

WHAT'S ON

In Our Region

July

2026

National NAIDOC Week runs from Sunday, 5 July to Sunday, 12 July.

The theme for 2026 is "50 Years of Deadly", marking five decades of NAIDOC Week and honouring the Elders, organisers, artists, and leaders who have carried the movement forward.

Sunday 26th July

Sing Australia Concert - Oddfellows Hall Corowa

3 p.m. Roast for a Reason @ The Victoria Hotel

Gymkhana and Ronnette Williams Memorial Trophy @ Corowa Pony Club

WHAT ELSE IS ON...

Saturday 4th July

Fev: Brendan Fevola LIVE - Club Corowa

7p.m.-10p.m

Music on the Murray - St Leonards Vineyard - an afternoon of live music, great wine and rive side views.

Friday 31st July

Super Tuscan Friday @ James and Co Rutherglen

Sunday 12th July

The Troubadour Sunday Sesh @ Hotel Australia 12:00

ART EXHIBITIONS:

9 June - 11 July.

Elijah Ingram: "Where I Was To Where I Am."

Photography exhibition at Corowa Art Space

21 July - 5 September.

Wayne 'Wombat' Birrell: "True Blue"

Art exhibition at Corowa Art Space

"Recycled, Repurposed, Reimagined"

An exhibition by Corowa and District She Shed at Gallery 294, Honour Avenue, Corowa.

NAIDOC Week Weaving Workshops

Celebrate NAIDOC Week with free hands-on Indigenous weaving workshops led by local First Nations artists. All materials supplied.

Book online with Federation Council

Tuesday 7 July: Corowa Library, 1.00 pm-3.00 pm

Wednesday 8 July: Mulwala Library, 10.30 am-12.30 pm

Thursday 9 July: Rand School of Arts Hall, 10.30 am-12.30 pm

5th ← Rotary Club of Corowa Market, Bangarang Park

Browse local stalls, fresh produce, and handmade goods in a relaxed riverside setting

12th ← Rutherglen Market - Lions Park, featuring local produce, artisan stalls and handmade goods.

16th Northern Nights - The Victoria Hotel Rutherglen

22nd ← Pub Choir @ James and Co Wines Rutherglen 6:30p.m.

25th ← A Musical Soiree -Hot Music for a Winter's Night at Wahgunyah School of the Arts 6:30. Tickets at the door $25.