A MERRY AND BLESSED CHRISTMAS TO EVERYONE:

For this weekend's article, I would like to share some thoughts with you about Christmas that recent popes and a Father of the Church have announced to the world. May we all be blessed by the Lord Jesus, whose birth in the flesh we will continue to celebrate together, up to—and including—the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, on January 8, 2024.

"The liturgy of Christmastide invites us to hasten joyously to the stable at Bethlehem to meet Jesus Christ, our Savior: 'Come, faithful! Come, let us adore the Lord Jesus!' Let us open the doors of our hearts to him, so that he will accompany us now and throughout the year that is about to begin. ... May the light of Christ, that shone upon humanity on Christmas Night, shine upon you and light your steps in the New Year."—St. Pope John Paul II

"We are all here (on this planet) in passing, but it is precisely Jesus who makes us feel at home on this earth, sanctified by his presence. He asks us, however, to make it a home in which all are welcome. ... The surprising gift of Christmas is exactly this: Jesus came for each one of us and in him we have become brothers."—Pope Benedict XVI

"Christmas is a decisive event (which) must not be reduced to a merely sentimental or consumerist feast, full of gifts and good wishes but poor in Christian faith. ... The core of our faith is this: 'And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.' (Jn 1:14) And this is the heart of Christmas; rather, it is the truth of Christmas, there is no other."—Pope Francis

Lastly, on this Christmas weekend, ponder the following nugget of holy wisdom, which (hopefully) describes your motivation for worshipping God with us here at the Parish of the Holy Spirit, today and every weekend ...

"If you've come to church to find holy people, you've made a mistake. If you came to find God, you chose correctly."—St. John Chrysostom, c. 407

The Sacrament of Reconciliation will NOT be offered on Tuesday, December 26, but there WILL be our celebration of daily Mass at 5:30 p.m. on that day—the Feast of St. Stephen, the first martyr of the Christian Church.

Merry Christmas,

E. Mihel

THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

Your monetary offering on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day will illuminate the darkness with the love of Christ through the network of social services offered by Catholic Charities. Catholic Charities serves those most in need throughout the lifecycle – from expectant mothers and families with young children to grandparents raising their grandchildren and the elderly struggling to live independently. Thank you for making a gift to your neighbors in need this Christmas season. Extra donation envelopes are available in the vestibule. To learn more about the Catholic Charities network of services, visit www.hopetolife.org.

STEWARDSHIP: In our first reading for the Fourth Sunday of Advent, God promises King David that his house and his kingdom will endure forever. It is through Mary's "Yes"—"I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let it be done to me as you say."—that the promise finds fulfillment.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

What Is Your Fiat?

Are you an anxious people-pleaser prone to overcommitting yourself? Welcome to the club! We have slogans, and for your convenience I've listed them here:

"Sounds great!"

"No worries!"

"Absolutely, I can do that, not a problem!"

These are your go-to responses for when someone requests a favor that is a huge inconvenience, but you would rather die than disappoint. It's not exactly disingenuous, it's just a little neurotic. Again, welcome to the club.

You know who doesn't belong to this club? The Blessed Mother. For many reasons, I'm sure, but the biggest one is that she's always completely up-front. Take her response to the Angel Gabriel: "Let it be done."

If there are more powerful words than these, I can't think of them now. There was never a human creature more willing to obey God than Mary, full of grace, and it makes it all the more striking that she means exactly what she says.

Let it be done.

Not: "Yes, this is exactly that I asked for!"

Not: "Nope. This sounds awful. Count me out."

But precisely this: "If God is asking, then my answer is yes."

The Angel Gabriel visits us all, in a way, at some point or another, bearing news we may not expect. When we can say, in the face of uncertainty, "Let it be done," we are embracing our calling as disciples. We are becoming more like Mary.

"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord." — Luke 1:38

Recitation of the Rosary for the repose of the soul of Joe Carson will be prayed Tuesday, January 9th at 10:30 a.m. at Holy Spirit.

The Mass of Christian Burial for Mr. Carson will be celebrated Tuesday, January 9th at 11:00 a.m. at Holy Spirit.

According to the IRS rules for charitable donations, if a check made out to the Parish of the Holy Spirit is dated before or on December 31, 2023, but the check is received in the office January 1, 2024 or later (by U.S. mail or hand-delivered), that check amount must be recognized as a donation in 2024.

A NOTE FROM ST. SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

"Mary said, 'Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.' Then the angel departed from her." (Luke 1:38) Obedience to the Lord's will is the fruit of humble prayer. Ask God if He is calling you to serve Him as a priest, permanent deacon, or brother or sister in religious life.

