CALLED TO SERVE RETREAT SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH

The retreat starts at 7:30 a.m. with a continental breakfast in the PCC hall. Lunch is also provided and the retreat concludes at 3:00 p.m.

Do you feel ill-equipped to serve the Lord? In the Church, there is a great diversity of ministries but a unity of mission — to lead other people to the Lord. Lay people share in the priestly, prophetic, and kingly office of Christ by virtue of their baptism.

Our ability to lead others grows from our love, our faith, our life in Christ, and our visible witness to others. Plan to spend your Saturday, November 14th at the CALLED TO SERVE one-day retreat that will explore the building blocks of mission and growing them in your life! This is a retreat designed to help you hear and answer God's call to serving His people.

For more information you may call Deacon Eric Shaber at 208-521-7846 or Charlotte Shaber at 208-521-6824.

This time of the year we give thanks for the many blessings God has given us. There are many families struggling financially this year. Please consider helping those in need in our parish and/or in our local community by adopting a family at Christmas.

This program assists families who, due to economic circumstances, need food and gifts at Christmastime. For more information, call Vonnie Bliss at 509-586-3745.

Handmade olive wood religious articles carved by Bethlehem family artisans make great gifts and will be available for purchase in our vestibule following all Masses this weekend. Your purchase directly supports Christian families, helping them remain in the land where Christianity was born while preserving a centuries-old tradition of craftsmanship. Thank you for your support of and prayers for the Christians of the Holy Land.

The final session of the Fall Catholic Education Series features Carol Gaulke's talk titled "Witness to Life: Catholic Teaching on Human Dignity." Join us Monday, November 2 at 6:15 p.m. in PCC rooms 6/8. Light refreshments will be provided before the presentation. All are welcome.

Election Day is Tuesday, November 3

"For citizens in a representative democracy such as our own, participation in public life—including voting—is both a right and a responsibility."
- Archbishop Coakley, president of the USCCB

www.usccb.org/news/2026/citizens-representative-democracy-voting-both-right-and-responsibility-says-archbishop

Parishioners are welcome to bring pictures of their deceased loved ones and place them on the table near the tabernacle.

We will pray for their eternal rest throughout the month of November, beginning on All Souls' Day.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed is Monday, November 2nd. Mass will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m. in the PCC hall.

Remembrance envelopes for All Souls' Day are available in the church and the PCC. These envelopes may be turned in at any time (either in the offering baskets at weekend Masses or at the parish office), and the names of the faithful departed listed on them will be remembered at all our Masses throughout the month of November.

All are invited to a Mass for the Deceased Clergy of the Diocese of Yakima to be celebrated at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 10th at St. Paul Cathedral in Yakima. There will be no Confessions or daily Mass at Holy Spirit that day, as Fr. Michael will be concelebrating the Mass in Yakima.

All are invited to the Mass for the Deceased of our Parish on Tuesday, November 17th in the PCC hall. Mass will be celebrated at 6:00 p.m. (rather than at 5:30 p.m.) with a short reception to follow.

