

OXBOW HOUSE

Experience the perfect blend of historic charm and modern luxury at The Oxbow House, a meticulously remodeled 1930s gem nestled in Napa's prestigious Alta Heights. Ideally situated just a five-minute stroll from the vibrant Oxbow Market and downtown Napa, this three-bedroom sanctuary also offers seamless access to the Silverado Trail for effortless excursions to Yountville and St. Helena. Inside, you'll find a designer-appointed interior featuring a gourmet kitchen equipped with All-Clad and Riedel essentials, alongside plush, high-end linens for a restful retreat. Whether you are relaxing on the private outdoor patio or tapping into our deep industry expertise for a curated wine country itinerary, The Oxbow House serves as the ultimate high-end launching pad for your quintessential Napa Valley escape.
