VolBooks Adoption and Canvas LTI Integrations
It's hard to believe, but Spring 2027 courses are right around the corner! To help ensure the smoothest transition between Fall and Spring semesters, please follow these best practices:
First, make sure to adopt your textbook, courseware, third-party course materials, and educational technology tools with VolBooks. The adoption deadline for the Winter Mini-Term and Spring 2027 semesters is November 1.
Second, if you're using a new textbook, trying out new courseware, or just curious about what your options are when using third-party external tools with your courses, please visit the LTI App Integrations webpage.
Don't let the date pass you by! Read more about VolBooks and Canvas LTI.