HOLY SPIRIT ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCE

December is a five-Sunday month. After every Mass next weekend, a second collection will be taken up to support our parish's St. Vincent de Paul Conference. This month, among the many people our Vincentians served, we met a Spanish-speaking lady who has been unable to work for about a year due to an injury. Aided by a translator, we helped her with food and gas, and pointed her to other resources. Thank you in advance for your contributions next weekend. We meet this coming Thursday at 10:00 a.m. in PCC room 7. Come visit!

The Holy Spirit Youth Ministry Team is planning a game night for Thursday, December 28th starting at 5:30 p.m. in the youth room. This is for all high schoolers and college students. Get ready for a rousing game of cards, a friendly game of Apples to Apples, or a new Catholic game we have.

Looking forward to seeing all of you over Christmas break!

5TH SUNDAY ROSARY: The Knights of Columbus will lead the recitation of the Holy Rosary on the 5th Sunday of this month, December 31, following the 9:30 a.m. Mass—in the church near the tabernacle. Knights, their families and all other parishioners are encouraged to pray the Rosary as a group every time a 5th Sunday occurs on the calendar. Please join us!

Merry Christmas and Blessed New Year from Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) Tri-Cities! In his very first Sunday Angelus, Pope Francis said, "Mercy is the Lord's most powerful message." Then he declared a Year of Mercy in 2015-2016. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy tells us that when Jesus died, an "ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world." Although the Year of Mercy has ended, we are called to continue to live out God's mercy and share it with others. This coming week, as you make New Year's resolutions, consider how you might bring God's mercy and love to those who need it.

The next meeting of SEEL will be Saturday, January 13 at 9:00 a.m. in PCC rooms 6/8 and online on the Zoom app. To learn more about SEEL, please visit <https://seeltc.com>.

THE HOLY FACE OF JESUS

"Seek the Lord and His strength;
Seek His face continually." Psalm 105:4

"Make Your face shine upon Your servant,
And teach me Your statutes." Psalm 119:145

St. Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face

Show us thy face and we shall be saved. Throughout the history of the world people have longed to see the face of God. The face of Jesus Christ is both a sign of God's divinity and his humanity. Jesus knew we would seek his face and long to see it. He showed us his Holy Face during his life, death, and resurrection.

