Give Your Child the Gift of Our Beautiful Catholic Faith

At St. Anthony and St. Mary Mission, we invite you to enroll your child in our faith formation classes. This is more than education; it is a journey of the soul, one that nurtures a living relationship with God and fosters values that endure long after the classroom doors close. Preparation for the Sacraments: Whether your family is preparing for First Communion, Confirmation, or continuing the path of faith, our programs support every step. Give your child the gift that endures—the beautiful Catholic faith.

An Evening of Forgiveness and Grace

Last week, our parish faced an unexpected act of vandalism: the Monument to the Unborn, a cherished symbol standing before our Church, was damaged. By Wednesday, the broken benches had been repaired. That same evening, our Prayer Group gathered to recite a Rosary. As they prayed the individual responsible for the vandalism approached the group. With profound honesty, he admitted his role in the incident. He expressed remorse and asked for forgiveness. Our parishioners forgave him without reservation and welcomed him to join in their prayers. The act of forgiveness was not simply words, but a living testament to the love Christ calls us to show one another. In choosing to gather, to pray, and to forgive, our Parish community demonstrated the true strength found in faith and the boundless reach of God's love. May this story inspire us to always choose forgiveness, to repair what has been broken, and to welcome one another in prayerful unity, trusting always in the transformative power of our faith.
