

Attention High School Students of Holy Family Parish

Fr. Stokes is hosting an exclusive opportunity for you to take part in a MOVIE PREMIER!

Join Fr. Stokes and the Holy Family Parish Youth Group at the premier of The Hail Mary, a film starring, written and directed by Bethlehem native Daniel Roebuck!

Daniel Roebuck's New Film

THE HAIL MARY is a comedy about Sister Kathy, a Nun with a sense of humor and purpose, who finds an angry loner in need of REDEMPTION and leads him to his atonement by conning him into creating a football team for her All-Boys Catholic School.

You will have the opportunity to walk the RED CARPET, take pictures with the cast and have bragging rights about seeing a movie before it is released to the general public!

Saturday, February 21, 2026 at 3:00 PM at Bethlehem Catholic High School
(meet at BECAHI at 2:15 PM)

Daniel Roebuck graduated from Bethlehem Catholic High School in 1981 has starred in such movies as the Fugitive, US Marshals, Final Destination, We Were Soldiers, Agent Cody Banks (1 & 2) and The Munsters (2022) as well as roles in television in Matlock, Star Trek: The Next Generation, Quantum Leap, Lois & Clark: The New Adventures of Superman, Nash Bridges, The King of Queens, The West Wing, Law & Order, NCIS, CSI and Svengoolie.

He is also the writer, director and star of such movies as Getting Grace, St. Nick of Bethlehem and Lucky Louie

The Hail Mary was filmed in the Lehigh Valley with recognizable locations such as Mary Immaculate Seminary, Bethlehem School District Football Stadium and Dorney Park!

Fr. Stokes will pay for the first 15 members of the Youth Group who wish to attend. Please see Mr. and Mrs. Hasker to register!
