname at the track because he was such a terror in his younger years. Though he mellowed with age, the name stuck and almost thwarted an adoption.

"We paused," Risinger laughed. "I thought maybe I'd rename him 'Monty.' But everyone at the barn loved 'Monster,' so it stuck. As it turns out, the only monster in him is his appetite. He's really just a hay monster."

Although Monster arrived in Mississippi in May, Risinger's plans were delayed. Summer heat limited riding, extended travel kept her away, and then a fall from another horse left her with a crushed arm requiring two surgeries.

However, Monster's education didn't stop. Students from the high school equestrian club that Risinger sponsors, along with a few trusted friends, kept him progressing until she was able to return to the saddle.

Since then, Monster has become a dependable trail partner. Risinger describes him as a "one-and-done" horse. New experiences might earn a cautious look the first time, but by the second encounter, they're simply part of the job. That attitude helped the pair earn fourth place at a local Hunter Pace and confidently navigated wooded trails, creek crossings, hills, fallen logs, and curious deer.

Now spending the summer relaxing in his pasture with his Thoroughbred buddy, Monster is enjoying plenty of hay, regular cooling baths, and well-earned downtime. This fall, he'll take on an entirely new adventure—his first foxhunting season.

A Night to “Own It” at Harrah’s Hoosier Park

By Tammy Knox

A renewed event was provided this season at Harrah’s Hoosier Park in partnership with the Indiana Standardbred Breed Development and Indiana Standardbred Association. Owners Club Summer Series offered four nights to provide current and prospective owners the opportunity to enjoy a night at the races.

The two-hour events were held in the Top of the Park room at Harrah’s Hoosier Park featuring appetizers, complimentary beverages, and racing programs. Owners and their families were greeted by members of ISA as well as drivers and trainers, providing more information about racing. The second event held in July attracted more than 40 individuals learning about racing.

The Owners Club Summer Series held its final event Saturday, September 26, the evening following Caesars Trotting Classic Night at Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

On August 13, the Hambletonian Society announced that the Hambletonian Stakes will move to Harrah’s Hoosier Park beginning in 2027 and remain in Indiana through 2029. After decades at the Meadowlands, harness racing’s most prestigious trotting event is coming to Anderson, Indiana.

There are very few moments in the history of our industry that can compare with this announcement. For Indiana, this is more than simply hosting a race. It is recognition of the quality of our racing program, our horsemen and women, our breeders, our facilities and the tremendous investment that has been made in Indiana Standardbred racing. It is an opportunity to introduce our state, our horses and our people to a national and international audience. The impact on the state will be felt for decades.

The Hambletonian coming to Indiana will shine an even brighter spotlight on the thousands of people who make this industry possible every day. From the breeders and foaling farms to the training centers, fairgrounds, racetracks, veterinarians, farriers, drivers, trainers, owners and caretakers, every segment of our industry has played a role in getting Indiana to this point.

Finally, once again all Indiana horse racing breeds will come together along with Purdue University to conduct a study seeking the impact that Indiana horse racing has on Indiana’s economy annually. Participation is the key to understanding the full impact. So when you see the mailers in your mailboxes, please take the time to complete the survey.

On behalf of the Indiana Standardbred Association, I want to thank everyone who has helped make this summer so successful. Thank you to our breeders and owners for continuing to invest in Indiana. Thank you to our trainers, drivers, caretakers and racing officials for putting on the show. And thank you to the Indiana Horse Racing Commission, the Indiana Standardbred Breed Development Program, Harrah’s Hoosier Park, Caesars Entertainment, the Indiana State Fairgrounds and the many county fairs that continue to provide a home for Standardbred racing.

Most importantly, thank you to our directors, members and fans.

Here is to seeing you in the winners circle soon!

in REMEMBRANCE

Odus Bud Davis

Odus Bud Davis, age 95, passed away in the early morning hours of Sunday, August 9, 2026. Bud, as he liked to be called, was born on July 25, 1931, to the late Edward and Ruth Davis in Terre Haute, Ind.

