Parish Mission Statement

We, the community of St. Vincent Ferrer members of the Roman Catholic Church, a parish of believers in Jesus Christ are called in our daily lives to a way of worshiping and living, to impact family, neighborhood and society with the Gospel so that people's lives may be filled with Faith, Hope and Love.

Nuestra Misión Parroquial

Nosotros, la comunidad de San Vicente Ferrer, miembros de la Iglesia Católica Romana, una parroquia de creyentes en Jesucristo, somos llamados en nuestra vida diaria en una forma de alabanza y vivencia, para impactar a la familia, a la comunidad y a la sociedad por medio del Evangelio para que la vida de otras personas se llene de Fe, Esperanza y Amor.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir
