Profession is a lifelong commitment to live the Gospel in a Franciscan manner according to a Rule of Life that began during St. Francis' lifetime. All are welcome to join our local Secular Franciscan Community on Saturday, November 21, at the 5:00 p.m. Mass at St. Patrick's Parish in Pasco, followed by a simple reception. We are most grateful to our loyal donors and the new donors who have pledged to the Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal so far. If you were not present at Mass or prepared to make your pledge last weekend, we invite you to do so today. For the ACA to be a success, we need every family of the Parish of the Holy Spirit to participate this year.

To donate online, please visit www.yakimadiocese.org or scan the QR code on the pledge card or to the right.

God our loving Father,
source of every gift and blessing,
we give you thanks for all you have entrusted to us.

Open our hearts to generous gratitude and help us faithfully sustain the ministries of your Church that proclaim the Gospel, strengthen our parishes, form disciples, nurture our youth,
and serve those in need throughout Central Washington.

May our generosity help these vital ministries continue to bring Christ's love and hope to all,
and inspire our young people,
the present and future of our Church, to live as faithful disciples.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Holy Spirit Parish Stewardship

Did you know that the Parish of the Holy Spirit is a tithing parish? We are; and so are a few other parishes in the Diocese of Yakima. What this means is, we offer 10% of our Sunday income each month to assist worthy charitable causes—both locally and worldwide. The members of the Parish Council advise Fr. Michael regarding the charitable organizations that we choose to help, and these vary from month to month.

Based on the Sunday collections we received in the month of September 2026, we are assisting the following organizations with financial help: Tri-Cities Food Bank, Hope Medical, PREPARES, our St. Vincent de Paul Conference, FOCUS (assisting Jackie Gazewood in her lay missionary work with university students), Grace Clinic, and Catholic Charities USA (for natural disaster relief in Florida following the recent hurricane there).

Be Not Afraid

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSsR

So close to Thanksgiving Day, a parable that seems to champion the Puritan work ethic feels fitting. The parable in today's gospel appears to celebrate sincere, positive efforts, while at the same time, it does not look kindly on lackluster attempts. But, as with all of Jesus' parables, we need to take a closer look.

In this instance, the third servant deserves examination. His situation seems to be not so much about work as it is about fear and hopelessness. It is not that he is unable to produce or to take the action needed; rather, he is bound and limited by fear and his perception of what the master requires. His fear makes it impossible for him to do what is required of him, so he does not respond.

We do not know how the master would have reacted if the servant had tried and failed. We do not know if an honest effort on the servant's part would have been enough. We do know that the master rejects fear as an excuse for inaction, and for this reason, the servant is singled out and punished. His fear not only made it impossible for him to work but also prompted the exact circumstance he was trying to avoid: displeasing the master. From the viewpoint of the parable, the servant's decision was not a good one. ●

When has fear kept me from doing right or refraining from doing wrong?

Dear Padre,

JESUS FERNANDEZ / SHUTTERSTOCK

At Mass, I have difficulty communing with God after receiving Communion because of the noise and activity. Why not more silence?

During Mass, communal silence is called for within the Penitential Act, for people to recollect themselves; at the end of a reading or the homily, so all can meditate briefly on what they've heard; and then after Communion, for people to praise and pray to God in their hearts. (See General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 45.) In other words, there is a silence that reflects our contrition before God; a silence that reflects our need to ponder his word; and a deep silence before God that reflects awe and incapacity for words after receiving the Body and Blood of Christ!

After Communion, a period of communal silence for personal prayer is intended before other activities, such as a second collection or announcements. Also, a psalm, canticle of praise, or hymn may be sung. (See GIRM 88, 164.) "Liturgical silence is indispensable to the rhythm of a balanced celebration. Without it, the celebration can become perfunctory in its haste or burdensome in its unrelieved sound and song" (Introduction to the Order of Mass, 48, USCCB, 2003). As St. Alphonsus wrote in The Holy Eucharist: "There is no prayer more agreeable to God, or more profitable to the soul, than that which is made during the thanksgiving after Communion."●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

To those who seek to alleviate the conditions of the poorest, I express my gratitude.... You know well that the question of the poor leads back to the essence of our faith, for they are the very flesh of Christ.... "Where the world sees threats, [the Church] sees children; where walls are built, [the Church] builds bridges."
