Major Distinctions to understand about gender or attraction variant communities

- * True gender variant people are not the same as cross dressers or drag queens (who are typically gendered "cis" males/females.)
- * True gender variant people are not statistically pedophilic.
- * True gender variant people and same sex attracted people are not the same at all.
- * Same sex attraction and same sex behavior are different.
- * The true gender variant community is not soliciting more members. They are busy enough talking each other off bridges and tall buildings. There are other influences whipping up extreme gender ideology.
- * Only when little children are "insistent, consistent and persistent" do true gender variant people recommend obtaining a credible professional opinion.