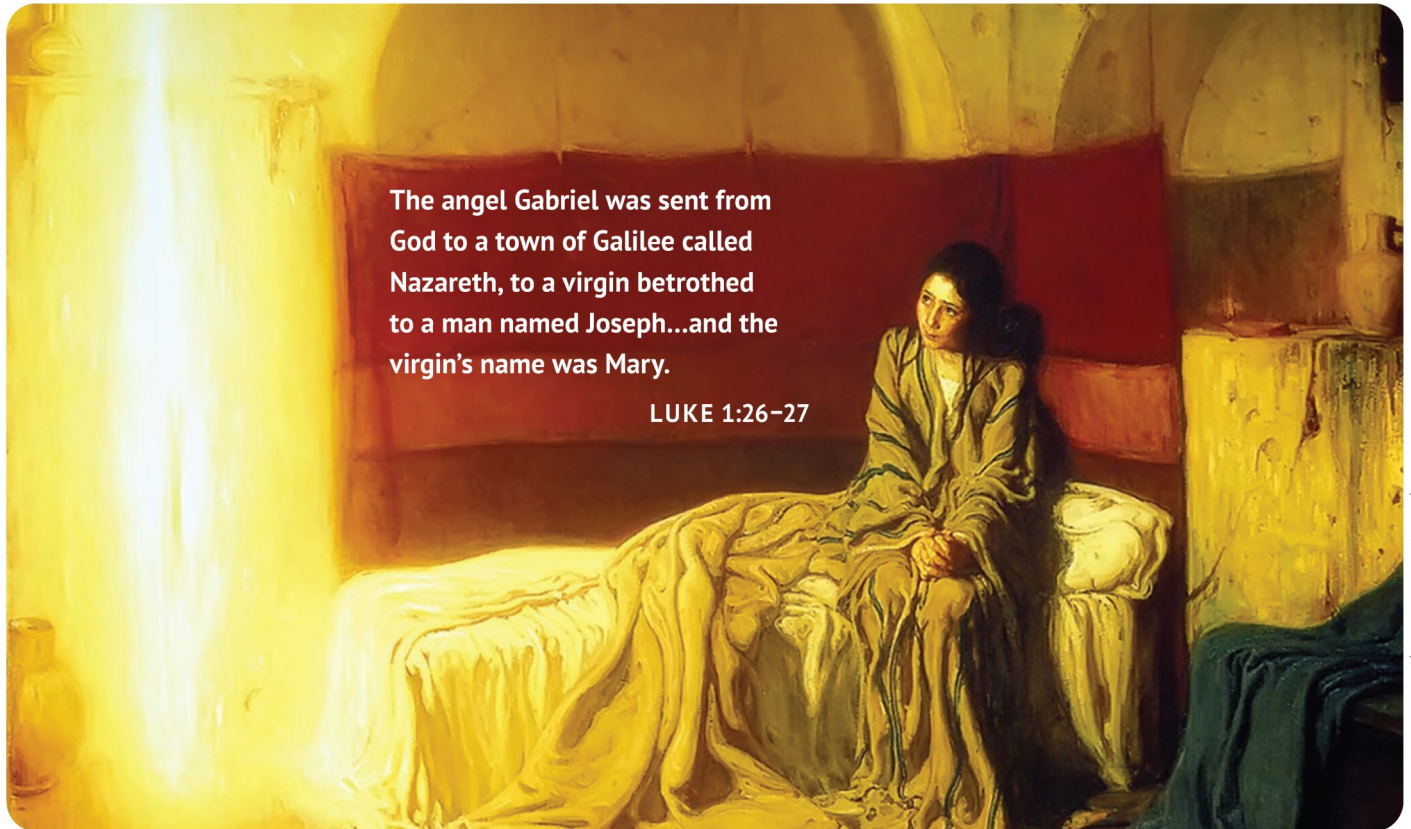

On Epiphany 1849 he answered that call again. When the pope had to flee Rome due to a revolution, God allowed the veil of Veronica to be miraculously illuminated allowing the imprinted face of Jesus on his way to Calvary to be seen clearly, for the first time in centuries, for three days. Artists were brought in to capture Jesus' image, those images were printed, touched to the true veil and sent out to the religious. One religious man, Leo Dupont, worked 6,000 verified miracles in front of one such print.

It was the favorite devotion of St. Therese the Little Flower, whose name in religious life was Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face.

Short daily prayers, revelations, and a chaplet were given to a little known nun, Sister Mary of Saint Peter. This chaplet was given to her to be the devotion to fight communism, a concept she had never heard of before.

The Lord showed us his face. Let us seek it, let us love and adore his face as Mother Mary did, as the saints in heaven do. If you are looking to increase your love of Jesus, consider making this devotion your own.

To learn more about this beautiful devotion, stop by the parish office. There are copies of the autobiography of Sister Mary, chaplets, plaques, and framed copies of the image from the veil of Veronica. These are all free and waiting for you! But supplies are limited so head over today! All of these materials have been made available to us by a family from our parish who has a deep devotion to the Holy Face. We thank the Von Rotz family for sharing these materials with us.

The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph...and the virgin's name was Mary.

LUKE 1:26-27

Wondering Why

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

The old axiom goes: if you want to make God laugh, tell God your plans. All too often the vision God has for us takes us in quite varying directions. The stories of King David and of Mary echo such realities. David, who wanted to build a temple for the Ark of the Covenant so God would not need to live in a tent, had his plans nixed, only to be reminded that it is God who does the building in life and not David. And Mary, who found herself confused over how she might conceive, was asked to simply trust and place her life in the hands of God. Both said “yes.”

There are always times when the unfolding path of God for us may unsettle us: the complexities of immigrants at our doorstep, the changing demographics of our cities, the need to close or merge parishes, the upheavals of our personal lives. We find ourselves asking why without receiving any answers. Each time there is no answer, consider it an invitation to trust in a power greater than ourselves.

Not all rhythms of life are necessarily caused by the hand of God, but then one can never be sure. Who is to say where and how and through whom God works? Christmas comes as a reminder that God’s love and presence still unfolds in varied and new ways, always giving birth again and again to the divine made flesh in our lives. The mystery of the Incarnation points to this truth: God is present in all of life. ●

Reflect

Have you ever had your plans unsettled in a way that turned out, in the end, to be a gift from God?

Dear Padre,

The Bible talks about Jesus' brothers and sisters. Is there scriptural proof that Jesus was Mary's only child?

The Catholic Church's position is that Mary had only one child; her son called Jesus. Yet there are at least ten scriptural references to "the brothers of Jesus" or to his "sisters" (see Matthew 13:55–56, Mark 6:3, and Luke 8:19–21).

The difficulty is that the meaning of the term "brothers" (translated from the Greek adelphos) isn't restricted to the sharing of a parent. On the contrary, it may not only refer to other relatives, including cousins, but also to close relationships, such as disciples. This is not unlike how we might refer to "brothers in arms" as those who fought in a war together, or a religious order of brothers or sisters.

Recall, too, that Jesus and his disciples spoke Aramaic, and there is no equivalent for the meaning of "cousins" as we know it in that language. Instead, the word for brother or sister was used when referring to cousins. Thus, when St. Jerome (circa 340–420) translated the Bible from Hebrew into Church Latin, he considered "the brothers of Jesus" as cousins, not siblings. After all, it would have been the rightful responsibility of these male relatives of Jesus to take care of Mary when Jesus died. Yet Jesus entrusts his mother to the care of his beloved disciple John (John 19:26). ●