Bud was a decorated Korean War Veteran serving in the United States Marine Corp. For the next 50 years after service, he became dedicated to and enjoyed harness racing. As a fourth-generation participant in Standardbred industry, he became a trainer and a driver. Most of his statistics were not kept prior to the mid-1970s as he began his career in racing in 1962. He drove several horses for Trainer Scotty Harris near the end of his career on the Kentucky Circuit before his retirement from driving in 1991. He was known throughout the Midwestern tracks and on the Grand Circuit as second trainer for Hall of Famer Joe O'Brien and competed at several locations in Indiana, including Terre Haute and the Indiana State Fairgrounds. He remained a loyal member of the US Trotting Association through 2025.

Bud is survived by his devoted wife, Mary Ellen Phillips Davis, his children, grandchildren and many friends.

Funeral services were held Thursday, August 13, 2026, at Kerr Brothers Funeral Home in Lexington, Ky. Burial followed with military rites at Camp Nelson, in Nicholasville, Ky.

Pallbearers were his stepson, George William Hill, grandchild, Michael Andrew Hill, Marine brother, stepson-in-law, Denver Coulter, grandson, Jeremy Jones, and good friends, Brent Ellis and Perry Hurst.

Margaret “Mugs” Rousseau

The horse racing world was very saddened to learn that Margaret (Mugsie) Rousseau passed away suddenly at her home in Flint, Michigan, on Thursday, June 18. Her sister, Barb, had coined her unusual nickname when they were kids.

Family teased Barb about Bugs in her hair, and with the M initial for Margaret, Barb started calling her Mugs.

Following high school at Saginaw St. Andrew, Mugs graduated from Beauty School, and worked in the hair-dressing field for a short time; but soon returned to her chosen career, racing harness horses.

Mugs raced all over the country, for many years with the Eddie Morgan stable, and will be sorely missed by the many horsemen friends she made all along the way. She grew up racing at the Michigan fairs with her Dad and brother, Dave. Later, moving on to pari-mutuel tracks in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Canada, and even Denver, Colorado. She relocated to the Flint area in the 90s to race at Sports Creek Raceway. She had over 1,000 training wins just since 1991, when USTA started keeping statistics. She had a namesake horse Mugsie R. and even drove at a few fairs back in the 70s. Her two favorite horses were Pearl's Johnny and Quick Step.

She always had a good word and a smile for everyone she met in her many travels, and always had positive comments on friends' Facebook posts. Her favorite activity in recent years was gifting friends with her delicious homemade cookies. She also loved watching all sports, races from almost every track, and kept a close eye on entries and results of everyone's horses.

Mugs leaves behind sister, Barb; brother, Dave; faithful dog, Ava; and, of course, her wide circle of friends. Also surviving are sister-in-law, Cathy Rousseau; brother-in-law, Bob Ferens; many nieces and nephews; and many great nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents, Dorothy and Bob Rousseau; sister, Mary Ann; brother, Charlie; and brother-in-law, Mort Tomasov.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Memorial contributions may be directed to the New Vocations Racehorse Adoption program at www.newvocations.org.

James H. Wilson

James H. Wilson, 92, of Fort Wayne, Ind., passed away Saturday September 5, 2026 in his home. Born in November 1933, in Flint, Mich., he was a son of Rufus and Opal Wilson.

James served in the Army and then worked Plant Security for General Motors. He took an early retirement and has spent the last 40-plus years owning, training and driving harness horses. He loved his horses, especially trotters. He had a few special horses, BL Bright Willie an Indiana Sires Stakes Champion, and he owned Just For Trix, a Kentucky Sires Stakes Champion and the Fastest Trotter in 2023.

James is survived by his daughter Teri Jenkins; granddaughter and her husband Shanna Jenkins and Dom Sower; and brothers Charles Wilson and Roger Wilson.

James was preceded in death by his wife Betty Wilson, a son in law William Jenkins, parents Rufus and Opal Wilson, brothers Robert Wilson and Ronald Wilson, and sisters Billie Hunt, Doris Moss and Nancy Morgan.

A private service was scheduled at Marion National Cemetery in Marion Ind. In lieu of flowers please donate in James' memory to New Vocations Racehorse Standardbred Adoption Program or Stillwater Hospice.

