Winning Public & Political Support

At Land Use Strategies, we specialize in solving complex client challenges by leveraging strategic communications, creative media, community and stakeholder engagement, and political insight.

Whether you're facing complex reviews, NIMBY resistance, or shifting local political environments, our team brings deep knowledge and experience in keeping your project moving forward to entitlement.

Let's Talk!

➔ Why Choose Us?

- Political Risk Mitigation: Our team has over 30 years of political land use experience.
- Strategic Stakeholder Engagement: We identify, engage, and mobilize advocates for your project.
- Public Hearing Prep & Messaging: We will have your project team fully prepared at all hearings.
- Brand Building & Protection: We put our clients first by protecting their brand and reputation.
- Site Specific Strategy: We have successfully helped clients throughout the entire U.S., including Hawaii and Alaska.
