If you are currently using offering envelopes and would like to switch to online giving (or bill-payer from your bank), please call the parish office so we can discontinue your envelope mailings with our printing service. Thank you.

Tri-Cities Prep high school is now accepting applications for the 2027–2028 school year! Families who apply before November 1 can enjoy a waived application fee as part of our early application launch. Beginning November 1, applications will open to the general public and the standard application fee will apply.

At Tri-Cities Prep, students are known and supported, challenged academically, and prepared for college and beyond in a welcoming Catholic community. Learn more and apply at tcprep.org or use QR code.

A Note from the St. Serra Club of Tri Cities

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Matthew 22: 21) You belong to God. He is asking asking you to follow Him. Are you being called to teach the Word of God as a priest, permanent deacon, brother, monk or nun?

CALLED TO SERVE SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH

Do you feel ill-equipped to serve the Lord? In the Church, there is a great diversity of ministries but a unity of mission — to lead other people to the Lord. Lay people share in the priestly, prophetic, and kingly office of Christ by virtue of their baptism.

Our ability to lead others grows from our love, our faith, our life in Christ, and our visible witness to others. Plan to spend your Saturday, November 14 at the CALLLED TO SERVE one-day retreat that will explore the building blocks of mission and growing them in your life! This is a retreat designed to help you hear and answer God's call to serving His people. Evangelization Committee members are available in the vestibule after Mass this weekend to assist you in signing up for the retreat. For more information you may call Deacon Eric Shaber at 208-521-7846 or Charlotte Shaber at 208-521-6824.

JAIL MINISTRY

Just a “heads-up” about what many of you have done in the past as a Corporal Work of Mercy by supporting our Jail Ministry. As you know, we provide a Christmas gift sack (socks, shampoo, soap, calendar, two stamped envelopes, holy card, notebook) to every prisoner at the Benton County and Franklin County juvenile detention and correctional facilities. This year, the number of inmates is about 670 people. We need about 900 stamps, since we have some left over from last year. We hope to have the sack stuffing event in mid-December, prior to hand-delivering them to each prisoner.

If you would like to help in this Corporal Work of Mercy, we could use US Postage stamps. We will give each prisoner two stamped envelopes as one of the items in their Christmas gift bags, to allow them to write home. Please call (253-370-9899) or give the stamps to Robin or Linda Rego. Alternatively, you can drop off a check at the parish office, made out to “Parish of the Holy Spirit.” Please include “Jail Ministry” in the memo field.

We will need the stamps by Friday, November 12, 2026.

COLLECTION FOR WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 2026

ONE IN CHRIST,
United in Mission

100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday is a special day when Catholics around the world unite in prayer, solidarity, and support the missionary work of the Church. This year, the World Mission Sunday collection will take place on October 17-18, 2026.

This year is especially significant as we celebrate the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926 as a universal expression of the Church's missionary identity. Together, we help bring the hope of the Gospel to communities where the Church is young, growing, and often facing great challenges.

Until 1908, the Church in the United States was considered a mission territory. We relied on the generosity of Catholics throughout the world to help build our churches and seminaries and to support our clergy and religious. Today, many mission territories depend on our generosity to sustain the Church as an instrument of God's love and mercy, and a source of hope and peace.

The collection taken up on World Mission Sunday is entrusted to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, one of the four Pontifical Mission Societies. These offerings are distributed, in the name of the Holy Father, to support the Church in places where it is still young and growing, and where communities often face poverty, isolation, or persecution.

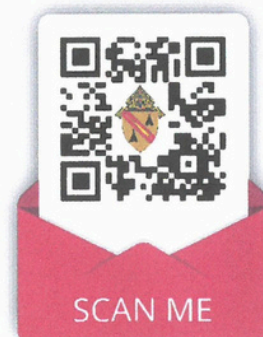

More than a collection, World Mission Sunday is a visible sign of the unity of the Church. It gives each of us an opportunity to participate in the universal mission of the Church through our prayers, sacrifices, and generosity. We may not be able to GO to the missions ourselves, but we can SEND our prayers and the material resources so deeply needed by our brothers and sisters in mission territories.

Thank you for your prayers and generous support of the Church's missionary work throughout the world.

With every best wish and blessing,

Most Reverend Joseph J. Tyson
Bishop of Yakima

[Jesus said,] “Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.”

MATTHEW 22:21

Sidestepping Side-taking

ANN M. GARRIDO

Jesus had to know something was up when both the Pharisees and the Herodians approached him together. Pharisees and Herodians were never together. Herodians survived by cooperating with the Roman Empire. The Pharisees found such cooperation an affront to God’s law.

“Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?” they asked. It was a trap. If he answered “no,” the Herodians could report him to the Romans for fomenting rebellion. If he answered “yes,” the crowd watching would see Jesus as a sellout to an unpopular foreign power. But Jesus did not take the bait. He refused to give a “yes” or a “no,” instead allowing onlookers to see that his Pharisee and Herodian challengers were carrying the Roman coin in their pockets—hence participating in the Roman economy—whereas he did not even possess the coin they were asking about. He was living and working for a different ruler altogether. Their question was outside his realm of concern.

So often we, too, can find ourselves trapped in heated political conversations where questions are asked in such a way that they seem to allow only a yes-or-no answer. The askers want to reveal, “Are you with us or are you against us?” as if there are no other options. As followers of Jesus, we know that there are issues of ultimate concern for us—“battle hills worth dying on.” Jesus himself had one: Calvary. But Jesus himself did not feel as if he needed to take a stand on every hot political issue of his day. Sometimes he sidestepped those conversations. So can we.●

Reflect

When confronted, do I prefer to “take the bait” or find common ground?

Dear Padre,

What does it mean when it says we're in Cycle A or B or C? Or Years I and II?

When the bishops of the Church at the Second Vatican Council in 1963 called for a revision of our liturgy, they asked that "The treasures of the Bible...be opened up more lavishly, so that richer fare may be provided for the faithful at the table of God's word. In this way, a more representative portion of the holy Scriptures will be read to the people in the course of a prescribed number of years" (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 51).

At Sunday Masses, the Scriptures are divided up over three years (called Years A, B, and C). At these Masses, the gospel is the primary reading. The first reading, taken from the Old Testament, and the responsorial psalm touch upon the same theme as the gospel. In the Easter season, the first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles. The second reading follows consecutive passages from the letters of Paul or the other apostles, independent of the other readings.

At weekday Masses, most of the Bible is read over a period of two years. Odd-numbered years are Year I, and even-numbered years are Year II.

All of this should help us open those treasures that the Church says are ours in the Scriptures. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Today let us ask Mary, Mother of the Church, to be able to serve, with Jesus and like Jesus, those men and women thirsting for truth and justice. This is not the time for opposition between one church and another, between "us" and "them"—those who worship God seek to be men and women of peace, who worship him in Spirit and in truth.