Purdue Study approved for this year

The Indiana Standardbred Association, in cooperation with the other breed organizations for Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse and Indiana Breed Development, has approval to move forward with a fourth impact study for the State of Indiana. Provided by Purdue University, the study shows the participation and economic surplus from the state's horse racing program as it touches all 92 counties with participants residing in each one.

The last Purdue University Impact Study was completed in 2022, showing horse racing employs more than 10,000 state wide. In all, the different avenues of racing, from farms and breeding operations to blacksmiths, veterinarians, and those who train and race, brings in approximately $2 billion annually into the state's economic numbers.

Purdue University will once again provide the fact collecting and produce the Economic Impact Study. They draw information from several entities, including the Indiana Agriculture Statistics Service, the Indiana Equine Survey, and American Horse Council, to name a few. All those involved in horse racing at any level are asked to watch for the survey distributed by Purdue University, to accurately depict the total impact annually on the state's economy.

This will be the fourth Economic Impact Study. The first one was completed in 2001 followed by additional information in 2010 before the study was completed in 2022.

conducted in daylight hours and on a track no smaller than a seven-eighths mile, which is the size of Harrah's Hoosier Park.

"We are thrilled and honored to be awarded the Hambletonian Stakes," said Joe Morris, Senior Vice President of Racing for Caesars Entertainment through the announcement release. "This was a statewide effort from the Indiana Sports and Tourism Board, the Governor's office, the City of Anderson and the Madison County Visitors Board. Our industry organizations, the Indiana Horse Racing Commission and Indiana Standardbred Association got together on what was truly a collaborative effort. Along with Caesars' commitment to the event, our staff, horsemen and farms all across the state worked hard to make this happen."

Following the announcement of the move to Harrah's Hoosier Park, the Hambletonian Society announced it would be partnering with Don Hawk's Hawk Sports Management firm to assist with corporate partnerships and sponsorships for its 164 racing events. Hawk has an extensive background in executive positions in Motorsports, including former President of Dale Earnhardt Inc. He also has a passion for Standardbred racing and has been involved in the sport for more than 45 years. He owns 26 Standardbreds ranging from racehorses to broodmares and babies at his farm in North Carolina.

JORDAN ROSS 1,000 WINS

By Tammy Knox

Jordan Ross guides freshman trotter Tipsey in Vegas to victory July 16 for his 1,000th career win. Photo by Dean Gillette Indiana has turned into a second home for Driver Jordan Ross. The Covington, Tenn. native scored his first career win at Converse. Now, he adds his first major milestone on Indiana soil as he guided Tipsey in Vegas to his 1,000th career win July 17 at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Ross began driving in 2015 for his mentor and fellow Tennessee horseman Robert Taylor. He only had six starts, including one qualifier that fall before returning home and driving at the famed Fayetteville in Tennessee.

Ross returned to driving the following year in Indiana, winning three of his five starts, including his very first drive of the season with Bolt For Home in two-year-old colt and gelding action on the Indiana Sired Fair Circuit. The following year in 2017 was his first full year of driving and the rest is history. He has continued to move his way up the ranks to become a top five driver at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Ross' best year to date was in 2024 when he scored 225 wins and earned $2.8 million. He is currently enjoying his fifth year with seven figures in earnings and at press time, has 154 wins heading into the fall season.

Ross, who recently turned 29, had been rattling off wins left and right when he was approaching the milestone July 16. Tipsey in Vegas was the one that achieved that moment as the two-year-old son of Helpisontheway took over before the half and kept on going, winning in convincing fashion in 1:57.1, a final quarter trotted in :27.2. Tipsey in Vegas is owned and trained by Missy Essig as she made her way to the winner's circle for the special presentation to Ross, who was surrounded by friends and family.

The milestone comes on the heels of another important moment for Ross when he represented the United States in the World Driving Championship in 2023.

Jordan Ross is surrounded by friends and family along with Trainer Missy Essig to celebrate his 1,000th career win. Photo by Dean Gillette

Ross learned about racing from a young age, traveling with his grandfather Graham Ross, who competed a lot in Illinois. Ross also credits Trainer Larry Poindexter for getting him involved in racing. The purple and gold colors that Ross wears are representative of his high school colors in Covington.

