We are grateful for the wonderful turnout at our St. Anthony Feast Day Mass and Celebration on June 13th. Even though the outdoor procession was rained out, the weather did nothing to diminish the graces, joy, and fellowship shared throughout the day. Parishioners gathered in the Parish Hall for good food, plenty of desserts, music, and more music and great fellowship. It was a beautiful reminder of the blessings we share as a parish family. Much fun was had by all.

We are grateful for the dedication of all who shared their time, talents, and generosity and made the celebration a success. Much enjoyment was shared by all. May St. Anthony continue to intercede for our parish and guide us ever closer to the Heart of Christ.
