Thank you for maintaining your financial support of our parish as you are able. If you'd prefer to mail an offering, please send it to Parish of the Holy Spirit, 7411 W. Clearwater Ave., Ste. A, Kennewick, WA 99336. If you are currently using offering envelopes and would like to switch to online giving (or bill-payer from your bank), please call the parish office so we can discontinue your envelope mailings with our printing service. Thank you.

"Search" is a weekend retreat experience of Christian community for high school students. Life Teen will be providing a Search Retreat for our 10th -12th graders Friday, November 6th through Sunday, November 8th at Camp Dudley. This is a very moving weekend with the teens' faith life being greatly impacted!

Interested? Parents and students in 10-12th grades should attend an information meeting at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 18th in PCC room 3. Information for the teens, including a list of what to bring, and what NOT to bring to the retreat, will be distributed at the beginning of the meeting. The teens will then be excused for the parent portion of the meeting.

If your teen has not brought home a registration form or if you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Moore at 509-492-6209.

Construction continues in our church to repair past water damage. The work is expected to be ongoing throughout the next months. Thank you for your patience, flexibility, and support through each phase of this much needed repair work in our church. If you have any questions, please contact Deacon Ken Ellis at 509-735-8558. Deacon Ken is serving as the liaison with our contractor for this project.

CALLED TO SERVE SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH

Do you feel ill-equipped to serve? In the church, there is great diversity of ministries but a unity of mission — to lead other people to the Lord. Lay people share in the priestly, prophetic and kingly office of Christ by virtue of their baptism.

Our ability to lead others grows from our love, our faith, our life in Christ, and our visible witness to others. Plan today to spend your Saturday, November 14 at the CALLLED TO SERVE one-day retreat that explores these building blocks of mission and growing them in your life! This is a retreat designed to help you hear and answer God's call to serving His people. There will be upcoming signups available in the vestibule after Mass. For more information you may call Deacon Eric Shaber at 208-521-7846 or Charlotte Shaber at 208-521-6824.

PLANNING FOR THANKSGIVING

Team members are needed as Deacon Ken Ellis is interested in organizing a parish Thanksgiving dinner in our PCC hall this year. Please call Deacon Ken at 509-735-8558 or email deaconkeneth@holyspiritkennewick.org for more information about helping to organize, cook, and serve during this fun event for our parishioners; especially for those who may not have family members in our local area. You may also sign up after Mass in the vestibule to attend and/or help.

Who Are You Wearing?

MIGUEL DULICK

The closer Jesus gets to his death, the more targeted are his parables, specifically to the “chief priests and elders.” He has no patience with their hypocrisy.

The wedding feast has a long history in the prophets and the psalms, always a glorious celebration of love and delight—God marrying the chosen people. But in today’s gospel, Jesus speaks of the feast as a massacre. When the guests refuse to attend his son’s wedding, and they even kill the messengers sent to invite them, the enraged king amasses his troops to destroy “those murderers” and burn their city to the ground. So, the chosen people are un-chosen. Then, the king tries again, this time sending the servants to “whomever [they] find.” And then comes a beautiful moment: the servants invite the “bad (literally, “evil”) and good alike,” and they fill up the hall! This echoes Jesus’ own promise of the cross: “When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself” (John 12:32).

THE AUTHORS OF OUR PARISH
COMMUNITY

There is one more twist to the story that keeps Jesus in his own uncompromising space. When the king spots a guest without a “wedding garment,” he binds him hand and foot and throws him out into the darkness. Pretty scary—but do stay with Jesus. Accept the invitation to the banquet. And let Jesus dress you in his own garment of grace. ●

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines.

ISAIAH 25:6

Reflect

Do I show up to the banquet (the Eucharist) prepared to listen, pray, and be fed?

Dear Padre,

In the Creed, we say we believe in the resurrection of the body. So, why is it all right to be cremated?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly states what many find confusing: “It is very commonly accepted that the life of the human person continues in a spiritual fashion after death. But how can we believe that this body, so clearly mortal, could rise to everlasting life?” (CCC 996). The Catechism goes on to address several questions: “What is rising? Who will rise? How? When?” (CCC 997–1001). In essence, “Christ ‘will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body,’ into a ‘spiritual body’” (CCC 999). The disposition or condition of the physical body at death will not affect the spiritual body that is raised. Cremation, decomposition, mutilation or dismemberment by violence, or the donation of one’s body to science—deemed “a noble and meritorious act...to be encouraged as an expression of generous solidarity” (CCC 2296)—does not prevent the resurrection of our glorified body. It is only when the act of cremation appears to be a public denial of faith in the resurrection or the sacredness of the body that the practice is forbidden. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

In the face of...the tragic situations of injustice, violence, and suffering that mark our time, it is essential that our faith be alert, attentive, and prophetic. It should likewise open our eyes to the darkness of the world and bring to others the light of the gospel through our commitment to peace, justice, and solidarity.