Ross is already working on his next milestone. At press time, he has won 1,046 races, well on his way to a personal best season in the win column.

100 YEARS of the Fox Stake

A century of Grand Circuit racing at the Indiana State Fair.

By Tammy Knox

The prestigious Fox Stake at the Indiana State Fair celebrated its 100th edition this year as part of the Grand Circuit Program Friday, August 14. The program was postponed as rain soaked the area for several straight days. Another Mile Again and Trace Tetrack trudged through the sloppy track to score the milestone edition of the $38,317 Fox Stake in a time of 1:54.3.

Another Mile Again is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, and Michael Rosenthal. Ron Burke trains the son of JK Endofanera, who earned his second win of the season. GWtrigger and Kyle Wilfong finished second over Brecken and John DeLong.

The significance of the Fox Stake has been part of the fabric of Indiana racing since 1927. The race was created by former racecard driver Frank Fox, who became involved in raising and breeding Standardbreds. He was searching for a race that would showcase his two-year-olds and created the Fox Stake with a purse of $14,888, the richest race for two-year-olds at the time.

The first Fox Stake was won by Sep Palin with Red Pluto in 2:06.0, a world record for a two-year-old at the time. The Fox Stake became the property of the Indiana State Fair in 1931 and has hosted some of the greatest pacers in history, including Abercrombie, Bret Hanover and Good Time.

The Fox Stake was created to include multiple heats, common to Grand Circuit racing in the mid 1900s. The 25th edition of the race was won by Iosola's Ensign in three heats, driven by Wayne "Curly" Smart.

Ironically, the 50th Fox Stake in 1997 was won in a dead heat by Say Hello and Spicy Charlie, both trained by William Popfinger.

One of the most noted finishes in the Fox Stake was the very next year in 1978 when Sonsam and George Sholty took home the title in a new stakes record of 1:55.2. Sonsam made a break in the first heat and was out of it. It took a long time for officials to decide who would be the overall winner as Scarlet Skipper was a winner in the first heat. In the end, it was decided Sonsam, who came back to win the second heat, was the overall winner because of the quicker time. The race was covered by ABC and was broadcast live, garnering national attention.

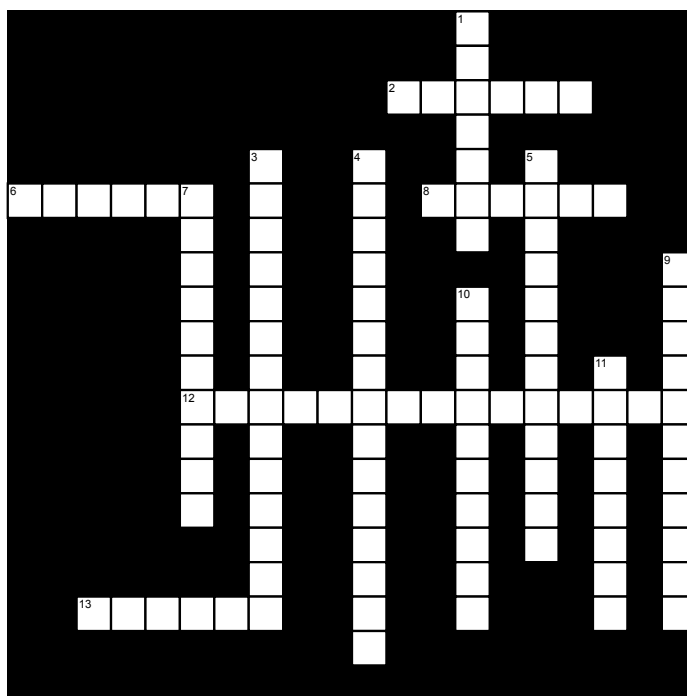

This year's 100th edition of the race had a special program cover depicting scenes from past Fox Stake events. Also, the Indiana Standardbred Breed Development provided history on Facebook about the race. Both Ellen Taylor and Robert Heyden provided additional history during the Fair.
