Remembering Your Friend

Losing a pet is like losing a family member and best friend. Writing a pet obituary is a meaningful way to celebrate their life, share cherished memories, and express the love they brought into your world. Whether you want to post it online, include it in a scrapbook, or share it with friends and family, a pet obituary preserves your pet's legacy forever.

What to Include in a Pet Obituary:

A great pet obituary tells your pet's story, personality, and impact on your life. Consider including:

- Your pet's full name and nickname (Buddy, aka "Buds" or "Mr. Snuggles")
- Breed and age (Loyal Golden Retriever, 12 years young)
- Adoption or Gotcha Day (Rescued on April 15, 2012, and changed our lives forever)
- A brief personality description (Loving, mischievous, and always excited for belly rubs)
- Favorite activities (Loved chasing tennis balls, sunbathing, and stealing socks)
- Special memories (Always greeted us with tail wags and cuddles after a long day)
- A heartfelt farewell message (Buddy, you will always be in our hearts—our home feels emptier without you, but our love for you will never fade.)