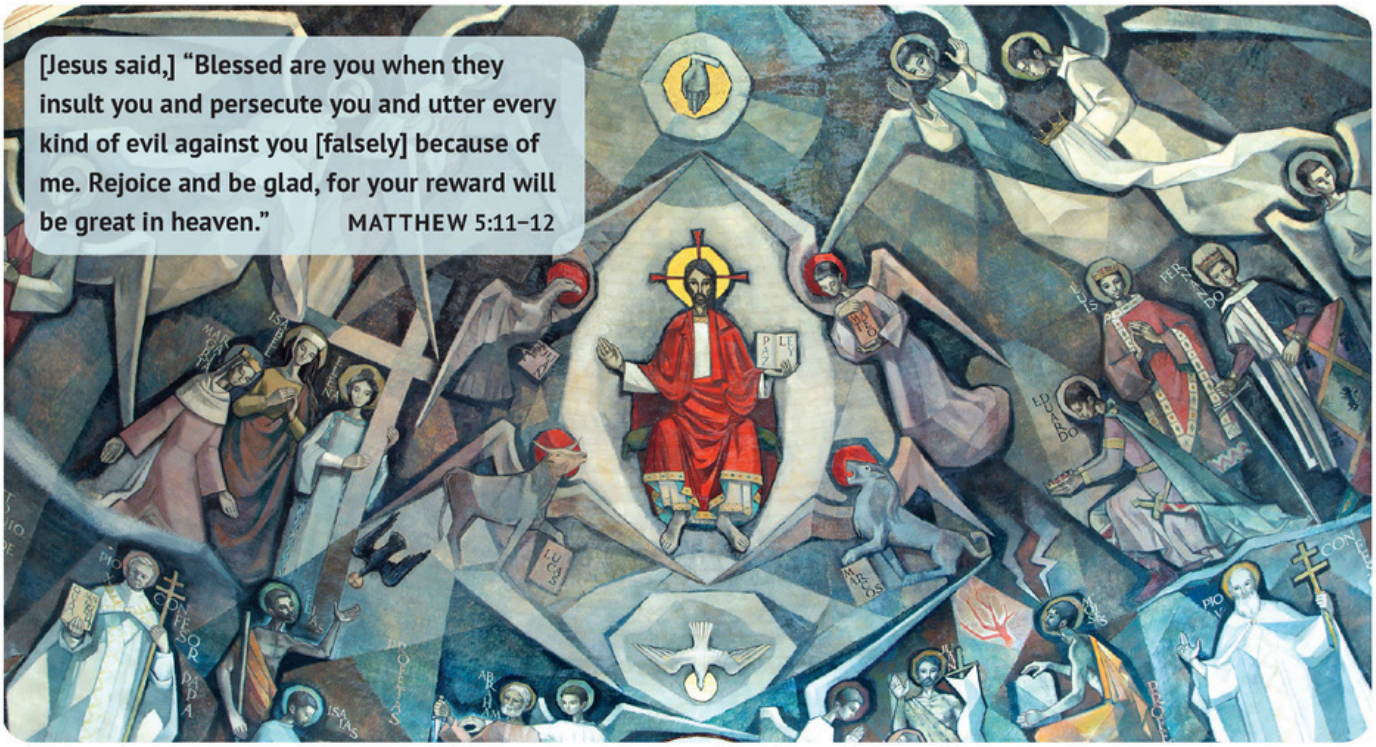

Please join our parish family in praying for the repose of the souls of those who have died in the past year. There will be time after Mass to gather to remember those who have graced our lives and gone before us to be with the Lord. Our prayers and gratitude go with them for all they have done for us and for our parish.

All Saints

Revelation 7:2–4, 9–14 / 1 John 3:1–3 / Matthew 5:1–12a

Come and Get It!

MIGUEL DULICK

What a lovely feast when we hear again the familiar beatitudes. Blessed! Blessed! Blessed! Are you poor in spirit? Come on down—you get the kingdom of heaven! Are you mourning? Comfort on call! Meek? This land is your land! Hungering for righteousness? Your marching days are done! Are you merciful? You ain't seen nothin' yet! What about clean of heart? That's hard to live up to, but the reward is that you get to see God! Peacemaker? "Why, you're one of my own children!" says God. And, finally…insulted and persecuted? Crowned in heaven; that is your reward!

How many saints are there? According to the Book of Revelation, "A great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue" (Revelation 7:9). Pope John Paul II took that as a mandate, multiplying saints beyond the capacity of the calendar to accommodate them; he wanted every community to have a patron saint. Pope Benedict kept up the "multitude-ing," and, in 2015, Pope Francis declared Archbishop Oscar Romero—long called "San Romero de las Americas" by the faithful of El Salvador since his assassination in 1980—a martyr in odium fidei, that is, he had been murdered out of hatred of his faith. This led to his beatification in the same year and his canonization by Pope Francis in 2018. I visited his tomb in 1985, and there were already hundreds of notes stuck on the wall, all grateful for el milagro—the miracle. Saints of God, pray for us. ●

Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) for 2027

Dear Parishioners,

On the weekend of November 7th and 8th, we will celebrate Pledge Weekend for the 2027 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) of the Diocese of Yakima. Did you know that our diocese is a Missionary Diocese within the U.S.A? We are, in part, due to the relatively low percentage of Catholics among the general population of Central Washington. This means that we are a Church that continually "goes forth" in its outreach to many. We continue to proclaim the Gospel of Christ, confident that when we share it with the world, it will flourish. That's what it means to be a Mission Church. As Catholics, we form a community of missionary disciples which is involved, supportive, and collaborative. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we all walk with the Risen Christ into the future; children, young adults, adults, the newly baptized, and "well-seasoned" Catholics. As laity, deacons, priests, religious, and bishops we all have a part to play in the mission of the Catholic Church here in Central Washington. Each year, the ACA invites us to support the ongoing work of the Church beyond the scope of our local parish.

Through our renewed ACA pledges and contributions, we serve countless people in the Diocese of Yakima in ways we may not realize, including ...

Promoting vocations to ordained ministries and the religious/consecrated life

Educating our diocesan seminarians (our future priests) and preparing them for ordained ministry

Catholic Campus Ministry for college students at Central Washington University

Ministries to families, children, youth, and young adults

Ongoing formation of the laity through diocesan catechetical programs

We join our efforts with Catholics in 38 other parishes throughout the diocese to assist in the work that no individual parish can do alone.

This year, our parish goal for the Annual Catholic Appeal is $141,267.00, which is about $11,000 higher than last year's goal. Since we exceeded our goal last year by a substantial amount, I am confident that your continued financial support will assist us in reaching our ACA goal for 2027. All funds collected in excess of our goal will be returned to Holy Spirit Parish as a rebate, for use in our own parish programs—including our vibrant youth ministry and religious education programs, parish retreats/missions with inspirational presenters, and continued online streaming of our daily and Sunday Masses. Due to your generosity last year, the Parish of the Holy Spirit received one of the highest ACA rebates among the parishes of the Diocese of Yakima. We can be proud of this accomplishment which was achieved through the efforts of many.

I personally support the ACA and encourage you to do so as well. Each year I have increased my own pledge a little. After all, just about everything is going up in price. Will you join me? My hope is that every household in our parish will make a pledge or a one-time gift to the ACA this year. I urge you to prayerfully consider your family's financial situation and make the most generous pledge your circumstances will allow. If it is more convenient for you, consider spreading your pledge payments over a number of months, as I do. Any ACA pledge that you make now can be fulfilled through the month of October, 2027.

Thank you for your generosity in supporting the ministries of the Diocese of Yakima. See the reverse side of this letter to learn more about the impact your pledge to the ACA will have in our diocese. Be assured of my continued prayers for you.

God's blessings,

Fr. Michael

Dear Padre,

Growing up, I was never taught how to pray, just how to recite prayers. After a lot of reading about prayer, I find myself conflicted about to whom I pray. At church, we pray to Jesus. But, on the other hand, God is the Almighty One who gave me life. And to make it even harder, there are Mary and the saints. So, to whom do I pray?

PEOPLEIMAGES / SHUTTERSTOCK

A person can end up reciting long formulas of prayers or decades of the rosary without being mentally present. Distraction in prayer is a major problem. Real prayer is conversation with God. God appreciates having our full attention.

If you really look at the prayers of the Mass, you'll see they are all directed to God the Father, with the exception of a prayer that is said to Jesus before Communion. We pray through Christ in the Holy Spirit to God the Father in all the other prayers. However, the Persons of the Blessed Trinity are not jealous of one another. To honor the Father brings immense pleasure to the Son, and vice-versa.

And praying to Mary and the saints is better understood as asking them to pray with us. Jesus said that when two are in agreement about anything they pray for, God will grant that prayer. (See Matthew 18:19.) We exercise the option of praying with others when we invoke the saints.

The great thing is that any genuine prayer is a tremendous help to one's spiritual life. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

The mystery of the communion of saints... reminds us of the final destiny of humanity: a great celebration in which we rejoice together... admiring the multifaceted beauty of faces, all different and all resembling the face of Christ.... How this contrasts with the tragedies that the human family is suffering because of injustice and war.
